EDISON PICKLESIMER SUCCUMBS

Word has been received here of the death Saturday of Edison A. Picklesimer in Verona, New Jersey.

The late Mr. Picklesimer was born and grew to early manhood in Whiteside Cove, graduated from Highlands High School and studied law at Wake Forest University. Mr. Picklesimer belonged to one of the pioneer families of this region and will be laid to rest in the family plot in Whiteside Cove Cemetery. The graveside services will be held Friday at 2:00 p.m.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Isabel Picklesimer; four sons, John, Jim, Eddie and Fred and two sisters, Mrs. Edith Passmore of Cashiers and Mrs. Ed Edwards of Highlands.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at Bryant Funeral Chapel in Highlands.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE OPENS AT HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY THEATRE

Patron, Angel and Century Donor memberships are now available at the Highlands Community Theatre, with all contributions going to the non-profit group to help offset the cost of operating a theatre school and producing five major productions this summer.

Patron memberships, offering two tickets to each of five plays, are $30. Angels give a contribution of $50 or more and Century Donors give $100 or more. Memberships may be sent to the Community Theatre, Box 896, Highlands.

Four performances of each play will be given, including Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening showings at 8:30 p.m. and a Sunday matinee at 2:30 p.m.

Opening the season July 2-5 is the delightful Noel Coward comedy, "Hay Fever." Local actors who would like to participate in the theatre's summer activities are invited to attend a get-together Monday June 22 at 8:00 p.m. at the theatre.
