FOREST INFORMATION PROGRAMS

Forest Information Programs are given each week by personnel of the local U. S. Forest Service. The programs are usually general interest programs and suited for children and adult entertainment.

Each Saturday night at 9:00 p.m. a movie is shown on the patio of the bath house at Cliffside Lake. The films are usually concerning National Forest or National Park Service. Each Thursday from 11 a.m. to 12 noon a talk about the duties of a Forest Ranger is given at the shelter on Cliffside Lake. The program is directed primarily for children but adults are welcome.

For flower enthusiasts a show-me trip is conducted by Resource Forester Jimmy Bishop on alternate Wednesdays beginning at 10 a.m. at the Highlands Biological Station.

In addition to these weekly tours a color slide program on "A Winter in Highlands" will be presented at the Biological Station Tuesday, August 5, at 8:00 p.m. by District Ranger James Brown. Ranger Brown has a number of color slides taken throughout the Highlands area during the past winter.

These programs are directed toward tourists visiting Highlands, but local residents are welcome to attend.

"THE COMEDIANS"

Whenever you put Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor together in a motion picture, you can expect fireworks and MGM's "The Comedians," based on Graham Greene's explosive novel, is no exception.

Haiti, currently fermenting amid the ruthless dictatorship of Francois Duvalier, known as "Papa Doc" and his murderous secret police, the Tonton Macoute, is the setting for Peter Glenville's powerfully realistic production of Greene's book, brought to the screen with an all-star cast headed by the Burtons, Alec Guinness, Peter Ustinov, Paul Ford and Lillian Gish.

"The Comedians" unfolds an engrossing and tensely dramatic story of a group of people who come to Haiti despite the danger of its revolution-torn regime and who find themselves drawn into the vortex of plotting, and armed action against the government.

One of the group is Brown (Burton) who has returned to Haiti to reopen his empty tourist hotel and also to resume his affair with Martha Pineda (Elizabeth Taylor) who is bored with her husband, (Peter Ustinov), a South American ambassador who keeps his eyes closed to his wife's infidelity. The film plays Tuesday, July 29th, at the GALAX THEATRE.
