GALAX NEWS CLOSES FOR THE SEASON

The streets are a little emptier now, and nights a little cooler - the season is ending, and the GALAX NEWS is closing its 20th year.

Soon we'll be going back to school: Barbara to begin her freshman year at Western Carolina; Dotty to begin her senior year at Western Carolina University and Susan to begin her sophomore year at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Thank you to everyone who has had a part in making our 20th year of publication a success.

CANCER CRUSADE OVER TOP

The preliminary results of the Cancer Crusade party at VZTOP indicate that over $1,000 was raised for the fight against cancer by the East Macon (Highlands) unit of the American Cancer Society. Some 130 people attended the tea at the Rainwater mansion and many others made contributions.

The winning number for award of the beautiful 5 piece silver service donated by the Highlands Art Gallery was 222, held by Michael Pugh of Pompano Beach, Florida who secured the lucky ticket at Lee's Inn.

The directors of the local cancer society would like to take this opportunity to thank those who worked so hard to make the tea an outstanding success, and the Highlands Art Gallery and Potts

BABY CONTEST WINNERS

The judges had a tremendous task before them as they were asked to choose the best babies' photographs from the many that were taken by Burton Talbott during the past few months. Two winners were chosen from each of the three divisions. Winners in the first division for babies up to 18 months were Denita Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Edwards and granddaughter (Con't page 11)
