

Vocational Registration

The following facts on the vocational registration program are brought to your attention:

The Occupational Registration will be conducted by Selective Service System U. S. Employment Service, beginning April first.

What It Is

Every man between 20 and 44 years of age who registered for Selective Service on February 16 will receive an "Occupational Questionnaire" from his local Selective Service Board. The questionnaires will be mailed to registrants about April 1, and must be filled out and returned to the Selective Service Boards within ten days after they are received.

This occupational registration is being conducted jointly by the United States Employment Service and the Selective Service System, to provide information for the former.

What It Asks

Each questionnaire is in two identical parts—one for the Selective Service System and one for the United States Employment Service. The questionnaires ask for information about the registrant's present job, his education, and also asks him to indicate the kind of work for which he considers himself best fitted, whether or not he is presently employed at such work. In addition, the questionnaire contains a list of 288 different occupations which are important to the war industries. Registrants are to check any of these in which they have had training or experience and indicate those for which they are best fitted.

Applicants who need help in filling out their questionnaire are told to ask for such assistance from their employer, their labor union, from any office of the Selective Service Local Advisory Board for registrants. No fee is to be charged for this service.

11. We have made it a point to go to breakfast and be on time, so as not to have to make our entrance through the kitchen to our respective places.

12. The back door of the Library has been excluded from our list of exits and entrances.

13. When in Library we shall not whisper or chew gum. (We shall remain perfectly quiet.)

14. We shall no longer consider 9:45 to 10:15 as "social hour," but will remain in our rooms, except long enough to go to the "Y" store and come back with our merchandise.

15. If any one is down stairs at 10:15 they will immediately retreat to their rooms—by tiptoeing.

16. If we are responsible for the lights going out we shall immediately go fix them and there shall be no yelling of "Lights Out." If not responsible we shall "wait our destiny" in the dark—silent.

17. Anyone not obeying these rules shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the E. E. T. C. A. council.

served on the Girl's Dormitory Council this year as its treasurer.

Mr. Jones, a member of Sigma Alpha fraternity, was elected over Billie Adams as treasurer of the Association. He represents the Sophomore Class on the Defense Council.

Jimmy Millhouse was elected by the town students to represent that body on the Board. Mr. Millhouse is a native of Wilson. He is a member of the Freshman Class.

Boy's and Girl's Council Elections

Elections of the presidents of the Boy's Dormitory Council and the Girl's Dormitory Council have been completed. Heading the Boy's Council for the school year of 1942-43 will be Otis Carter of Rose Hill. Frances Hemby of Maury will head the Girl's Council.

Mr. Carter has served the college in various ways. He represented the Sophomore boys on the Boy's Dormitory Council his Sophomore year. This year he is representing his class again as Junior representative. Mr. Carter defeated Bill Harper of Deep Run.

Miss Hemby has taken a very active part in the campus activities during her three years at A. C. She was tapped into the Golden Knot Honor Society in the spring of '41. In the fall of '41, she was elected vice-president of the Junior Class, and chosen by the "A" Club as a cheer leader.

This year Miss Hemby has served as Junior representative on the Girl's Dormitory Council. She has worked on the staff of the Collegiate.

To become President of the Girl's Council, Miss Hemby defeated Virginia Lancaster of New Bern.

mer, the Dance of Autumn, the Dance of Winter, the Maypole Dance, and the Court Waltz.

Special features of this gala occasion will be the dances of Mrs. Belle Hinnant's dancing classes, who will perform the Rainbow Waltz, and music by the String Ensemble—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stallings, Professor Robert E. Smith, Miss Mary Herring, Miss Madeline Smalley and Mr. Billy Wall.

Working with Miss Denning are: Helen Mills, chairman of costumes; Agnes Oaks, assistant chairman of May Day; Virginia McDaniels, director of music; and Miss Madeline Smalley, head of Girl's Physical Education Department.

With May just around the corner, the whole campus is alive with "mummerings" and "buzzes" of the May Day program, an annual feature of the first week end in May.

to replace their banquets with a Spring Formal.

Three committees, composed of members from each sorority, are busy at work completing the plans for the Formal.

With the money saved by the Formal, the sororities plan to purchase Defense Bonds for the future use of the Sororities or for some other school purpose.

The Fraternities have decided to go ahead with their banquets, but to hold them on a modified scale. The fraternities have been asked to hold a banquet that will cost each member not more than five dollars.

gining of Religious Emphasis Week. Members of the class directed, acted, and produced this play as a class project, and their contribution to Religious Emphasis Week. This play was reproduced on Sunday evening for the congregation of the First Christian Church in place of the regular worship service.

Wilma Williams acted as director for the production. Those in the cast included Preston Parsons, Lib Stoney, Eugene Grove, Madelene Denning, and Virginia Lancaster. Technical Staffs included Veva White, Katherine Deans, Cecilia O'Neal, Avis Keene, and Elizabeth Yavorski. This drama was well received by both the students and faculty as an excellent type of Religious Drama.

On Tuesday night at 10 o'clock a Fireside Chat was held for the girls on the campus. On Wednesday night for the boys. Personal interviews were scheduled each afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30.

The three Sororities and three Fraternities entertained the guest, local ministers and professors at a tea on Thursday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 in the Girls' Parlor. The presidents of the organizations presided over the punch bowl. Cakes, nuts and mints were served by other members of the groups.

Members of the Glee Club and students from the music department provided special music for chapel and Vespers during the week. The String Ensemble, directed by Mr. Ed Stallings, provided the half hour of music which preceded the dramatic presentation on Monday evening.

This year, all the plans for Religious Emphasis Week were made by Ida Earle Pierce, president of the Y. W. C. A., and her committee, and approved by the Campus Religious Council.

Mr. Drash and Mr. Swearingen were much appreciated by the students. Mr. Drash gave the boys quite a work-out at the ping-pong tables, and Mr. Swearingen did the same on the tennis court. Both were found to be old hands at swinging a baseball bat.

Mr. Drash made a very definite impression on the student body. His inspiring lectures and pleasing personality made the week a highly successful one.
