

Galax News

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS EDITION

PUBLISHED BY THE GALAX THEATRE, HIGHLANDS, N.C.

Saturday, December 18, 1954

Miss Mary Summer, Editor

MERRY CHRISTMAS

HIGHLANDS GARDEN CLUB NEWS

This year many a Highlands home will be bright and gay with Christmas decorations for there is a prize of $10 offered by the Highlands Garden Club for the one with the best decorations. The decorations will be seen without entering the house. It may be a window, a door or doorway, a Christmas tree or any combination. The Christmas spirit may be expressed by a Nativity scene, a jolly Santa Claus or in any one of a dozen ways. In many of the December magazines will be found a wealth of ideas ranging from the serene age-old ones to the dramatic modernistic ones. The judging will be on the night of December 22nd. Those entering the con-

(Con't. on page 7)

BOY SCOUT TROOP IN ACTION

By - Richard Harrison, Scoutmaster

Since the last publication of the Galax News some of the boys have been working pretty hard, and when a boy works, there must be someone to encourage him--and usually is.

We have had one over-night kike

(Con't. page 5)

REGARDING OUR HOSPITAL

By - Mrs. A.T. Carter

The Highlands Community Hospital family will redouble its efforts to further the continued progress and best interests of the institution to justify the contribution of its founder, Stacey C. Russell. Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Russell died on November 14, 1954 and will be immeasurably missed.

The Hospital continues to improve its services. It is an active and busy place, fulfilling an

(Con't. page 8)

I CAN'T THINK OF ANYTHING THEY NEED

By - Rev. R. T. Houts

These words are more familiar at Christmas than the traditional "Peace on earth, good will to men!" We are bound to the tradition that every package must be wrapped, sealed and delivered before the deadline on Christmas Eve. Who among us at one time or another has not muttered, as we searched for socks for Cousin Elmer or a necktie for Uncle Harry, "I just can't think

(Con't. page 9)

GALAX THEATRE

Monday Dec 20

Free Christmas Movie

Jack Warner-Nadia Gray

In

"VALLEY OF THE EAGLES"

Also 3 Cartoons

One Show Only Starting at 7:15

This is our annual Free Christmas Show. Everyone is welcome. Come and bring someone with you. Come early and see the entire show--remember that we will run only one show.

Fri-Sat Dec 24-25

Rory Calhoun-Piper Laurie
In

"DAWN AT SOCORRO" in Techni.

Shows at 7:00 & 8:40

Adm. 15¢ & 50¢

Fri-Sat Dec 31-Jan 1

George Montgomery
In

"CRIPPLE CREEK" in Tech.

Shows at 7:00 & 8:40

Adm. 15¢ & 50¢

COMING SOON-

THE EGG AND I

HAPPY NEW YEAR