

Queen To Be Crowned At Pine Knot Dance

Reagan and Wyman Will Choose From 14 Girls

The Queen of the annual will be crowned by Gene Barnes editor of the PINE KNOT, at the dance on Saturday night, November 22, from 7:30 until 12:00.

The Queen will be selected from 14 contestants sponsored by the various organizations on the campus, by Ronald Reagan and Jane Wyman, popular Hollywood stars. As yet no definite place for the dance has been decided, but it will be announced soon.

Plans are being made to have a short floor show and other entertainment. At 10 o'clock the Queen will be crowned.

The girls who are not selected by Ronald Reagan and Jane Wyman will be attendants to the Queen. The Queen will be seated on an improvised throne and crowned, surrounded by the other candidates.

The dance will be semi-formal and will be open to outsiders. There will be an admission charged and the proceeds will go to the PINE KNOT.

The pictures of the candidates have already been sent to the two judges. In making the pictures, the photographers draped the girls so that they would all look the same. On the backs of the pictures were included the girls' measurements in order that the judges might tell the approximate size of the entries.

The candidates for PINE KNOT Queen and the organization which they represent follow: Zell Carlson, Harnett County Club; Sybil Barrett, Sigma Alpha Fraternity; Lorraine Carpenter, Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity; Jean Talton, Phi Delta Gamma Fraternity; Lib Leach, Delta Sigma Sorority; Evelyn Economus, "A" Club; Floridella Bernier, Science Club; Mary Alice Beasley, Glee Club; Thelma Eardson, Sigma Tau Chi Sorority; Lib Davis, Golden Knot; Iris Ann Bunch, Christian Fellowship Club; Peggy High, Veterans' Club; Betty Newton, Phi Sigma Tau Sorority; and Doris Harper, Dramatics Club.

CLASSES ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The class officers for the current year were elected in the various meetings of the classes, October 6.

The freshman class met in Howard Chapel and elected the following students as leaders: president, Kerry Kiehligher, Greenville, Ga.; vice president, Milton Morris, Winton; and treasurer, Sybil Barrett, Farmville. No reporter was elected at this time.

Marlon Zollieffer of Dunn was elected president of the sophomore class with Buck Jones, Dunn, vice president; Betty Newton, Wilson, secretary; and Alan DeRatt, Clinton, treasurer.

The senior class met in Kinsey Hall and selected Marguerite Noe, Wilson, as president; Laston Grantham, Sanford, as vice president; Iris Lee, Arapahoe, as secretary; and Waylon Bisette, Bailey, as treasurer.

The junior class postponed their election because of a controversy over the point system, which allows a student to hold only a certain number of offices.

The classes hold regular meetings, unless otherwise stated, the first Tuesday in each month.

Halloween Party To Be Given Tonight

A Halloween party for all students to be given by the Social Committee of the college will come to life tonight in the gymnasium.

The party will bring the old witch, on her broom and her black cat to the campus. Pumpkins, spoons, and ghosts will all be present at the party in the form of students. The occasion will be a tacky party. Because of the gym floor, each student will be required to wear tennis shoes or go barefooted. Going barefooted is the preferable way.

Entertainment will be in the form of a talent show. The talent will come from the students who are not always called on for their entertaining ability.

Music will be furnished by the record player which the committee has recently purchased for just such occasions. It was paid for out of the funds provided for the committee. The record player was bought for the use of the entire school because the committee felt that there was a great need for one. It will probably be used to furnish the music for the smaller dances and parties which will be sponsored by this committee.

The gym will be decorated in the Halloween spirit, and the same spirit will prove true in the serving of refreshments. This is the second in the series of dances and parties which the Social Committee has planned for the students of Atlantic Christian College to enliven their life on the campus.

NOTICE

Dr. C. A. Jarman will be in Room 5 each Tuesday and Thursday from 1:30 to 2:30 to hold conferences with the students. He will be glad to help any person who needs advice or would like information.

10 NEW FACULTY MEMBERS TAKE THEIR PLACES ON TEACHING STAFF

Dramatics Added To Course of Studies

Ten new faculty members are helping to take the places of those teachers who are not returning and to aid in the crowded conditions in the class rooms because of increased enrollment.

Miss Helen Brandon of Dover, Tennessee, is teaching in the Social Science Department. Miss Brandon received her AB Degree from Murray State Teachers College, Murray, Kentucky. She received her MA Degree from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, Tenn., involving her MA Degree. Miss Brandon did some teaching and was also with the Tennessee State Department of Public Welfare for eight years. She had work at Tulane School of Social Work and also received social training at Vanderbilt University in Nashville. Before joining the teaching staff of Atlantic Christian College, she was head of the History Department at Lees-McLaine College, Banner E. Lk., N. C., and also Dean of Women. She was head of the History Department at Anderson College, Anderson, S. C., and taught history at Ward-Belmont College, Nashville, Tennessee.

Miss Ernestine Bolneau, of Orangeburg, S. C., joins the Commercial Department, teaching typing and secretary practice. She is also Assistant Dean in Caldwell Hall. Before coming to ACC she served as Registrar of Mitchell College in Statesville, N. C. Miss Bolneau has worked with the Medical College of South Carolina, the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida; Oglethorpe University, Atlanta, Ga.; Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Ga.; and did government work during the war at the Naval Air Station in Charleston, S. C. She received her AB Degree from Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., and also studied at the Southern Business University in Atlanta and at Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville.

In the Music Department there are two new members, Miss Mary Johnson, and Mr. Robert Derick. Miss Johnson has a BM Degree from Flora Macdonald with a major in Public School Music and Piano and Bible. She is from Kenby and has taught two years at the Masonic Orphanage, Oxford, N. C. She taught piano, public school music and directed the glee club. Here, she directs the glee club and teaches piano and voice. Mr. Robert Derick of Orange, New Jersey teaches voice. In addition to his position on the faculty of the college he is choir director in one of the churches in Rocky Mount and commutes to his classes.

Mrs. Doris Campbell Holzworth of Windsor, Connecticut teaches Public Speaking, Play Production, and is director for the Dramatics Club. She received her AB Degree from Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass. This is the oldest woman's college in the country. She holds an MA Degree from Emerson College in Boston, and has studied at the Yale School of Drama and at Radcliffe which is the woman's part of Harvard. She has taught in private schools around Hartford, Conn., and has written and directed pageants for communities, churches, and colleges.

The Reverend F. L. Lineberger, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Wilson, teaches German. Mrs. Jean Harris and Mrs. Dorothy Holden teach typing and shorthand in the Commercial Department.

The English Department also has Mrs. B. F. Eagles, Jr., of Wilson, who holds an AB Degree from W.C.U.N.C., Greensboro, N. C. Prior to her joining the faculty of ACC, she taught in the English Department at the Charles L. Coon High School and also served on the State Textbook Commission for secondary schools.

In the Language Department there is Miss Susan Vlek of Wilson who holds an AB Degree from Mary Washington College, University of Virginia, Fredericksburg, Virginia. Prior to her coming here she taught in the Maryland High School, Greenbelt, Maryland.

CORRECTION

The Collegiate wishes to correct a mistake that was made in the October issue of this paper. Due to an oversight of the Editor the story, "Sigma Alpha Becomes Scholar Fraternity", was permitted to run carrying these statements: That Sigma Alpha Fraternity was the first fraternal organization to make a scholarship provision; and that its sister-sorority, Phi Sigma Tau, was the only Sorority on a scholarship basis. Both of these statements are contradictory to facts.

It has been brought to the attention of the Collegiate that two other fraternal organizations have such provisions in their constitutions. The Constitution upon which Delta Sigma Sorority was founded in 1936 has a scholarship requirement. The same story was found true of Phi Delta Gamma Fraternity.

Golden Knot Gives Year's Scholarship

The Golden Knot Honor Society began a new year with the awarding of a scholarship for Miss Floridella Bernier of Ponce, Puerto Rico. The Golden Knotters are working toward giving her another scholarship for next year so that she may graduate and receive her degree from Atlantic Christian College. Miss Bernier is a junior this year; she had two years at the University of Puerto Rico.

The Honor Society held a meeting at the apartment of Dr. Mildred Hartoock, sponsor, at which time Miss Bernier was given a surprise party. Refreshments were served by Dr. Hartoock.

The regular meetings of the Golden Knot are held at 10:30 each Monday morning. The society plans to sponsor at least two vesper services during the year and is contemplating a chapel service.

Membership in Golden Knot is the highest honor an Atlantic Christian College student may attain. Entering its ninth year of existence on the campus, the organization taps in the spring, giving recognition to outstanding students in the sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

Founded in 1938, the Golden Knot has endeavored to recognize men and women who have attained a high standard of leadership, scholarship, service, and character in collegiate activities, to encourage them along these lines, and to inspire others to strive for similar conspicuous attainments.

The present members of the Society are Marguerite Noe, president; C. D. Gurganus, secretary and treasurer; Mary Ellen Jones, Franklin Jarman, Iris Lee, David Hardison, Lib Leach, Jane Goff, Donna Horton, Lib Davis.

Vesper Services Held Every Other Thursday

Vesper services are being held every other Thursday night in Howard Chapel at 8:20. The services are being conducted by the different organizations on the campus.

Each organization has a vesper service once except the Christian Fellowship, the Golden Knot Honor Society, and the Greek letter organizations which are cooperating with their brothers and sisters in the services.

So far there have been two services conducted—the first by the Christian Fellowship Club and the other by the Science Club.

The service offers a few minutes of quiet and meditation for those who attend. Music is one of the main features of the services.

DELTA SIGMA HAS 30 AT BANQUET

The Delta Sigma Sorority welcomed sixteen old members, who had come back to help initiate the pledges, on the campus during the three-day festivities. There was a total of thirty members present at the banquet Saturday night, October 18, at the Golden Weed.

The sorority collaborated with their brother, Phi Delta Gamma, in giving a tea for the alumni at Homecoming.

"You Name It", the gossip sheet put out every two weeks, is the product of Delta Sigma. The publication is put out solely by the girls in the sorority; they write the gossip, type and mimeograph the sheets. It is printed to furnish entertainment which so many students demand and which cannot be obtained from the regular college paper.

Delta Sigma is now making plans toward a circus. The date for this has already been set. The circus will be an unusual but colorful event on the campus.

Science Club Admits Eight New Members

Eight new members of the Science Club were initiated at a meeting at the home of Miss Camilla Wells, sponsor of the club, October 7.

Vera Lewis, Tommy Watson, Tassie Langley, Glenn Weaver, Whitney Weaver, Fred Heath, Edward Kennedy, and Charles Page were initiated into the club by H. E. Flowers, president; James Melawhorn, vice president; Vivian Miller, secretary; Waylon Bisette and Monnie Holland who belonged to the club last year. After the initiation Charles Page began his duties as the club treasurer.

The initiation was followed by a weiner roast and social hour held in honor of Floridella Bernier, the Science Club's candidate for the yearbook queen.

Last year the Science Club voted to amend its constitution and put the club on a scholastic basis by sending at the end of each semester invitation to students who have achieved an average of B or better.

They Aren't Beggars

INITIATIONS OF PLEDGES BRING COLORFULNESS TO CAMPUS

Alumni Association Announces Officers

The Alumni Association elected its officers for the year at the business meeting following the banquet at Homecoming, October 16, 17, and 18, for those who were given bids last spring.

The event began Thursday morning with the carrying of pledges and a large assortment of articles. The girls were dressed to portray fictional characters.

The first day of initiation brought out many pledges in short dresses and blue jeans. The girls in Sigma Tau Chi were dressed as the characters in the Little Abner comic strip. The Phi Sigma Tau girls were dressed in blue jeans and plaid shirts and were named after Eadie Neenie, Munde, and Mae. The pledges from Delta Sigma were dressed to portray characters in the nursery rhymes. The Phi Delta Gamma boys were painted up with red and were made to give public shows for the entertainment of the members and other spectators. The fraternities were not made to dress but took their cut in labor.

Paddles, saucers of water, bags of candy, cigarettes, and chewing gum, water buckets, eggs, chains, dolls, pillow cases, candles and flowers were among the many things seen in the hands of the pledges.

The second day of initiation brought out the colors of the sororities. In addition to the ribbons which had been worn, skirts and sweaters the same as the sorority colors had to be worn on Friday.

The initiation of the pledges into their respective Greek letter organizations was climaxed with the separate banquets given by the members Saturday night. There were many guests at the banquets since old sorority and fraternity members returned to help in the occasion.

Those students joining the Delta Sigma Sorority are as follows: Marian "Monkey" Driver, Alma Moore, Doris Lee Taylor, Doris Harper, Brownie Jones, Dot Wyatt, and Jean Strother.

The following joined Phi Delta Gamma Fraternity: Cecil Brown, Gene Lewis, Berry Vause, Vause, Bill Silver, Shake Vause, Norman Patterson, and J. T. Cobb.

Sigma Tau Chi had only two pledges to return to school this year—Mary Frances Llewellyn, and Vivian Allen.

Warren Barnes, Raymond Faris, Horace Overman, Brantley Aycock, Paul Glazer, Colon Ammons, Lloyd Brinson, Harry Helmer, Sparky McCaskill, John Rawls, Jim DeRatt, and Bill Massonell, became members of Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

New members in Phi Sigma Tau Sorority are as follows: Betty Newton, Louise Morris, Darlene Tucker, and Iris Ann Bunch.

Those joining the Sigma Alpha Fraternity are as follows: Doc Hardy, Thomas Wells, Bill Thigpen, Hal Smith, Mother Horton, Ed Thompson, Fred Phippen, Marlon Zollieffer, Robert Casady, Jobey Griffen, Jack Bynum, Red O'Connor, Poe O'Neil, Harold Bain, Dick Llewellyn, Joe Costin, Walter Correll, Gene Driver, William Driver, Walton Coley, Alan DeRatt, and Ronald White.

Three new officers were elected. They were Judson Stephens, Chaplain; Roy Tart, Sergeant at arms, and Pat Gainey, public relations. Twelve new members were welcomed into the club which brings the total membership to twenty-eight. New members include Roy and Bobby Tart, Judson Stephens, John and Norman Ingraham, Bobby Carr, Marlon Ennis, P. V. Bass, Vaughn Hutaff, Bobby Strickland, Hugh Barefoot and Zell Carlson. The club is sponsoring Miss Carlson in the Pine Knot beauty contest.

Harnett Club Gets Three New Officers

The Harnett County club met on October 17 with President Roy Brown, presiding. The club decided to hold its monthly banquet at Parker's on November 5. President Brown appointed Mac Byrd to make all banquet arrangements.

Three new officers were elected. They were Judson Stephens, Chaplain; Roy Tart, Sergeant at arms, and Pat Gainey, public relations. Twelve new members were welcomed into the club which brings the total membership to twenty-eight. New members include Roy and Bobby Tart, Judson Stephens, John and Norman Ingraham, Bobby Carr, Marlon Ennis, P. V. Bass, Vaughn Hutaff, Bobby Strickland, Hugh Barefoot and Zell Carlson. The club is sponsoring Miss Carlson in the Pine Knot beauty contest.

Annual Pictures Mark Start On Year Book

Pictures for the annual were taken last week by Charles Raines, photographer from Wilson.

The pictures of the juniors and seniors were made at the studio, but the sophomore and freshman pictures were taken in Kinsey Hall parlor.

The juniors and seniors have already received their proofs and the others are expected back soon. Irene Dudley and Gene Barnes have been working together in trying to get the pictures completed. Many pictures depicting the life on the campus have also been taken by the photographers.

Mr. Smith of Edwards and Broughton in Raleigh has already

Ah Wilderness To Be Presented By Stage and Script

Cast Gets Underway With Many Rehearsals

"Ah Wilderness" a three-act play by O'Neill is to be presented in Howard Chapel in late November. It will be the first major production for the Stage and Script. It is announced by Berry Vause, president of the organization. The date has not been set pending the date set for Thanksgiving holidays.

Vause states that rehearsals are already being held and that the cast will soon have mastered the first act. The next practices each night in Howard Chapel.

The play is a three-act tender and convincing domestic comedy, whose setting is laid at the turn of the twentieth century. It had a successful run on Broadway as a Theatre Guild presentation in 1922.

The play has been cast as follows: Jesse Jones will play the part of Nat Miller with Charles Page as his understudy; Berry Vause, Richard Miller with Tommy Watson as understudy; Hal Smith, Sid Davis with Wiley Wall as understudy; Charles Mayo as Arthur Miller with Charles Page, understudy; Rudolph Wiggs as David McComber; Wiley Wall as Wint Selby with Wade Woodall as understudy; J. M. Smith as Bartender with Jack Overman, understudy; Tommy Watson as Salesman; Reid Poole as Tommy Miller; Marguerite Noe as Mrs. Miller with Vivian Miller, understudy; Lib Leach as Lily Miller with Anna Jean Poole, understudy; Bernice White as Mildred Miller with Sybil Barrett, understudy; Helen Lamm, as Muriel McComber with Doris Whitney as understudy; Mary Lee Tanner as Nell with Sybil Barrett, understudy; Vivian Miller as Nora with Zell Carlson, understudy.

Tommy Moore will serve as stage manager with Walton Coley as his assistant, Charles Mayo, Charles Page, Norwood Dunn, A. T. Watson, Wade Woodall, Cecil Brown and James Wilder are in charge of the scenery; Rudolph Wiggs, Donna Horton, J. M. Smith and Cecil Brown are in charge of the properties, Charles Page and Darwin McAfferty are in charge of lights; Vivian Miller, Elizabeth Coor, Mary Frances Llewellyn, and Sue Thomas, costumes; Jo Anne Coggins, and Droopy Warren, make up; and Jack Overman, publicity and house manager.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Mary Johnson, has begun its new year with approximately 45 students turning out for the chorus. Last year the initial enrollment was approximately 75, an average of 30 more than are in this year's.

At an early meeting of the organization, the following officers were elected: Iris Lee, president; C. J. Ammons, vice president; Ann Johnson, secretary; and Floridella Bernier, treasurer.

Work on Handel's "Messiah" has begun, with an effort for readiness by the Christmas season. Last year, under the direction of Miss Harriet Fulton, the Glee Club presented the "Messiah" for the first time on the campus. It was decided that it would become customary each year for the Glee Club to present it to the public since no other organization in the city gives it.

Several members of the Glee Club are planning to participate in the community chorus which will be here during November. An outside conductor will come in and direct the group which will be made up of choruses and church choirs from the entire town.

Sigma Tau Chi Has Many Activities

Sigma Tau Chi climaxed its initiation activities with a banquet at the Golden Weed, Saturday night, October 18. Approximately twenty were present including the two new members, Frankie Llewellyn, and Vivian Allen, old members, and sponsors.

The sorority meets every Monday afternoon in the Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity house. The officers for this semester are as follows: Mary Alice Beasley, president; Lenore Phillips, vice president; Edna Taylor, secretary; and Joyce Peterson, treasurer and reporter.

Sigma Tau Chi has many activities during the year. For Homecoming Phi Kappa Alpha and Sigma Tau Chi were joint host and hostess when they entertained the alumni and visitors with a tea. Fruit punch, cookies, and nuts were served.

They assisted their brothers in playing host to the faculty, and at the wedding reception following the uniting of Miss Paul Glazer and Mr. Horace Overman.

talked with the staff and set the deadlines for the materials. The new cover for the annual has been reviewed by the editor in simple form. The staff has got off to a good start and it is hoped that it will be the "best annual yet."
