THE COLLEGIATE

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, APRIL 24, 1959

NUMBER TWENTY-TWO

McFarland and Horne Named to Exec Board By RALPH MESSICK

Pre-Registration Begins;

the regularly scheduled class meetings. The purpose of the general meeting was to elect a faculty member as the students' faculty representative on the Executive Board. Dr. Daniel MacFarland, Chairman of the Department of Social Studies, was elected as the students' representative.

In further action, George Gris-wold, President of the Cooperative Association, read some changes to be made in the by-laws of the constitution of the Cooperative Association. These changes pertained the picnic. Also at the meeting a to the election of officers to the Executive Board. Griswold then adjourned the meeting and announced that the class meetings would follow the Tuesday morning the Executive Board of the Cooperative Associa-tion held a general meeting before to remain in the gym in order to also asked for the day - students to remain in the gym in order to elect a day - student representa-tive to the Cooperative Association for next year. The day - students elected Billy Horne as their repre-campus, a story that will have its sentative to the Cooperative Association.

cerned today's Junior - Senior pic-nic at Recreation Park. Invitations from the Junior Class to the pic-nic were passed out and Ginn ex-pressed to the members of the pressed to the members of the class the desire for them to attend discussion took place about the coming commencement exercises. See EXEC BOARD Page 4

By Jim Bishop Collegiate Editor The nationalization of fraternities

campus, a story that will have its final chapter written tomorrow, will be climaxed with the installa-At the Senior Class meeting, pre-sided over by President Steve Ginn, the first order of business con-tional Social Fraternity.

chapter at a banquet to be held in the Carolina Room of the First Christian Church tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m.

Plans for a day-long installation of the new chapter were announced today by Colin Sholar, fraternity president

Phi Delta Gamma is the fourth fraternity and the final one on the ACC campus to go national. The program will open at 2 p.m. tomorrow with the installation cere-monies at the Wilson Elks Home. This will be followed by a recep-tion in Harper Hall at 5 p.m. Inty and administration of the col- ties, members of the Executive lege, presidents of each class, offi- Board of the ACC Cooperative As-

Sigma Pi Chartering

Scheduled Tomorrow

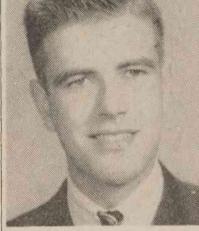

Sigma.

vited to the reception are the facul- cers of all fraternites and sororisociation, officers of the Interfraternity Council, and members of Phi Delta's sister sorority, Delta

> Also planning to attend the reception are the national officers of Sigma Pi, headed by Harold Jacobson of Elizabeth, N. J., Na-tional President, and members of Alpha Nu Chapter of Sigma Pi at Wake Forest College, and of Rho Chapter at North Carolina Sate College College > Principal speaker for the ban-quute tomorrow night will be Ward Ashman, Grand Sage of Sigma Pi. Also slated to speak are Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, ACC President, and James Hills, Executive Assistant of Sigma Pi.

Sholar will preside at the ban-quet, it was announced. Another highlight will be the awarding of man of the year and pledge of the year trophies.

COLIN SHOLAR

Class Schedules Are Out A pre-registration for classes to sion and during the Summer Ses-was kicked-off on the Atlantic Christian College campus today. The first item of business for students planning to attend ACC either during the two summer terms or next semester was to visit advisors and discuss their up-Thirteen outstanding students in coming programs. Advisors Have Schedules

Class schedules for the fall term were delivered to advisors today so that they could discuss the schedule with students. Students have previously received schedules

See REGISTRATION Page 3

Education Department Co-op By-Laws Taps 13 Students Realizes Teacher's Role To Be Amended

By BOB COLLINS

Knowing that public school teachthe area of foreign languages were ers are the fountainhead of cominitiated into Sigma Pi Alpha, the national honorary language fratermunity activity, the Department of Education and Psychology at Atnity on the Atlantic Christian camlantic Christian College, the group responsible for the training of prospective teacheachers, tries to do moere than instill classroom philo-sophy into its students. The public s c h o o teacher

The public school teacner plays an important role in englightening the public. For this reason, the Department of Education and Psychology tries to train competent leaders to fill the important der to, get into the scheduled classes. Other Sections "Of course, we will add other sections if the demand is large enough," Dr. Burt said, "But we cannot do it if we find that only two or three students are not able to get into the scheduled sections." If a student is doubtful concern-If a student is doubtful concern-If a student is doubtful concern-If a student is doubtful concern-witations to join Sigma Pi Alpha as a result of their outstanding achievement in the study of one or more of the three modern for-eign languages taught — French, B average on a foreign language at the end of the second semester If a student is doubtful concern-If a student is doubtful concern-der to get into the scheduled sections."

Juniors Honor Seniors At Picnic

The members of the Senior Class at Atlantic Christian College will noon being given by the members of the Junior Class. To be held at Recreation Park, the picnic will begin at 4 p.m. All

See PICNIC Page 3

The committee that was appointed to revise the apparent weaknesses in the constitutional provisions concerning elections returned its report to the Executive Board of the Atlantic Christian College Cooperative Association at its regu-lar meeting Monday. Some weeks ago, the board rea-lized that the classification require-ments for the caviliates hear seniors, juniors, and their dates are invited to attend, it was announced today by Sammy White, President of the Junior Class. junior" to clear the way for those who have attained senior status but plan to be students at ACC for another full year. In this year's election, both Ken Brinson and Bobby Dunn were classified as seniors at the time of election.

The new provision also applies to the office of vice-president. At Least Sophomore

In changing the requirements for

See EDUCATION Page 3

ACC Choral Group Will Leave On Tour

so that they could discuss the schedule with students. Students have previously received schedules for the two summer terms. Dr. Millard P. Burt, ACC Dean, said the pre-registration would end on May 13. All students are urged to pre-register. Sections will be closed on a maximum enrollment basis, Dr. Burt said, therefore, students are urged to pre-register early in or-Burt said, therefore, students or-urged to pre-register early in or-der to, get into the scheduled losses a result of their outstanding as a result of their outstanding

See INITIATION Page 4

Before returning here a week from Tuesday, the group will have presented 13 concerts in North Carolina and South Carolina.

The select group from the larger ACC chorus will be under the direction of James V. Cobb, Director of Choral Music at ACC. The tour will open at the Hillyer Memorial Christian Church in Raleigh at the 11 a.m. services Sun-day. From there the group will move to the Holloway Street Christian Church in Durham for a program Sunday night. Monday morning the group will sing at assembly at Elon College, and on Tuesdqy morning at Guilford College.

Monday night a program is scheduled at the First Christian Church in Greensboro, and the following night the group will sing at the First Christian Church in Winston - Salem.

インパーチー

P

Wednesday, the chorus will be at the North Carolina Convention of Christian Churches in Charlotte. Two singing appearances are scheduled for the convention. One will be at the ACC banquet scheduled at 5:30 p.m. at the Dillworth Methodist Church.

Thursday the group will move into South Carolina for a concert that evening at the First Christian Church in Charleston. The following day the chorus will sing at the South Carolina Convention of Christian Churches in Aiken, S. C.

A party of 51 students and fa-culty members will leave the At-lantic Christian College campus early Sunday morning to begin a 10-day, two-state choral tour. Before returning here a week from Tuesday, the group will have presented 13 concerts in North ments. The amendments were read in the Cooperative Association meeting Tuesday. They will be voted on by the students next Tuesday.

TOUR SOLOISTS—The ACC students shown above with James V. Cobb, left standing, director of the ACC Chorus, will serve as soloists on the two-state tour which begins Sunday. Shown seated, left to right, are John Elliott, Beverly Edwards, Gail Joyner, Peggie Greene, Nancy Forbes, Nor-ma Ralph, and Ed Mercer. Standing, left to right, Mr. Cobb, Jimmy Mitchell, Rex Cooper, Dor-othy Adcock, Bob White, Frances Herring, and Ken Brinson. (Collegiate Photo by Claude Anthony)

In further action, the board de-cided to change the usual format for next week's Cooperative Association meeting in the chapel.

Ramsay To Lecture Instead of the usual business

See BY-LAWS Page 4

ACC Band Plays College Concerts

The Atlantic Christian College Band presented two special concerts on a whirlwind trip Wednesday that called for visits at two eastern North Carolina college campuse

Wednesday morning, the concert band, under the direction of Darrell G. Harbaum, Director of Band at ACC, played at Campbell College at Buies Creek. Wednesday after-noon the second concert of the day was played at Mount Olive Junior College in Mount Olive.

Next month the band has another concert date at Chowan Junior College at Murfreesboro.