PRE-AUTUMN DAY

I know it is not Autumn
Yet I feel her on the way-
A certain glory's added
To the brightness of the day:

A certain lift and magic,
As of high-bloom crystal bells
Against a deep blue-drunken sky...
In the woods a spirit dwells

That whispers of her coming
Of her radiance that spills-
Of a caravan descending
Mad with beauty down the hills,

The trees about me rustle
With a suddenly Autumn sound-
The birch above me shivers,
A yellow leaf drifts down;

I know it is not Autumn
But she is not far away,
For joy in my heart rose up
And called to her today!

Bess Hines Harkins.
