HOSPITAL BAZAAR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Plans for the 1969 Hospital Bazaar are in the last stages, and Friday morning at 9 a.m. door will open at the Educational Building of the Presbyterian Church. The combined efforts of many people make this Bazaar possible, and proceeds will be used for the purchase of much needed hospital beds.

The Baptist Women under the leadership of Mrs. Echol Rowland will have a table of baked goods and condiments. The Catholic Church will send a donation. The Youth Group of the Episcopal Church with Elizabeth Worley in charge will also have a food and bake sale. Mrs. W. F. Harris and Mrs. Richard Harrison have led a group of Methodist Women in making aprons, wrap-around dresses, Christmas decorations, dustcloths, crocheted polishing cloths, covered coat hangers as well as a spool doll bed. The Women of the Presbyterian Church have held three bake sales and will also sponsor a snack booth on Friday with Mrs. F. T. Gardner in charge.
