Queen Ann Reigns At Homecoming

Miss Ann Hamilton, above, blonde sophomore from Smithfield, was named 1959 Homecoming Queen at the college on November 21. She was elected by the student body from a group of 19

Ann Hamilton Selected ACC Homecoming Queen The Atlantic Christian College, "We had a wonderful Home-omore coed from Smithfield to ghum, chairman of the Home- the chorus has toured in the state reign as its 1959 Homecoming coming Committee, observed. "The of Georgia. Queen on November 21.

Miss Ann Hamilton, a music major, was selected by vote of the student body from a group of 19 contestants entered by various organizations on the campus.

She was crowned at the half-time of the ACC-Pembroke State basketball game played at the Wil-son Community Center and then shared the Homecoming spotlight with a Wilson banking official who was named to head the Atlantic Christian College Alumni Asso-ciation for the coming year. Foy N. Goforth, Assistant Vice-President of Branch Banking and class registration. Trust Company, was elected alumni president, at a business session were elected as runnersup to Miss Hamilton in the queen's have gone smoothly.

Miss Bunting represented the Sophomore Class and Miss Finch to have been solved," Dr. Burt represented Sigma Phi Epsilon said. Fraternity.

student body chose a pretty soph- coming program," James E. Fulrain didn't hurt the program too much," he said.

Joint Press Meetings Vill Begin Here Today

the nine North State Conference member institutions in North Carolina will begin to gather on the campus of Atlantic Christian College late this afternoon to begin to begin to begin to get the North State Conference campus of Atlantic Christian College late this afternoon to begin to begin to begin to get the North State Conference campus of Atlantic Christian College late this afternoon to begin to begin to get the North State Conference displayed to the Associated Press in the Carolinas.

Serving as co - hosts for the two meetings are The Wilson Daily this organization. a unique weekend meeting.

The two groups are holding joint sessions for the first time in their history and provide a backdrop in front of which campus newspaper leaders can mix with their professional counterparts for a discussion of their mutual problems.

Other officers of the conference press association are Miss Reba Fincher, Catawba College, vice-president, and Miss Bette Pomfrey, Atlantic Christian, secretary and treasurer.

Other officers of the conference press association are Miss Reba Fincher, Catawba College, vice-president, and Miss Bette Pomfrey, Atlantic Christian, secretary and treasurer. problems.

p. m. At that time the two groups staff members from Editor of The Richmond Times- Enterprise, and Mr. Hansell is the a business session of his organiza-problems.

Highlight of the three - day joint meetings will be a banquet tomorrow night in the lobby of the Classroom Building scheduled at 7:30

Mattheward E. Miespir, Shelby, first vice - president, Henry Coble, Greensboro, second vice - president, Joseph Brown, High Point, third vice - president, and Paul Hansell, Charlotte, secretary and treesurer. treasurer

The meetings will officially open After attending sessions tonight and tomorrow morning the student newspaper delegates will be joined on the campus by members of the North Carolina Associated Press cil group tomorrow afternoon.

News Council.

The two groups are holding press association are Miss Reba cil group tomorrow afternoon.

Other officers of the conference association. They will be members of the conference association. They will be welcomed by Mrs. Elizabeth G. Swindell, Publisher of The Wilson

Daily Times.

Everette Bryant, vice - president of the Atlantic Christian College Cooperative Association, will welcome the student editors at the first general session tomorrow, and Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, ACC President, will welcome the news council members at their opening session tomorrow afternoon.

Both groups are planning discuswill hear an address by John H. Colburn, Richmond, Va., President the Shelby Daily Star, Mr. Coble of The Associated Press Managing is with the Greensboro Daily News, Editors Association and Managing Mr. Brown is with the High Point other's sessions.

Tour Schedule Set Rooms Available For Choral Group

A 1960 tour for the Atlantic Christian Church in Rocky Mount nounced today.

The Chorus, under the direction of James V. Cobb, Jr., choral director at the college, will leave the ACC campus on Sunday, Janthe ACC tampus on Sunday, Janthe Chorus is scheduled the Chorus is scheduled.

The specific schedule calls for the chorus to sing at the First

Christian College Chorus was an- on Sunday, morning, January 24, and at the First Christian Church

On Monday night, January 25, the chorus is scheduled to sing uary 24, to sing in nine churches in North Carolina and Georgia before returning to the campus on Monday, February 1.

It will mark the first time that the chorus has toward in the attraction. Theodory with the chorus has toward in the attraction. on Tuesday night, January 26. On Wednesday night, January 27, the Avenue Christian Church in Macon, Ga., and will move from there to Augusta, Ga., on Thursday night, January 28, to sing at reservation fee, Mr. Stair observation fee, Mr. Stair observat the Central Christian Church.

On Friday night, January 29, the chorus is scheduled to sing at the First Christian Church in Winder, Ga. After a layoff on Saturday, January 30, in Atlanta, First Christian Church, Atlanta, on Sunday morning, January 31, and at the Peachtree Christian Church, Atlanta, on Sunday afternoon.

The group will return to the ACC campus the following day. Traveling by chartered bus, the group will include 41 persons, it was annound

In New Dorm

Men students currently enrolled at Atlantic Christian College who would like to live in the new men's dormitory the second semes-ter, may make the arrangements by contacting the Student Life Of-fice at the college.

John W. Stair, Director of Student Life, said today his office is now taking reservations from those men students who are living out in town and who would like to live in the new dormitory.

Currently under construction, the chorus will sing at the Houston dormitory is scheduled to be completed around January 1.

ed. After making the deposit with his office, Mr. Stair said the stu-dents would be sent to the House-mother, Mrs. Essie Davis, to get a specific room assignment.

Calendar

Tuesday, December 8

Freshmen and Seniors, Chapel Service-Music Department.

Sophomores and Juniors, class meetings. Thursday, December 10

Sophomores and Juniors, Chapel

service - Music Department. Freshmen and Seniors, class

Registration Underway; Burt Urges Expediency Dr. Millard P. Burt, ACC Dean, registrar's office and then fills in his name.

time this week in order that up-

This year, in registration for the Spring semester, seniors have top held in the college dining hall on Homecoming day.

Miss Cinda Bunting of Roberson-ville, and Miss Audrey Finch of Bailey ware alected.

three days of the registration

"All the difficulties experienc-

The students submit class regis-Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity tration cards to their advisors afwas the winner of the best house award in the judging of residence halls on the campus during Homecoming.

Dr. Burt warned that any student who does not go through the Ga., the chorus will sing at the perclassmen be able to take advantage of the priority system in class registration.

If a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is closed and the students are also as a class is a dent is late registering, he will not be allowed to get in the class. Schedule changes will be made on January 27, if the change is due to failure of a course. Students on academic probation will not register until January 27.

Students To Cooperate n Yule Gift Project

Miss Sarah Bain Ward, Dean of Women, "for it is a real women, announced this week that Atlantic Christian College stu-Atlantic Christian College students will be asked to support the annual project to give gifts to deserving children in the Wilson area.

the Wilson Jaycees and the Wilson Recreation Department at a

The students will purchase gifts to be given to a child of a designa-

and their dates.

The attire for the dance will be formal. "However," Dean Ward said, "we don't want people to stay away from the dance because they don't have formal Miss Ward explained further that men might wear dark suits and wors."

The music for the dance will be provided by the Quintones from Raleigh.

Miss Ward announced that at the intermission of the dance, the members of the committee who have worked on the dance preparations.

As in the past, students will be asked to spend approximately $1.00 for the gifts. "If a student feels that he or she wants to spend more than one dollar, gifts for more than one child should be purchased," Miss Ward said.

The attire for the dance will be provided by the Quintones from Raleigh.

Miss Ward announced that at the intermission of the dance, the members of the committee who have worked on the dance preparations.

The music for the dance will be asked to spend approximately $1.00 for the gifts. "If a student feels that he or she wants to spend more than one child should be purchased," Miss Ward said.

The attire for the dance will be provided by the Quintones from Raleigh.

Miss Ward announced that at the intermission of the dance, the members of the committee who have worked on the dance preparations.

The music for the dance will be asked to spend approximately $1.00 for the gifts. "If a student feels that he or she wants to spend more than one child should be purchased," Miss Ward said.

The attire for the dance will be provided by the Quintones from Raleigh.

The music for the dance will be asked to spend approximately $1.00 for the gifts. "If a student feels that he or she wants to spend more than one child should be purchased," Miss Ward said.

The attire for the dance preparations.

Monday and Tuesday, a table will be set up in the lobby of the classroom building where students

GIFTS FOR NEEDY-Atlantic Christian College students and faculty members create a scene similar to the one above each year during the Yuletide season when they present gifts to be turned over to needy children in the community by the Wilson Jaycees and the Wilson Recreation Department.

Social Committee Sets Christmas Dance Date

The Social Committee of the Cooperative Association is this week planning the Annual Christmas Dance to be held in the lobby of the classroom building December 12. December 12.

Miss Sarah Bain Ward, Dean of Women, announced today that plans are being completed for the dance which will be open to all and women party dresses. Larry Phares, a senior, is the student chairman of the social committee which is responsible for the preparations for the dance. The senior member of the committee serves as chairman each call committee will serve as chairman for the social perones for the affair. They are Mrs. Dorothy Eagles, Warren Tait, Gene Featherstone, Ashton Wiggs, Mrs. Jan T. Boles, Mrs. Lynne West, Mrs. Irene Harriell, and Miss Jesse Daniel.

of the committee.

cial Committee will serve as cha- out.

As in the past, gifts will be purchased to be distributed by party on Christmas Eve.

may sign up to give the gifts.

I hope that every ACC student will support this project," said the