Rotary News

At the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Highlands Rotary Club, Mr. Bill Lees, Hospital Administrator, was welcomed into membership of the club. There were 28 members, guests, and visiting Rotarians present.

Mr. Hank Conkle, of the Carolina Mountain Shop in Cashiers, was scheduled to present a program which included highlights of the 1968 Baseball Season. However, due to the power failure, Mr. Conkle was unable to finish his program, but gave an interesting lecture on Mountain Lore.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. Elberta Chastain of Highlands announces the engagement of her daughter, Alice Yvonne, to Corporal Barry W. Gaston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Racco A. Gaston of Boston, Massachusetts.

Miss Chastain is a 1967 graduate of Highlands High School and a graduate of Blanton's Business College, Asheville, N. C. She is employed with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D. C. Mr. Gaston is with the United States Marine Corps stationed in Quantian, Virginia.

Wedding plans are incomplete and will be announced later.

Plans Progressing For Fourth of July Celebration

Plans are underway for the first annual Fourth of July Celebration. Mr. Parker has reported that all entries for the Miss Highlands contest must be in by 12:00 noon Tuesday, July 1st. They may be given directly to him or the Chamber of Commerce. A crown and trophy have been purchased for the winner.

Other events are a Little League Baseball Game, Art and Craft Exhibit, Pet Show, and Street Dance, and plans are still in the making for others.

There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Monday, June 30th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Town Conference Hall. The purpose of the meeting is to finish plans for the Fourth of July Celebration, and all members are urged to attend.
