HCT NEEDS ACTORS FOR NEXT PRODUCTION

Three men are wanted to play leading roles in "The Importance of Being Earnest" at the Highlands Community Theatre. Auditions for a young man in his twenties or thirties to play Jack Worthing; a character actor to play Canon Chasuble; and a proper English manservant named Lane, will be held Sunday night at 8 p.m. at the theatre.

All Highlands residents and summer visitors are invited to auditions. The roles will not be cast until Sunday night.

Rehearsals begin Monday and performance dates are set for July 31-Aug. 2.

NEWS FROM YOUR HOSPITAL

Due either to the fact a war is in progress or that workmen take little pride in their work anymore seems to be something Your Hospital must contend with these days. A very noticeable deterioration in equipment and the way this equipment comes from the manufacturer is experienced daily. This is quite annoying (CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE)

"FIVE CARD STUD"

Bob Mitchum on a horse is a deceptive image. If you want the truth, put it the other way around - a horse on him. The story comes out in two parts, the first while he's changing his pants in one of the little green dressing rooms on Paramount's Stage 6. Big Mitch is in "Five Card Stud" playing Thursday and Friday, July 17 and 18, at the GALAX THEATRE, a Western in which he and Dean Martin star in Durango, Mexico.

"First picture I ever did was a Western, Abe," he says. "But just a little one. A Hopalong Cassidy. They sent me up to Lone Pine to play the heavy -- me a Conn. Yankee that couldn't even ride one of these things they use.

"The wrangler, he looks at me, points to a big, red four-legged critter, and says "Take that one." So me and the horse look at each other, and he doesn't like me any better than I like him. Right off we just don't cotton. I climb onto him, and zoom! -- he throws me 20 feet.
