MRS. BETSY CHAPMAN DIES

Mrs. Besty Potts Chapman, 50, of Florence, South Carolina, died there early Monday morning after a long illness.

She was the daughter of the late Frank and Belle McKinney Potts of Highlands. Mrs. Chapman was a graduate of Highlands High School and attended Western Carolina College.

Surviving are the husband, Jay F. Chapman; two daughters, Mrs. Frank Smith of Wake Forest and Mrs. William Blythe of Florence; two brothers, Jack of Brevard and Steve Potts of Highlands; two sisters, Mrs. William Owens of Clinton, South Carolina and Mrs. Orville Coward of Sylva, North Carolina; and four grandchildren.

Services were held in St. Paul's Methodist Church in Florence at five o'clock Tuesday.

REFLECTIONS AS A YOUTH

-- BETTY HOLT

The age we are living in is one of invention and innovation. Incomes are higher and job opportunities better because today's youth is more prepared educationally to undertake these tasks. Work is not so strenuous, but man's thinking power determines his success in his career. Times are prosperous and the standard of living has doubled.

Why, in these good days, is youth so troubled? Times and peoples are rapidly changing, and the span of the population is whirled up in this transition. Here sits youth, not knowing which way to turn -- not knowing whether to do what he thinks he should do, or whether to follow what he has always been taught is right. There are exceptions to every rule, and the policies regarding youth are no different. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 22)

ANNUAL SQUARE DANCE FESTIVAL IS TONIGHT AT HIGHLANDS SCHOOL GYM

Three states will be represented by dancing teams at Highlands' sixth annual square dance festival TONIGHT. The "Shindiggers" from Lexington, Kentucky, and the "Mountain City Cloggers" from Mountain City, Georgia will compete with North Carolina teams which include the T. C. Roberson Square Dance Team, Asheville; "Highlands Hill Hoppers" and the "Helen's Barn Cloggers," Highlands; and Valley Springs Junior Square Dance Team, Hendersonville. All teams will be competing for $200 in prize money.

Bob Padgett, festival chairman, stated that prizes will be awarded separately for smooth dance teams and clogging teams this year. Judging will be done by representatives of each team, using a point system to determine winners.

Dance music will be provided by Floyd Lamb, Willard Crisp, and Gary Wilson. Special music will be provided by
