(HAUGHTON-PICKLESIMER WEDDING, FROM 6)
Ann and Sue Picklesimer of Highlands.
Miss Honey Garrison of Eufaula was also a bridesmaid.

Their dresses were of aqua chiffon
over maize crepe and featured empire
waistlines accented with satin bands.
Their headpieces were of daisies and braid with bouffant veils, and they carried nosegays of Marguerita daisies.

Lyn Thornton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Press Thornton, was flower girl.
Her dress was fashioned similar to the other attendants' and had short puffed sleeves and an aqua satin sash with long streamers. She wore a ribbon bow and daisies in her hair and she carried a dainty white basket filled with daisies.

Damion Veazey, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Jim Veazey, was ring bearer.

Serving as best man for the groom was his father. Ushers were William Hart and Bob Whiddon of Dothan, Bobby Zoellner and Larry Chastain of Highlands.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts at a reception at the Country Club. The couple will live in Highlands, where both are employed by the Highlands Country Club.
