("WHAT WILL YOU LEAVE BEHIND," FROM P. 2) whether rich or poor, he has left behind more than great wealth, for he has left all he had. Those who remain must pass the example of the good and true on to others.

What a wealth of kindnesses are forever being bequeathed to us in the passing of someone. If they are good, will we accept them? A friend always leaves something behind, if no more than a smile or an encouraging word. What will you leave behind?

COMING MOVIES:

"A DANDY IN ASPIC" starring Laurence Harvey, Tom Courtenay, and Mia Farrow.

"COOL HAND LUKE" starring Paul Newman
Gordon Eastman's "HIGH WILD AND FREE"

"WHERE WERE YOU WHEN THE LIGHTS WENT OUT?" starring Doris Day, Robert Morse, Terry-Thomas and Patrick O'Neal.

"HOW SWEET IT IS" starring James Garner, Debbie Reynolds and Maurice Ronet.

"BUONA SERA, MRS. CAMPBELL"

It is war. No small part in liberating the village of San Forino in north Italy accrues to GI's Braddock (Telly Savalas), Young (Peter Lawford) and Newman (Phil Silvers). Lovely young Carla (Gina Lollobrigida), the village beauty, doesn't know how to show her appreciation.

Or does she?

With the times of peace there also arrives in San Forino a little stranger.

It is now several years later. The little stranger has blossomed into lovely Gia (Janet Margolin) brought up by her still beautiful mother (Gina Lollobrigida) with the means provided by her three former lovers, each of whom has been led to believe he is the father of the child and each of whom is doing the right thing in a great big way. It amounts to a tidy sum. Carla is pretty well off.

But who is Gia's father? A Mr. Campbell, Carla tells her. Poor fellow, he was killed in the war. But left them very comfortably off, anyone can see.

Maybe everything would have been fine if things had remained so. But, of course, they never do. A wise guy among the veterans of the 293rd dreams up the idea of a regimental re-union in San Forino! To San Forino go the veterans with their wives and children, each determined to right ancient wrongs and to do the right thing.

Don't miss "Buona Sera, Mrs. Campbell!" July 25th and 26th at the GALAX.
