Future Teachers

The Future Teachers had their monthly meeting October 20 at the First Presbyterian Church. After dinner was served, President Elaine Godwin introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. D. S. Johnson, Superintendent of Schools in Rocky Mount. During his inspiring talk Mr. Johnson commended the members for their choice in becoming teachers. JoAnn Crumpler was elected by the chapter to serve as its contestant in the Homecoming beauty contest, with Jackie Vickie serving as alternate. Plans for the district meeting of the Future Teachers Association were discussed.

The FTA was in charge of the October 22 chapel program. Dr. Hulbert, Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction in North Carolina was speaker. Elaine Godwin presided. Ruby Wiggins, program chairman, explained the purpose of the FTA. Dr. Burt, sponsor of the chapter, introduced Dr. Hulbert, who is a former East Carolina professor.

Dr. Hulbert stressed the importance of vocational education in the school as he declared "to stop with learning facts is a danger in education." He disclosed some astonishing figures in showing the many problems of modern education in our state.

Approximately 55 students are now members of the Future Teacher's Association, which is a large increase over last year. It is hoped that other students preparing for the teaching profession will become members in the future.

Business Club

At the meeting of the Business Club the officers for the year were elected. They were as follows: Arthur Dall, president; Ashton Wiggs, vice-president; Beverly Cousins, secretary; Ellie Ruth Harrell, treasurer; Therese Rabil, reporter.

There was a weiner roast on October 26. Games and songs were enjoyed as well as hot dogs. This was an occasion to get the members together.

There was a short business meeting at the weiner roast, at which time Jean Craft was elected to represent the Business Club as their candidate for Homecoming queen.

The Business Club hopes to have a fruitful year. Some projects have been started which the club is hoping to accomplish this year.

Greek Letter Sororities

Phi Sigma Tau

The representative from Phi Sigma Tau for the Homecoming queen is Shirley Parker.

The Top Hat Dance was held November sixth at 8:15 P. M. in the cafeteria. As this is an annual affair, the dance was carried out in Night Club fashion. Chuck Hester acted as master of ceremonies for the night. The cigarette girls who worked in shifts during the evening were Libby Belangia, Linda Lee, Marjorie Trott, Helen Faye Todd, Edna Jane Westbrook, Cynthia Bradley, Sylvia Allsbrook, Betty Lou Noble, Ellie Ruth Harrell, and Agnes Davis.

During the intermission, Chuch Hester and Phil Houchins sang their version of "Blue Christmas" followed by Jerry Ball, who sang two numbers.

The climax of the program was the crowning of Mr. Top Hat. Candidates for the honor were brought in by the cigarette girls. The candidates were Joe Hardegree, Jimmy Harris, Jack Harris, Jerry Williams, and Phil Houchins. Jerry Williams was crowned Mr. Top Hat by the Master of Ceremonies, Chuck Hester. He was chosen by secret ballot at the door. There was a tremendous crowd; the dance seemed to go over well. The president for this year is Peggy Nicholls.

Delta Sigma

On Friday night, October 29, Delta Sigma and Phi Delta Gamma enjoyed a weiner roast at the recreation park. After the food was served, there was group singing and Halloween fun - all making for an enjoyable evening.

Catherine Cottle is Delta Sigma's candidate for Homecoming Queen. Catherine, a senior, is an officer of the sorority. Delta Sigma will also be in charge of the refreshments at the Homecoming Ball and is sponsoring a float in the parade.

Sigma Tau Chi

Our Harvest Dance was a huge success and we would like to thank Jimmy Harris and his band, the boys and girls who took part in our program, our loyal brothers who helped us "fix up" and "clean up" and all those who came to the dance, for their fine cooperation.

Veteran's Club

The Atlantic Christian College Veterans' Club with its sixteen strong members has picked up where it left off last year and is making plans for another great year.

Don't get alarmed when you see some of the vets marching around campus acting like they enjoyed the days of old and perhaps might want to return to the service, life; no indeed, they are just trying to get back in step to lead the band. In their recent monthly dinner meeting at Parker's Restaurant on U. S. 301 south of Wilson, the club voted to accept the college's offer to act as color guard for the band during the coming year.

The club in another one of its meetings elected Faye Boyette to be their representative for the "Homecoming Queen." Good luck, Faye, and remember the "vets" are behind you all the way.

Serving as officers of this year's club are Darrell Huffman, commander; Ashton Wiggs, vice-commander; Tommy Rhodes, executive officer; Warren Golf, finance officer; Author Dale, public information officer, and Bobby Bennett, club reporter.

Science Club

The Science Club has had two meetings this fall. At the first meeting officers were elected as follows: Ed Ward, president; William Owens, vice-president; Mamie Davis, secretary; Bill Weathersby, treasurer; Jim Matthews, program chairman; and Joan Kelly, publicity chairman. The faculty advisors are Mr. J. P. Tyndall, Mr. Robert P. Hollar, and Mr. Noel C. Carr, and Mrs. George Swain.

The second meeting was held October 28. Barry Lamm gave a program on photography. Also at the meeting trips which the Science Club is to make as a part of the program were discussed. Some of the suggested places were a trip to the museum in Raleigh and the Morehead Planetarium in Chapel Hill. Bugg's Island Dam, Mattamuskeete Lake, and Du Pont were suggested places.

The following amendments to the constitution were passed: in order to be a member of the Science Club one must have a "C" average; Freshmen cannot become members until second quarter; and the dues for each quarter are twenty-five cents.

Joan Kelly was nominated as a candidate for the Homecoming queen.

On the weekend of December 3 the Science Club will make a trip to Chapel Hill.

Greek Letter Fraternities

Phi Kappa Alpha

One of the major activities of Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity during the past month has been preparing for Homecoming weekend. A reception has been planned for former members and other visitors. The candidate selected for Homecoming queen by Phi Kap is a freshman, Sylvia Allsbrook. She will ride on a special float in the parade Friday afternoon.

Phi Kap served at the Moose banquet November 10. This proved to be very successful and the boys enjoyed it very much.

The football season did not prove very successful this year, but it was because of the lack of regular players.

Phi Delta Gamma

Welcome Alumni!

Phi Delta Gamma, like all the rest of ACC, has really put on its best to welcome all of you back - especially all its old members. Painting the chapter room, sanding the floors, and planting the lawn have been major projects in the welcoming campaign. A float, as well as a display, has been built, and all the visitors are invited over to see both.

Judy Lane, a freshman, has been selected to represent Phi Delt as a candidate for Homecoming Queen.

Sigma Pi Alpha

The Sigma Pi Alpha Honorary Language Fraternity held its first social meeting of the year on Monday November 1, in the Audio Visual room at 10:00 A. M. A program on Mexico was presented by Connie Davis, who attended summer school at Saltillo, Mexico, and Aberlardo Montano, a Mexican student from Saltillo.

Plans for the Christmas program were discussed. It is anticipated that France, Spain, Germany, Japan, and Latin America will be represented in songs, customs, dances, and refreshments. The date is December 8 and the place is the college. Members of Sigma Pi Alpha and language classes are taking part, and all interested in languages are urged to attend.

Officers for the present year are Joe Bulla, president; Connie Davis, vice-president; Therese Rabil, secretary; and Pat Davis, treasurer.

Stage and Script

Now that the gruelling rehearsals for The Crucible are over, members of Stage and Script can relax, with the satisfaction of having given a notable performance of a very great and difficult play. By taking part in the play, working on costumes, scenery, properties, make-up, or ushering, the following apprentice members have now become regular members of the club: Ellen Dennis, Bonnie Wilson, Charles Shirley, Louise Hutchins, Gerald Hill, Billy Smith, Donald Fisher, Jeannette Sears, Sue Foster, Bessie Lee Smith, Lorraine Evans, Mary Eva Griffin, Robert Royall, William Parrish, Margaret Newbern, Catherine Gup-ton, Carolyn O'Brian, Joyce Stevens.

Evelyn Yionoulis, one of the stars of the play, has been chosen to represent the club as a contestant for the Queen of Homecoming. At the last meeting, Bonnie Wilson gave some humorous readings; it has been the practice this year to have some entertainment at the regular meetings on the first and third Thursday nights of the month at 8:30 in Howard Chapel. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, November, 18. A party is being planned for Saturday, December 4.

The club has voted to assist the chorus and the Music Department in the Christmas program; further plans will be made at a meeting of the letter members and discussed at the next regular meeting.

Hesperian Club

The Hesperian Club is meeting regularly every Wednesday night at 8:30 P. M. in the Discipliana room of the library, to discuss the debate topic, practice poetry reading and dramatic reading. A large amount of material on the subject for debate has been purchased and assembled on the reserve shelf in the library. Any student who is interested in attending these meetings is cordially welcomed.

Pan Hellenic

One of the major activities of the Pan Hellenic Council for the past month has been the revising of the constitution. Each of the sororities and fraternities submitted proposed changes to the constitution. Pan Hellenic has been very busy working out details for the Homecoming weekend.

On the night of November 9, the Pan Hellenic Council sponsored an intersquad basketball game.

Pine Knot

PINE KNOT editor, Mary Hodge, announced that the staff has been busily working on individual shots, which were taken in October. With the help of Mr. Russell Arnold and Dr. Mildred Hartsock, sponsors, the staff hopes to make this year's yearbook the best yet.
