NOTES ABOUT HIGHLANDS

By - Mary Lennox Morris

It was the liquid notes of the thrush, with his ode to the dawn, who broke the quiet of the night. There was no sound in the world but the thrush and a lone hound dog in the distant valley, announcing the day.

The sky was turning pink as the sun rose over the rim of the great mountain across the valley and as it rose the dim valley turned to the "Blue Valley" and rim on rim of mountains appeared. One could see why the early settlers called this a "Sea View". Perhaps they were homesick for the great sea they had left behind. The noise of the lit-

HOSPITAL DRIVE LAGGING

By - Mrs. A.T. Carter

Collections to the Loyalty Drive of Highlands Community Hospital have dropped off to a serious degree.

Hope was held by the co-chairman of the Drive, Mrs. John H.C. Perry and Mr. O.C. Skinner, that announcement could be made of the successful conclusion of the Drive at this time.

Instead it will be necessary to double check and make appeal calls in order to reach the $10,000 goal.

GARDEN TOURS

The Highlands Home and Garden Tours, August 6 and 7, sponsored by the Highlands Garden Club will afford people an opportunity of seeing different types of homes and gardens suited to this part of the country. The tours are so planned that they take in some of the most scenic views. There are two tours, each $2.00. Each includes free transportation for the tour and a free trip up Whiteside. To help you decide whether you want to go on one or both tours the following is an outline of the places to be seen on each tour.

The Home and Garden Tour "A" will consist of The Gene Howerdds, home
