RESORT TOWN PLANT

Operating a combination laundry and drycleaning plant in a town with a population of 590 may sound like a comparatively simple proposition, but when that town happens to be Highlands, N.C., it's not particularly "in the good ol' summertime."

Highlands Cleaners and Laundry was started in 1946 by two brothers,

WHY WE CAME TO HIGHLANDS

By - Mary H. DuPree

I represent another family in the long line of those who come to Highlands to live, and who never want to go away again.

It was in the spring of 1935, when I was teaching in Ware Shoals, that I received a letter from an Atlanta seminary student who wanted me to know his plans for the

HORSEBACK RIDER THROWN

Mr. J.E. Harvey of Jacksonville, Fla., suffered compound fractures of the left leg and severe lacerations of both legs when he was thrown by a horse while he and his bride were horseback riding near the Country Club last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey were honeymooning in Highlands when the accident occurred. The horse Mrs. Harvey was riding was in front and it kicked Mr. Harvey's horse causing it to throw and injure him.

He was given treatment at Highlands Community Hospital and then sent by ambulance to an Atlanta hospital for further treatment.

"POPS CONCERT"

Hundreds of local music lovers welcomed the Transylvania Faculty and Staff Orchestra last Saturday night when they gave a performance at the Highlands School Auditorium. The orchestra, under the direction of James Christian Pfohl, founder and director of the camp, presented a varied program for the benefit of the Highlands Community Hos-
