MACON COUNTY VOTERS OK BONDS FOR COURTHOUSE

A $1 million courthouse bond referendum found acceptance in Macon County Tuesday, as voters approved the measure by 1,805 to 911. Highlands voters defeated the measure 237 to 45 with 30 per cent of the voters voting.

The action paves the way for the eventual replacement of the present century-old structure.

County commission chairman Oscar Ledford said, "the board of commissioners appreciates the enthusiasm and turn out in this important vote. This certainly does assure the people of Macon County a modern courthouse in due time."

Ledford said that not all of the $980,000 worth of bonds will be sold unless the money is needed.

BENEFIT FASHION SHOW, DINNER AND DANCE WEDNESDAY AT KING'S INN

The Second Annual Highlands-Cashiers Hospital Benefit Ball, Dinner and Fashion Show will be held Wednesday, August 13th, at King's Inn. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. followed by the Fashion Show at 8:30 p.m. Dancing will follow the Fashion Show.

Many of the fashions by Mary Norton which were used in the Miss Universe Contest will be used in the Fashion Show. An incomplete list of the models follows: Mrs. John Phelan, Miss Vicki Fleming, Mrs. Robert Matlack, Mrs. Edward Brady, Mrs. Earl Myers, Mrs. Harry Long, Mrs. Geary Langford, Mrs. Donald Wartena, Mrs. Paul Schroeders, Mrs. Art Boutwell, Mrs. Hank Laskey, Mrs. Charles Hamm, Mrs. Skip Maynard, Miss Sue Leyral, Miss Becky Phelps, Miss Mia Davidson, Mrs. Ed Edwards.

It is very important to make your reservations as early as possible, for last year many were turned away. Can you think of a nicer way to spend an evening while contributing to a very worthy cause? For reservations call King's Inn, 526-2161.
