MILDRED BARNES DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Mildred Talley Barnes, 27, of Route 5, Franklin, died unexpectedly Sunday evening at her residence.

She was a lifelong resident of Macon County.

Surviving are the husband, Gordon Barnes; a sister, Mrs. Johnny L. Moore of Franklin; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Talley of Highlands; and the maternal grandmothers, Mrs. Agnes Talley and Mrs. Frank Rogers, both of Satolah, Georgia.

Services were held at 3 p.m. Tuesday in Highlands First Baptist Church. The Rev. Harvey Stewart and the Rev. Oliver Rice officiated. Burial was in Macedonia Baptist Church Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Jimmy Talley, Marion Oxford, Neville and Morris Wilson, Hilliard Houston and Tommy Rogers.

HIGHLANDS-CASHIERS GARDEN CLUB SPONSORS ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW

The Highlands-Cashiers Garden Club will present its annual Flower Show, "High Hills and Valleys Low", Thursday, July 17th, from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Cashiers Community Center. Admission is free, and all non-Garden Club members are invited to participate also.

General Chairman of the event is Mrs. Edmund Cluett of Cashiers. Mrs. William McKee is Co-Chairman. Entries Chairman for the Highlands area is Mrs. Tom Allen. Anyone interested should call her at 526-2653, or Mrs. Harry Long at 526-3167.

The club feels very fortunate to have Mrs. Donald Hastings, of Atlanta, Ga., who will conduct a workshop at the Community Center on July 14th, beginning at 10 a.m. Mrs. Hastings is one of the most noted flower arrangers in the country.

Those planning to attend the workshop should bring their own flowers, containers, and other materials, and a sandwich for lunch. Coffee will be furnished. Mrs. Hastings will judge the arrangements in the afternoon -- this could be a big help to those entering the Flower Show the following Thursday.

MUSEUM NEWS

On Wednesday, July 16, at 8:30 a.m. Mr. C. H. Ekdahl will conduct a nature walk. He has made a lifetime study of botany and ornithology, and is well acquainted with the Highlands area. He is a field trip leader and past president of the Halifax River Audubon Society.
