CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS TO BE IN NASHVILLE

Those that are interested in original drama, the opportunity of seeing the Carolina Playmakers at Nashville, November 14, will be an especial delight. The Carolina Playmakers will give a showing of a number of original plays. These plays are based on life as seen in North Carolina. As far as possible, the Carolina Playmakers seek to write all of their plays. Everyone should go to see the Carolina Playmakers as they are noted throughout the world for the originality and presentation of plays.

HESPERIAN SOCIETY GIVES VARIED PROGRAM REPRESENTS STATE

Monday night at Atlantic Christian College the Hesperian Literary Society in its regular bi-monthly meeting gave a special program in observance of the 25th anniversary of the organization. It was a most enjoyable affair which the society is giving this year.

Miss Abby Gaskill, of Rocky Mount, sang several war-time songs, while Miss Vivian Prescott, of New Bern and Aurora, gave a musical reading of "Memories of France."

John Allen Jernigan, former student of the College, from Rocky Mount, was a visitor and gave several humorous impersonations.

The debate was on the question of the harmful social and physical effects of tobacco. Miss Martha Pugh, New Bern, presented the affirmative side of the proposition; while Robert Haincock, Rural Hall, and Leon Dentling, Newton Grove, held the negative. The affirmative won by the decision vote of 252 to 197.

Miss Prescott was elected girls' dramatic sports leader for the year and Ronald Mallison, Oriental, was chosen boys' intra-sports leader for the boys.

Miss Eva Louise Shelton, of Stanburg, was in charge of the program.

Y. M. AND Y. W. GIVE HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Y. W. gave the Y. M. a very enjoyable party on October 31, the evening of Halloween. The party began with a show walk led by Miss Mary Brewer and Mr. Clinton Murray. Much fun was had as the parade went down the ghostly streets. At the close of the walk, all gathered in the auditorium which was beautifully decorated with autumn branches, Jack-o-lanterns and papers suggestive of Halloween. Throughout the evening stunts and contests were enjoyed by all. Much interest was shown in the fortune teller's booth. Another feature of the evening was the dress parade in which Bertie Koo Bass was judged to have the most attractive costume and received a novel prize. Apples and candy were served as refreshment.

DANCING COMMITTEE INTERVIEW TRUSTEES

At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of Atlantic Christian College held at the College, home-coming day November 2, the Alumni voted in a body as being in favor of mixed dancing under proper chaperons at A. C. College. There were but a few individuals who voted for the negative side of the question. To be specific, only two out of fifty-two opposed dancing.

The Students followed up this ray of sunshine, and a committee from the student body, consisting of Jacob Taylor, President of the Student Association, Oscar Brinson, Vice-President, Donahue Bryant, Kathleen Egles, and Randolph Allen made a special trip to Greenville and brought the matter before the Board of Trustees. Many of those members stated that they were in favor of dancing and some spoke before the board in favor of allowing dancing at the College.

The delegation left the meeting in high spirits, only to have the bubble of hope shattered, when they were later informed that the Trustees had not voted in favor of dancing.

GIRLS ATHLETIC CLUB SPONSORS CONTESTS

The Girls Athletic Club sponsors the annual inter-society contests in the various sports: Volley-ball, archery, soccer, basketball, tumbling, track, tennis, hiking, and baseball. To become a member of this organization, a girl must make at least one hundred points. To this, she must either make one team or two teams. A girl is eligible for a team only after having attended 60% of the practices for that particular sport. Many of the Freshmen girls are already eligible for membership.

Although the entire club has not yet had a meeting, the Cabinet has been efficiently completing the tasks assigned them. The Cabinet is composed of the following officers and sport leaders:

President—Kathleen Egles
Vice-President—Julia Winfield
Secretary—Mary Brewer
Treasurer—Virginia Wallley
Social Chairman—Katherine Bell
Public Chairman—Vivian Prescott
Sport Leaders: Volley ball, Helen Outter; Archery, Georgia Howell; Soccer, Kathleen Harcourt; Basketball, Mrs. Mallison; Tumbling, Clyde Deane; Track, Edna Cross; Basketball, Leah Driver; Tennis, Sarah Loftis; Hiking, Olga Wray.

It is the duty of this Cabinet to function together in organizing and carrying on the work of the club.

Miss Egles, the Volleyball sport leader, reports that the Hesperian Literary Society won the debating contest of the inter-ball series.

Miss George Brewer, announced the victory of the Altheimia in the Archery Tournament held on November 2nd. In a Homecoming Day, Miss Robertson reports that the two societies are fighting hard for the soccer championship. Two out of the three games have been played. The first game was a tie, and the second game was a victory for the girls. The third game is yet to be played before the final decision as to the championship of either society.

The Girls Athletic Club aims to foster clean sports and good sportsmanship among the players. It also aims at the building up of a beautiful body as well as of the training in quick judgment, keen insight, character, and leadership. The club offers advantages other than mental and physical and moral. It offers social training too. For this Club has an annual party or banquet at the close of the year, with smaller parties and games scattered around throughout the year.

STUDENTS TAKE PART IN STATE DISCIPLES MEET

The sixteenth annual session of the Disciples State Convention, which met in Greenville, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, November 7, 8, and 9, was especially interesting to students of the College and Disciple young people throughout the state in two respects; the Atlantic Christian College banquet held at six o'clock on the second day of the convention, and the Young Peoples' banquet held at six o'clock on the closing day.

Several students from the College took part in the exercises at the Youth Banquet, at which over 300 youths in North Carolina was present, and Georgia Brewer, from the New Bern Christian Church, presided in her capacity as president of the Young Peoples' Conference. The banquet is held each fall in connection with the annual convention as a preparatory meeting leading up to annual conferences week in June of each year at Bon Clarken, near Asheville, where Disciple youth gather together once a year.

Present and former students of colleges who took part in the exercises, besides Georgia Brewer, Eugene Taylor, and Jim Matfox.

Other Disciple youth throughout the state, and prospective students of the College in later years, included the following: Catherine Sney, Winston-Salem; Jimmie Carr, Greenville; and Louise Byrly, Greenville.

Short talks on what conferences have contributed to the local church were given by the following ministers: John Baralay, Wilson; John Goff, New Bern; James Lawson, Flatfish; Richard Babley, Washington; and Mr. Perry, Robinsonville.

Dr. H. O. Fritchard, educational secretary for the Disciples, and Miss George, state leader, made several talks.

of the Atlantic Christian College banquet, and in the previous evening. Miss Brewer presided at the dinner. Other guests included Miss Eva Louise Howell and Miss Fannie Howell, members of the faculty, who were in the Disciple groups and who were in attendance on the banquet. Miss Howell, who had been a student at the student supper of the previous year, and Dallas Mallison, state secretary, who described the Disciple projects for the previous year.

Dr. H. O. Fritchard, Roll call of the Disciple youth, graduated was a feature of the banquet.

CAROLINA THEATRE CAST

Music, youth and laughter. Those three ingredients, skillfully mixed, are the basis of "Student Tour," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new musical comedy which opens Wednesday and Thursday at the Carolina Theatre.

For comedy, Jimmy Durante and Charles Butterworth, each a comedy star in his own right, hold the center of the stage. They form a contrast that, in itself, is screamingly funny.

For youth, M-G-M secured the religious and adventures of the West seeking the most beautiful girls in America take part in the picture. Many of them never before have been before a camera.

For music, Nacio Herb Brown and Arthur Freed, who wrote "Singing in the Rain" and scores of other outstanding hits, have contributed seven new numbers, notably the "Carole," new dance rhythm now beginning to sweep the country. Other hit songs are "From Now On," "A New Moon Is Over My Shoulder," "Till March," "The College Hymn," "Sacco Dance" and "Fight On."

Determined to make "Student Tour" a true saga of modern hollywood college youth, M-G-M also recruited college men from half a dozen universities, notably the University of California at Los Angeles. They are hawkey athletes who make their bow to the world in this picture.

"Student Tour" deals with the hilarious adventures of a group of college boys and girls on a trip around the world. They visit China, India, Monte Carlo and many other points of interest, and at each stop they run into screamingly funny complications.

Romantic leads of the picture are played by Maxine Doyle and Phil Regan, two singing newcomers to the screen, expected to become one of the film's outstanding sweetheart teams. Miss Doyle, a California girl, was "discovered" on the stage of a Washington, D. C., theatre where she was mistress of ceremonies. Regan was a young devotee on the New York college force when his fine tenor voice attracted attention.
