Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities Selects Four A. C. Students

Mottern, Windham, Matthews, Jarman, Receive High Honors

COMMITTEE USES FOUR-FOLD BASIS

Mary Matthews, Elmer Mottern, Robert Windham, and Robert Jarman are the four students from the Atlantic Christian College who will be listed in the 1939-1940 issue of the "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," which is expected to be released in January.

Through the cooperation of over five hundred American universities and colleges, this book is published yearly to give outstanding national recognition. These students from accredited universities and colleges are selected, by an unprejudiced committee, to have their biographies appear in "Who's Who." Annually hundreds of companies and others get hold of this book from which they recruit students for employment.

The purpose of the "Who's Who" is to serve as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college careers; as a means of compensation to them for what they have already done; and as a recommendation to the business world.

To be included in "Who's Who," a student must have a combination of qualities to indicate that he is outstanding and an asset to his school. Character; leadership in extra-curricular activities, such as athletics, society, religious and student government; scholarship; and potentialities of future usefulness to business and industry.

During her four years in college, Mary Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Matthews of Engelhard, has been active in all phases of school life. As a freshman she became a member of the Y. M. C. A. and was elected representative to the council. The next year she was again elected representative to the council and was made society editor of the "Collegiate." This same year Mary was initiated into the Golden Knot Honor Society and the Sigma Tau Chi Sorority. In her junior year she was made secretary of Cooperative Association and treasurer of her sorority. The Dramatic Club initiated her into their organization. In this, her senior year, she is again secretary of the Cooperative Association and in the Dramatic Club. Her sorority made her president.

The president of the Cooperative Association, Elmer Mottern is the versatile son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mottern of Asheville. He has excelled in all activities. Interested in Journalism, he has worked on the "Collegiate" and the "Pine Knot" staffs for four years. Last year as a junior he was made editor-in-chief of the "Collegiate." In his sophomore year Elmer was initiated into the Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity; and as a junior, into the Golden Knot Honor Society. Last year he served as a junior representative to the council, and was made captain of the boxing team. He has taken an active part in debating. This year Elmer Mottern holds the highest and most important position on the campus as the president of the Cooperative Association.

Robert Windham, quite a personality on this campus, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Windham of Farmville. For four years he has taken a great interest in scholastic, as well as extra-curricular, activities. As a freshman he was made a member of the Hesperian Literary Society; as a sophomore, a member of the Sigma Alpha Fraternity. In his second year, becoming interested in athletics, Bob made the boxing and tennis teams. He was on the Y. M. C. A. council in his junior year. This same year the Quarter's Club made him a member of the organization. He became business manager of the "Collegiate," treasurer of his fraternity, and supervisor of the dining hall. Bob is chairman of the Supervisor's Board this year and

Powell Heads New Com'erci'l Busettes In First Year

Lancaster, Shepard, Watson, Cowan and Jones Round Out Officers

AGNES PEELE IS ELECTED AS NEW ADVISOR

One organization on our campus made up of approximately 70 members is at last on the road to prosperity. This organization is known as the "Busettes."

Heretofore commercial students have been looked down upon, even shunned, by A. B. students. But this year the commercials or "Busettes" as they now call themselves are coming out of the mud.

A constitutional committee composed of Virginia Lancaster, Frances Russell, Wilber Powell, Kathryn Jones and James Creasy drew up a constitution which was unanimously accepted by the "new Babe" of the campus. Each member of the organization was presented with a mimeographed copy of the constitution.

In an effort to stimulate interest of commercial students, two cups are to be given on commencement day by the "Busettes," one to the boy and one to the girl who has shown advancement, leadership, scholastic attainment and character. It is hoped that this will only be a beginning for future commercial organizations to follow as a means of stimulating and advancing recognition of commercial students.

Plans are being made to make a poll of commercial students who have finished in the past 3

Mr. Masih, Indian Christian, Gives Several Talks

Speaks To Social Science Classes On Problems Of The Indians

The student body of Atlantic Christian College was very much honored to have in its midst a native Indian, Mr. Masih, a Christian missionary from India.

Mr. Masih gave an interesting speech to the students in chapel. His speech pertained to "God is Love." He was presented to the entire student body by President Hilley, who later suggested that Mr. Masih be taken to some of the classes in order that the students might ask him further questions about his work.

Reverend Masih said that India is divided into castes, and that one must not exceed the limits of his own caste. Reverend Masih's belief is that this is wrong, for God made everyone equal, and this he expected them to remain. The missionary also stressed the remarkable progress which has been attained in India in the last 150 years. At one time, women were considered lower than men, or property of men by the Mohammedans. Today women attend schools and even hold high positions in their government.

Due to the teaching of Christian religion, India and the Indians have changed in their conduct, which is based on the Christian religion.

Knox College, the original "Old Siwash," has been selected as the location for a series of "Old Siwash" motion pictures.

Phi Beta Kappa has started a drive to raise a scholarship fund of $300,000 for "the defense of freedom of speech and the humanities."

years and see what good their course did them as to helping prepare them for a livelihood. This should be very interesting to the faculty, administration, students as well as the "Busettes."

Several interesting programs have been given. In the early part of October the "Busettes" invaded the tobacco warehouses of Wilson seeking to see the golden weed auctioned. Dr. Morgan addressed the "Busettes" the latter part of October at which time he spoke briefly on "Business Principles."

Officers for this year's organization are: Wilber Powell, president; Virginia Lancaster, Vice-president; Ethel Shepard, Secretary; Kirby Watson, Treasurer; Jim Allen Cowan, Sergeant at Arms; Kathryn Jones, Reporter; Miss Agnes Peel, Faculty Advisor; and James Creasy, Student Advisor.

Of course, this new organization has a lot to learn yet and hopes to be able to live without being stomped into a premature death. This is the youngest organization on the campus and it is very difficult to start out in high gear at first; so if the older clubs will lend to getting the new Babe walking, future students will look back and praise the broadness of the present

Howard Chapel Formal Dedication Climax Of Events

Dr. H. M. Poteat Renders An Excellent Organ Concert

GLEE CLUB SINGS

A large crowd was present at Atlantic Christian College for the formal dedication of the New Howard Chapel in spite of the rainy weather.

Many of the alumni arrived on Friday to be present for the formal opening of the chapel that was held in conjunction with Homecoming this year.

On Friday the whole student body marched over from the old chapel meeting place to the new chapel. The students were led by president of the College, Dr. Howard S. Hilley, faculty members and the Glee Club. The Glee Club led the student body in the singing of "Lead On O King Eternal" which marked the first services in the new chapel. At this time Mr. C. A. Jarman led in the devotion, Professor Perry Case gave an address.

On Saturday November the 4th, after an alumni meeting in the chapel at 10 o'clock led by C. A. Mashburn, of Farmville, president of the Alumni Association, the formal dedication was begun at eleven o'clock.

To begin the program a selection "Babylon's Wave" was rendered by the Glee Club of Atlantic Christian College under the direction of Mr. Fontaine and accompanied by Miss Madeline Denning at the piano.

Following the selection by the Glee Club Dr. H. S. Hilley, president of Atlantic Christian College introduced Mr. C. C. Ware who gave a summary of the life of Mr. Howard for whom the Chapel was named. Mr. Howard was very outstanding as a minister and served for many years as a distinguished preacher of the Christian Church.

Dr. Hilley introduced the speaker of the day, Dr. Stephen J. Corey, president of the College of Bible, Lexington, Kentucky. Dr. Corey said that when you come to a cross road and find the right road be sure and mark the trail so that others may follow the right path. Dr. Corey's speech was enjoyed by a large group of alumni, friends, and students of the college.

In the evening at eight o'clock Dr. H. M. Poteat of the department of Latin, Wake Forest College, gave an organ recital. Mr. Ed-

SMILE, SHOOT, SUBMIT

It seems as though there are enough candid camera stunts on the campus to make our Year book snap shot action representative not of one person or one person's work, but representative of the student body as a whole. Snap shots will be taken along its path to glory. Snap Shots may be submitted to John Yavorski, Lib Stoney, or James Creasy.

YMCA Sponsors Hallowe'en Ghost Walk Party

Refreshments Served To Crowd In The Local Gymnasium

On Friday night, October 27, Y. M. C. A. entertained the Y. W. C. A. at a Halloween Party. Miss Snyder, Dr. Jenkins, and Dr. Wagner chaperoned the group on a Ghost Walk. Led by George Loftin, the party left the gym at 8:15, walked around town and out to the municipal Park. After reaching the park, everyone joined in singing favorite songs led by Irma Lee Spencer. Cherry Lancaster imitated the sound of a trombone and Hugh Cullom sang two solos.

When the group returned to the gym, there were refreshments and fun for all. There were apples hung on strings, or, if you preferred, you could bob for them. (One boy enjoyed bobbing for apples so much that he forgot and let his whole head go under.) Lemonade was served from a big tub and peppermint sticks were given to all.

Grouped around the piano, everyone sang and talked until the bell rang for all fun to come to an end. Each went his way with a feeling of joy and, maybe, exhaustion as the results of such a night as we are privileged to see

Several Faculty Members And Students Are In Attendance

RICHMOND IS HOST

The eighty-ninth International Convention of Disciples of Christ met with President Roger T. Noos presiding, in the old capital of the Confederacy, Richmond, Va., Oct. 19 to 25th. The theme for this year's convention was—Faith, Freedom, Fellowship. The registration was the largest since the Washington Convention in 1930.

A major portion of the Friday morning session, part of the Friday afternoon, all of the Sunday evening, part of Tuesday evening were devoted to the emphasis on Missions. James H. McCallum, on furlough from China, discussed "China's Agony," on Sunday evening, Oct. 22. He pointed out in his address that the missionaries are working in territory where there is no one else to whom the Chinese may go for help.

Mr. S. Maqiril Masih, Indian national now studying at Vanderbilt University spoke on "What Christ Means to India and to Me." It will be remembered Mr. Masih visited our campus for one day at which time he addressed the assembled student body in chapel, several classes and the joint session of the Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A.

Several hundred attended the three missionary breakfast, held at the Jefferson Hotel under the direction of Royal J. Dye, former missionary to the Congo. Dr. Dye also visited our campus where he entertained the student body at a Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. joint meeting with his Congo experiences and showed pictures. A dinner for ministers, presidents of missionary societies, and church school superintendents of churches that have supported living link missionaries was held on Tuesday evening, October 24, at the Jefferson Hotel with 200 attending. Past Month's Chapel Programs

Glee Club, Dr. Masih, Dedication Exodus Feature

It has been a practice throughout the years for the members of the student body of Atlantic Christian College to attend chapel. At these meetings there is usually a performance of some kind given for the interest of everyone. On account of having no chapel or auditorium to hold these meetings, the Gymnasium has served as a suitable place for these meetings which occurred twice a week—on Tuesdays and Friday at 10:00 A. M. On the days which there are no special programs, President Hilley gives important announcements to the student body. Some of the highlights have been:

October 17: Mrs. Will Lucas spoke to the students and encouraged them to buy tickets to the Collins Festival, a worthwhile investment.

October 20: Professor Fontaine of the Music Department, presented a musical program consisting of the following:

Mary Catherine Houston sang the ever-beautiful Ave Maria by Schubert, which is a prayer to the Virgin Mary.
To A Wild Rose was rendered by the Choir.
Agnes Best presented a piano solo by Chopin: Waltz in C Sharp Minor.

The program was concluded by a duet from Mary Catherine Houston and Burlon Lamm: Cadman's At Dawning.

October 24: Mr. Hilley was in charge of the chapel program.

October 27: President Hilley introduced Reverend Masih, a native Indian
