DRY SPELL HITS HIGHLANDS

California isn't the only state that has "most unusual weather" - Highlanders have almost never known such a dry spell as they are presently experiencing.

The total rainfall for the first 6 months of 1970 in Highlands was 30.47 inches and the normal is 43.85. Highlands is therefore 13.38 below normal. During 1969 the total rainfall for the first 6 months was 45.93 which gave the area a total of 2.08 inches above normal. So, if you think it has just been your imagination, these figures from Magistrate Ted Crunkleton's office prove it has truly been a most unusual season - so far.

"MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER" OPENS TONIGHT AT HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY THEATRE

The delightful Sheridan Whiteside, critic-author-lecturer and central character in the Kaufman and Hart comedy classic "The Man Who Came to Dinner" rides his wheelchair across the stage once more at the Highlands Community Theatre tonight through Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and again Sunday, July 19, at 2:30 p.m. The famous play based on the real-life character of Alexander Woolcott, a celebrated wit who fractures his hip on the doorstep of the Ernest Stanleys in Mesalia, Ohio, has been produced throughout the country with great success. The leading role in the Highlands' production will be played by George W. Statler, professor of theatre from Central Florida Junior College, Ocala Florida.

ORGAN RECITAL

An organ recital, sponsored by the Episcopal Churchwomen as part of their cooperation with the annual Hospital Bazaar, will be given at the Church of the Incarnation on Sunday afternoon, July 26, at 3:00 p.m. Tickets - limited in number because of the church's seating capacity - will be on sale at $1.50 each at the Bazaar. All proceeds will go to the Hospital. (Continued on Page 9)
