and Tennessee, and though their repertoire ranges far and wide they still have an important part of their singing dedicated to the songs of their native Blue Ridge Mountains. Nelson Watts, Bill Horton and Zack Allen will be welcomed back enthusiastically in this year's SUMMER HOOTENANNY.

Miss Ann Dodson is from Anderson, South Carolina, but has spent many summers in Highlands. Her collection of folk music from both America and abroad is extensive and represents four years study in the field. Her portion of the program will include: "Copper Kettle," "Sing in the Sunshine," "The Three Ravens" and "Sinner Man."

Benny Bunch is a musical man of many parts. He is an accomplished performer on the guitar, organ, piano, bass, harmonica and mandolin. He will add to his collection of folk music with a year's travel and study in Europe beginning this winter. He joins Alan Davis, Julie Wiles and Bruce Mulligan later in the show as THE EMPLOYEES, the most promising new ensemble in the area who perform weekly at Sapphire Valley Inn. Bruce Mulligan is now a teacher in Winston Salem, N. C., and has performed widely as "the other half" of THE SASSAFRASS SINGERS" with Benny Bunch. Alan Davis is a sophomore at The University of the South and Judy Wiles is a student at Marshall University, both widely known in their respective areas.

THE GLASSY MOUNTAIN BOYS operate under the direction of Lewis Osteen who will be remembered locally as one-time manager of Helen's Barn. He has had a wide-range of experience with folk-singing groups during the past five years, and plays bass for the group. Lance Leroy is the fiddler of the group and is one of the remaining few of the old-time fiddlers. Vernon Rowland is a Blue-Grass specialist and plays the mandolin. Martin Beckman is the featured singer and plays guitar, and Al Osteen, who placed second in the Old Time Fiddlers Convention last year completes the organization.

The entire company will be featured in the community sing part of the program, playing and singing the old familiar folk songs of the area as well as the better known folk music of other countries.

Clyde Bolt, Jr., is the producer of SUMMER HOOTENANNY 1965 and the engagement is limited to two performances only, Friday and Saturday evenings, August 27th-28th at 8:30 P. M. All seats are reserved and tickets go on sale on Wednesday morning at 10 A.M. at the downtown box office. Telephone reservations may be made by calling Highlands 4870.

NOTICE: All matinees at the GALAX THEATRE have been discontinued for the remainder of the season.
