

PATIENT'S AT HIGHLANDS
COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baty of Highlands announce the birth of a son, August 10th.

Mrs. Caffny from High Hampton Inn is a patient suffering from a broken leg.

Mrs. Mattie Houston is a patient.

Mrs. Sam Prince of Highlands is a patient.

Mrs. Wilma Faye Zoellner was a recent patient at Highlands Community Hospital.

Taylor-James Wedding con't. gladiolas and Shasta daises were used at the altar and in the windows of the church.

A program of nuptial music was presented by organist Jean Mentzer of Miami and Highlands, with songs by Miss Martha Holt and Mr. Ramsey. Traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Thomas James, wore a strapless ballerina gown of Chantilly lace and nylon net over slipper satin, featuring a lace bolero with long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a satin Juliette cap set with rhinestones. Her only ornament was a rhinestone penant cross, gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations and satin streamers.

Mrs. John Gordon of Zebulon was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a Nile green tafetta ballerina gown with a close fitting strapless bodice, nylon net overskirt and matching stole. Her picture hat was of white lace straw trimmed with daises, and she carried a colonial nosegay made of Shasta daises. Miss Geraldine James, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid. Her pink nylon net and tafetta attire and picture hat were identical to that of the matron of honor. Two small cousins of the bride, Ann and Sue Picklesimer, were ring bearer and flower girl.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white crepe with navy accessories and a peach gladiola corsage. Mrs. Taylor wore a teal blue crepe with black accessories, and her corsage was a white glamellia.

Following a reception held in the church dining room, the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a pink linin suit with white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.
