TWIST OF FATE - by Ella Cabe

The beginning hush of evening settled over the forest. Russet and maize shadows reflected the dull, golden sunlight as a slight breeze ruffled the leaves of autumn.

A solemn old pine tree balanced unsteadily on the uttermost point of the craggy ledge at the edge of the forest, seemed to look wonderingly at the man approaching the drop-off. When the man reached the edge he paused and stood gazing mutely into the far-reaching depths of the chasm, his cloudy, gray eyes not seeing the magnificance of the scene. Presently he trembled and withdrew to more secure footing.

He was a rather tall man, neatly dressed, his light brown hair brushed smoothly back. He sat down on a twisting

TERRY SANFORD VISITS HERE

Terry Sanford, Democratic nominee for governor of North Carolina, visited Highlands Friday morning, August 26. He was accompanied on his visit by Dr. Wallace Hyde, Western North Carolina campaign manager, and Mr. Roy Wilder, publicity manager on a statewide basis.

A large number of interested voters were present to greet him in spite of the fact that it was a time when most people were usually busy. They gathered in the Cobb Building where Mr. Sanford made remarks and statements concerning the needs of North Carolina in general, and Western

OBSERVATIONS

In a conversation with William H. Melvin, Hospital Fund Drive Chairman, he wished to publicly express his gratitude and profound appreciation to all who helped make the Hospital, as well as its 1960 four goal, a financial success. It is anticipated that additional donations will continue to flow in during the balance of the year. It is my opinion that the Board of Trustees of the Hospital is composed of fine, capable men of sound business judgement in whom the community can well be proud. Doctors' Berry and Johnston and Hospital Administrator, Mrs. Ella

OPEN 'TIL NOVEMBER 1ST

Mr. Dick Lee, owner of LEE'S INN and NEW MOTEL, has announced that the Inn and Motel will remain open until November 1st for the convenience of those wishing to stay in Highlands and enjoy the beautiful colorama of the fall.

OFFICE WORKER NEEDED

Mr. Guy Sutton, Highlands School principal, has announced that he needs a full time secretary for the school office to do bookkeeping and typing during the regular school hours, or he will consider a part time worker.
For more details, see Mr. Sutton.

THANK YOU

At the end of another season of publishing the GALAX NEWS, the staff and all connected with the paper would like to express their thanks to everyone who has helped to make our 9th season a success.

This summer marked the largest issue in our history, 24 pages, which was made possible by the loyal support of our advertisers and by all those who aided by
