

THEATRE TO HAVE PAINT-IN SAT.

The Highlands Community Theatre has scheduled a "paint-in" for adults and teenagers Saturday, beginning at 10 a.m. at the Theatre Building. Purpose of the "paint-in" is to paint and redecorate the interior of the playhouse. Residents and summer visitors are invited to come in old clothes and bring paint brushes. Everyone is welcome.

The Theatre Staff, under the direction of Mike Hall, has completed the lobby refurnishing and will now tackle the auditorium and outside walk.

Parents who wish to bring their teenagers to the "paint-in" are asked to pick them up by 4:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon. Anyone who cannot do physical labor, but wants to help with the civic events, may bring refreshments for the workers. Donations of paint and brushes will also be appreciated.

METHODIST NEWS

Due to a conflict with the Hospital Bazaar, men of the church have postponed their PANCAKE FESTIVAL until the following Saturday, August 2. On that date, August 2, PANCAKES will be served from 8 a.m. until...Details in next week's GALAX NEWS.

Following the morning worship this

Sunday, July 27, a fellowship lunch will be served in the fellowship hall of the church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. Each family is requested to bring picnic supplies or a covered dish. Those visitors who are unable to prepare food are especially invited to attend, for there will be plenty of food.

Adult Choir continues to meet on Friday evenings at 7 p.m. Children's Choir convenes on Saturdays at 3 p.m. Visitors welcome to both groups.

ALLEN STILL TO SPEAK

Mr. Allen Still, owner of the Blue Ridge Pharmacy in Highlands, will speak Tuesday evening, July 29, at 8 p.m. at the Museum of Natural History. The lecture, entitled "Pharmacognosy of Southern Plants," deals with the drugs which are derived from plants. Many residents will be surprised by the flora which have both helpful and toxic effects on the human body.

Mr. Still and his wife, Marilyn, both earned B.S. degrees in Pharmacy from Samford University, Birmingham, Alabama. Mr. Still purchased the Blue Ridge Pharmacy on June 1, 1968; he is a member of the Retail Drug Association and the American Pharmaceutical Association. All visitors welcome.
