Ward, Edwards Head New Dorm. Councils Next Year

Taylor, Harper; Vice-Pres. & Sec'y.-Treas.

Fresh from the election returns comes the news that Lester Edwards was elected president of the boys' dormitory council, succeeding Kellom James. Mary Elizabeth Ward was elected as president of the women's dormitory council over Susan Alice Waller, and succeeded Mildred Blizzard.

Kendrick Taylor was elected vice-president, succeeding Jim Walters; Thurman Harper succeeded Gordon Aldridge as secretary-treasurer.

Candidates for the presidency were Jim Walters, Elbert James, and Lester Edwards. In the primary Jim Walters was eliminated and the final race between Elbert James and Lester Edwards resulted in the latter being the victor. Lester is a Junior and comes from Middlesboro, being active in several extra-curricular activities.

The vice-presidency was a closely contested race between Gordon Aldridge and Kendrick Taylor. Kendrick came out with sufficient lead to clinch the office.

Another warm political campaign was waged between Johnny Hicks and Thurman Harper for secretary-treasurer of the council. In this race the honor went to Harper. Both boys are newcomers to the campus and have been actively engaged on the campus.

It is very regrettable that we are unable to give you the officers of the girls' dormitory council for next year, but due to conditions beyond our control the elections have not been completed, but will be run off some time in the near future.

At Chapel

April 5th. Mr. Barclay spoke to the student body and faculty. His topic was "The Difference in Being a Likeable and an Admirable Person." Mr. Barclay continued his speech by listing the qualities that go to make up a "likeable" person and those which make up an "admirable" person. He concluded that it is much better to be admired rather than liked, for a person who is liked only for his likeable qualities will be eventually disliked; however, a person admired for his admirable characteristics will be sooner or later liked.

April 9th. The chapel program was in charge of students, who gave two reports: Miss Mary Nackos gave an interesting talk on the trip to Chapel Hill which was taken by the Dramatic Club. "Everyman" was presented at the Dramatic Festival. Mary is the costume mistress of the club. Following Miss Nackos, Mr. Robert Windham told the group about his trip to the N. C. Student Federation conference which was held under the auspices of the University of North Carolina. Different forms of campus governments were discussed and studied at the conference. Mr. Windham, president of the student body of Atlantic Christian College, was the representative sent by our school.

April 12th. Professor Jarman introduced the speaker of the morning, Dr. Sadie Jenkins, who spoke on the English language. She said: "English is the best that men have thought and written." Dr. Jenkins warned us on the kind of English to avoid in our speech—for instance, such words as character, condition, nature, etc. "He was conveyed to his home in an intoxicated condition," quoted Dr. Jenkins, could better be said, "He was brought home drunk". The English refer to our language as the great American "slanguage". Such expressions as "aw nerfs", "bunk", "gold digger", etc. Dr. Jenkins concluded by saying, "Yet, words do well when he who speaks them speaks them".

Name Heads Of Publications

Nackos, Silverthorne Are New Editors

With all the political campaigning in the state A. C. C. sent forth a host of potential candidates and elected Ray Silverthorne editor of The Pine Knot, succeeding John G. Edwards, and Mary Nackos editor of The Collegiate, succeeding Burney McCotter. Business Managers of both publications will be run off Friday.

Ray Silverthorne, of Washington, N. C., defeated Paul Etheridge of Kenly, in a close but heated race. This election was very close and the voting registration was one of the largest in recent years. Ray has been active in student affairs this year—President of the YMCA, Business Manager of the Pine Knot, member of Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, and an active member of several other organizations.

Mary Nackos of Wilson, proved to be a popular candidate by upsetting James Creasy of Wilmington, for the editorship of The Collegiate.

Both have been steady workers on student publications. Mary is a sophomore, member of Phi Sigma Tau Sorority, Literary Editor of The Pine Knot, Associate Editor of The Collegiate, member of the Publicity Committee, Dramatic Club, and is also very active in numerous other activities.

For Business Manager of the Pine Knot a run off will be held Friday between E. H. Jarman and Frank Wiley. Winton Odham was eliminated in the primary election.

The Business Manager of The Collegiate will be decided on by students balloting between Charles Eagles and Jim Walters. Charles is the better known of the two and is a little ahead of his opponent as far as the popular survey can tell.

Members of the staffs will be selected in a week or two and the new editor will have charge of the May issue of The Collegiate.

Courtiers For May Day Named

Plans Being Completed For Spring Fete

This year's May Day program is centered around modern court with many countries sending representatives to participate in this gala affair. It is an event that is looked forward to by the many people who attend the annual celebration as well as the students of Atlantic Christian College who take part in the program.

It is almost always held on the first Saturday in May if weather conditions permit. This year it is to be held on the fourth of May. All of the following countries are represented in the May Day dances: Spain, Early America, Scotland, Holland, England, and also Sweden.

All of these countries send different groups of people that represent different dances from their particular country.

The queen that was chosen by the student body as a whole this year is Mary Matthews from Englehard. She has chosen as her personal attendants, Sara Jane Rouse and Ann Saunders from Kingston and Spray, respectively. The King, Eugene Ange of Jamesville, has chosen as his attendants James Suber of Selma, and Robert Windham of Farmville.

This year the courtiers were chosen by a petition and then by popular vote of the student body. Those who wanted to elect certain Juniors who were eligible for the courtiers had to secure blanks from Susan Alice Waller, chairman of May Day Program this year, and get the petition signed by twenty students. After the courtiers were petitioned, they were then up before the student body to be voted on by its members. The following were elected: Dalen Wainwright, Wilson; Minnie Dees, Fremont; Sarah Fulghum, Wilson; Marguerite Lane, Wilson; Helene Vail, Pikeville; Janie Fitzgerald, Pine Level; Lillian Guthrie, Morehead City; Irma Lee Spencer, Kinston; John K. Wooten, Kinston; William Shingleton, Wilson; Hubert Laing, Cairo, Ga.; L. A. High, Wilson; Jim Brown Holiday, Jamesville; Glen Holmes, Rocky Mount; Jim Ed Miles, Wilson; Elbert Moye, Farmville.

The well-chosen courtiers are wearing old-fashioned dresses in bright pastel colors of green, pink, rose, and blue. The queen is to be dressed in white and her personal attendants will wear aqua and yellow. The others taking part will wear costumes characteristic of countries which they are representing.

The participants other than the courtiers, king and queen, and their attendants, who were chosen by the student body, are members of the physical education class. Practice for the dances started April the first, a little over a month before it will be presented on the front campus of the college.

Juniors - Seniors Hold Annual Fete

Drash To Be Speaker At Honor Banquet

On Friday night the Junior Class will sponsor the annual Junior-Senior banquet. This year the program will begin at eight o'clock at the Carolina room of the First Christian Church of Wilson. The guest speaker of the evening will be Rev. J. Waine Drash, of Kinston.

Miss Irma Lee Spencer of Kinston is president of this year's Junior class, host to the seniors, and promised the banquet will be one of the most colorful affairs of the current social season. Last year's banquet was well received and many of those students who attended are anticipating an equal time and delightful evening.

In an endeavor to raise funds to help defray expenses the Junior class put on the Annual Stunt Night and the Annual Student-Faculty ball game. James Creasy was chairman of the committee in charge of the stunt night and was assisted by Susan Alice Waller, Agnes Best, and Winton Odham; Paul Etheridge was on hand to help put the stunts over with his electric recording and public address system. Hazel McKee was chairman of the student-faculty ball game, being assisted by Martha Henderson and George Loftin. Committees were formed to work up the banquet and the members have been working very hard in order that the banquet this year will be one of the largest and best in the history of the college. Susan Alice Waller was chairman of the food committee; Sarah Fulghum, decoration committee; E. H. Jarman, printing committee.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Male vs. Female item: West Virginia University telephone operators report that the men are the most courteous over the phone, that women make the most intelligent phone conversationalists.

THIS WAS IN 1799

Times-have-changed note: Back in the 1799 rules of Hampden-Sydney College, we find "the students of the college prohibited from attending, or by any means being seen at any fives battery or other place where sporting or games are carried on."

Wonder if Chicago's President Hutchins has the same idea?

Junior Class Sponsors Annual Stunt Night

The Junior Class sponsored the annual Stunt Night on Friday night, March 15, in the college gym. All clubs and organizations on the campus were invited to participate in the contest. Eleven organizations competed.

James Creasy was Master of Ceremonies for the night, and P. H. Etheridge was in charge of the sound controls. He donated to the Junior Class the use of his sound recording system.

First prize of two dollars was awarded to the Phi Delta Gamma Fraternity for a very fine radio broadcast over the RUOK hookup. Chester Johnson acted as Master of Ceremonies. He introduced to the radio audience Walter Winchell McCotter, the "up-to-date" news commentator. The Children's Birthday Party was the main feature, conducted by John "Old Man Happy" Edwards. Several of the children who were celebrating birthdays revealed their talent on this program. "Agnes" Holloman sang the ever-popular song "Oh Johnny". Others who gave recitations and sang songs were "Little Toots" Taylor, "Georgie" Woodall, and our little "Pansy" Caraway. After the birthday party, the famous sport reporter Klint Fauvis "Buddy" Edgerton, summarized the recent activities of the sports world.

Second prize of one dollar went to the Ministerial Club, who sponsored a special game of pool

Morgan, Jenkins Elected; Aldridge Named Treasurer

Glee Club Visits Arapahoe, New Bern Churches

Quartet Attend Meeting In Grantsboro

The Quartet of Atlantic Christian College, composed of Burlon Lamm, Wilson; Burney McCotter, Grantsboro; Elbert James, Wallace; Hugh Cullom, Wilson, have recently returned from Grantsboro where they attended a union district meeting.

The Glee Club started on its Spring concert Sunday, April the seventh, with a trip on the college bus to Arapahoe, where it gave the following program: "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "The Bridegroom Comes", "O Come Let Us Sing Unto the Lord", "Lead Kindly Light" and "Babylon's Wave". After the program the Glee Club was given a picnic lunch by the members of the Christian Church. After eating all of the fried chicken, cake, pie, sandwiches, pickles and everything else that goes with a picnic lunch, they were free for the afternoon to visit places of interest in Arapahoe.

About four o'clock the members of the Glee Club left for New Bern. After having arrived at the Broad Street Christian Church, the members were given a banquet dinner by the members of the New Bern Christian Church. Following the dinner a program was presented in Broad Street Christian Church, of the same selections that were given in Arapahoe. Miss Madeline Denning accompanied the Glee Club at the piano.

They left about nine-thirty for Wilson, after having enjoyed every minute of the first trip of the Spring season.

Louisiana State University authorities recently had to publish the names of 35 students who had neglected to collect wages due them for N. Y. A. work.

Junior Class Sponsors Annual Stunt Night

Third prize of fifty cents was given to the Woman's Dormitory Council. They conducted a mock council meeting. Ridiculous c. d.'s were taken from the call-down box and discussed. Several faculty members were called up before the council for their disgraceful conduct.

Other contestants were: Freshman class—a dummy opera; Y. M. C. A.—a backward quartet; Sophomore class—"Thru the Years"; Delta Sigma Sorority—"The Lamp Went Out"; Education Club—an old-fashioned school; Y. W. C. A.—a backward wedding; Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity—"Beasis, the Negro Washwoman", portrayed by Raymond G. Silverthorne, Esq.; Senior class—Jam Session.

As a surprise contest number, Coach Herring presented to the audience the "One-Man Cheering Section" of Atlantic Christian College—"Red" Roebuck. He gave an exhibition of his unusual talent. A special prize of one cent was awarded for this feature.

Judges were: Dr. Elizabeth Wagner, Prof. Perry Case, and "Duck" Futrell.

Those who acted on the committee for Stunt Night were: James Creasy, chairman, Agnes Best, Winton Odham, and Susan Alice Waller.

Lillian Guthrie To Be Chairman of May Day

The elections for officers heading the student government were held last week under the supervision of the executive board and the returns were announced by a committee of that board. All of the contests were close and required a second election.

John K. Wooten, a junior from Kinston, N. C., was elected president of the Student Cooperative Association over three opponents. Bet Ward, Irma Lee Spencer and Neal Wyndham. It took two elections to decide the winner, Neal Wyndham and John K. Wooten being left in the final race. The winner, John K. Wooten, was found to have a slim margin over his opponent. Mr. Wooten, a member of Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity, has been very active in many of the organizations of the campus.

The defeated candidates for the presidency of the Cooperative Association were automatically placed on the ballot for the vice-presidency. In the first election, Irma Lee Spencer and Neal Wyndham came out on top. But in the final election, Mr. Wyndham won out. Mr. Wyndham, a ministerial student has been prominent in the various religious organizations in his three years at Atlantic Christian College.

On the ballot for treasurer of the Executive Board, Gordon Aldridge defeated Julian Roebuck and George Loftin. Mr. Aldridge is a member of Sigma Alpha Fraternity.

For secretary of the Executive Board a second election will have to be run to determine the winner. In the primary Wilma Williams and Hazel McKee won over Isabella Williams. The run off will be held Friday, April 19th.

On the ballot also were members of the faculty whom the students had nominated to serve as advisors on the Executive Board. There were names: Dr. Jenkins and Dr. Morgan were re-elected over Hank Hodges and Dr. Marvin Lowe.

Lillian Guthrie defeated Minnie Dees for Chairman of May Day. Miss Guthrie is a Junior from Morehead City, a member of Sigma Tau Chi Sorority.

Susan Waller defeated Jeanette Mattox for Chairman of Concert. Miss Waller is a member of Phi Sigma and a Junior from Kinston.

Minstrel Show

The YMCA sponsored a minstrel show on Friday night, April 12, in the auditorium of the Margaret Hearne Graded School.

The program was in several acts. The first was an "Old Time 'Ligion" church scene. Raymond Thompson was Parson Brown.

In the acts that followed, Ray Silverthorne acted as interactor. His end men were: Raymond Thompson, St. Clair Caddell, Lester Edwards, Neal Wyndham, Winton Odham, Wade Everett, Hugh Kelly, Hugh Cullom, Chas. Eagles, John K. Wooten, James Webster, and Lindley Pate.

Special numbers were: "Old Black Joe", sung by Hugh Cullom; "Shade of the Old Apple Tree", sung by Lindley Pate, and a jutterbug exhibition by Alma Britz and Charles Eagles. Music was rendered by Virginia McDaniell.

In spite of the heavy rainfall, there was a small audience, and the black-faced boys did a fine bit of acting for their guests. It is hoped that the YMCA will repeat this show for the benefit of those who could not attend the
