TAYLOR-REESE VOWS SPOKEN

Miss Sandra Gail Taylor became the bride of Mr. William R. Reese Saturday, August 12, at 4 p.m. in an impressive double-ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Highlands. Vows were spoken to Dr. Robert Crapps, of Furman University, Greenville, S. C., supply minister.

Mrs. Glen Shuler presented a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony with Mrs. Calvin Anderson as soloist. Mrs. Anderson sang, "More" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, Mr. Tudor Calloway, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white lace over satin. She wore a shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Kathy Roper, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor; Misses Celia and Teresa Calloway, sisters of the bride, and Miss Patty Roper, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Freda Calloway, sister of the bride, was flower girl. They wore floor-length dresses of light blue with matching veils, and carried bouquets of pink gladiolas.

Mr. Larry Reese, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Doyle Calloway, Mr. Clarence Potts, and Mr. Tony Calloway, brother of the bride. Russell Calloway, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a navy dress with red rosebud corsage. The groom's mother wore (CON'T ON PAGE 16)
