SHOWS AT 7:25 & 9:30

(NOTES FROM BREVARD MUSIC CENTER, FROM 7) Resident Opera Company under the direction of John Richards McCrae. Nancy Williams, star of "Cinderella" earlier in the season, will sing the role of sharpshooting Annie Oakley. This mammoth production has been in rehearsal for three weeks. Berlin's score, featuring old-time favorites like "Doin' What Comes Natur'lly" and "The Girl that I Marry", and the hilarious fictionalized story about the coming of age of wild west star Annie Oakley should prove a delight for all ages. Performance time is 8:15 on Saturday, August 28.

Sunday's concert, at 3:30, will feature Metropolitan Opera star Jean Madeira. Miss Madeira, mezzo-soprano of international acclaim, will sing deFall's exciting
