WILL REMAIN FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

Former Roommate of Dean; Given Post of Director of Personnel

Dr. Raymond E. Morgan, a member of the Atlantic Christian College faculty since the fall of 1937 announced last week that he had accepted a position at the college of the Ozarks, Clarksville, Arkansas.

While here Dr. Morgan has introduced many new courses into the curriculum. The outstanding additions are: Problems of the South, Marriage and Home, Economics of Business, Economics of Agriculture, and the Honor's Course.

Dr. Morgan's position will be Director of Personnel and Professor of Philosophy.

The College of the Ozarks is also a coeducational institution similar to the size of the local college and confers two degrees, Bachelor of Arts, and Bachelor of Science. Also, it is a church school and is supported by the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

When interviewed, Dr. Morgan told Collegiate reporters interesting facts about his new college. The college has a very wide variety of athletics, but due to the limited enrollment all athletics are intramural.

The college publications are published in the printshop on the campus which is operated through the journalism class. In the basement of the spacious chapel is housed the college theatre which shows first class pictures at reasonable prices. As yet, there has been no successor to Dr. Morgan released to the public.

Dr. Morgan has been active in campus life and for several years has been a member of the executive board, Chairman of the Chapel Committee, faculty adviser of Phi Delta Gamma, and sponsor of the International Relations Club.

Two Alumni Already In Air Corps

A. C. College in helping with America's defense was host to the recruiting service for the Army Air Corps May 10th. Six men were found to be physically fit and are apt to receive an appointment to the Air Corps, entitling them to 30 weeks schooling at government expense, $25,000 for such a short period of time.

Elmer Mottern, Winton Odham, Jim Walters, B. C. Scott, James Banks — all of Atlantic Christian College — were found to be physically fit. Also, William Tyson from E. C. T. C. was accepted.

On Friday night officers of the Air Corps presented several pictures in the Howard Chapel portraying life of the flying cadets. Several other A. C. students, Monroe Harper, Joe Frank Draper, Lester Edwards, and Foy Goforth, were examined but eye deficiencies let them out.

On graduating from the 30 weeks training a man is commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army Air Corps Reserve, and put on active duty for three years, salary $205 per month.

Two former students are already seeing service with Uncle Sam; Leland Farnel was recently commissioned second lieutenant on graduation from Kelly Field and Wilbur Outlaw is now in training in Oklahoma.

Professor Smith Working on Degree

Professor Robert E. Smith of the mathematics department will soon finish his thesis which will make it possible for him to receive his Ph.D. degree in mathematics.

His thesis has as its subject: The Mappings of Non-Compact Spaces on Non-Compact Spaces. Prof. Smith says: "A and B are general spaces and P is a continuous transformation of A and B. We then consider the space of mappings P(A) c B and define a topology for it. It is the purpose of this paper to determine the properties of this space, i. e., those properties which yield topological invariants. The method of attack is through the use of homotopy or deformations. When the spaces A and B are specialized the results

Last year The Collegiate, under the editorship of Burney McCotter, rated the third class division.

The Collegiate, under the editorship of Elmer Mottern in 1938 and 1939, also rated second class, which was the first time the paper was ever placed for National honors.

Each year the Associated Press offers a rating and comprehensive critical service to all of its member papers who wish to have their papers judged. Honor ratings are divided into the divisions All-American, First Honor Rating, Second Honor Rating, Third Honor Rating, Honorable Mention, and No Honors.
