PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, JANUARY 8, 1960

NUMBER TWELVE

Twelve Students Named To College "Who's Who"

Twelve Atlantic Christian College students have been elected to have their names appear in the 1959-60 edition of "Who's Who Among Students In American Universities And Colleges."

Selected by the college faculty after nominations had been made by the academic departments, the students' names were announced by the publication last week.

Heading the list was Bobby Dunn of Pinetops, President of the Atlantic Christian College Cooperative Association. Also on the list were two other top officers of that organization. They were Everette Bryant, Cramerton, vice-president, and Miss Emily Waters, Plymouth, secretary.

Students were selected on the basis of their scholastic records and their leadership qualities.

Also on the list were several other top campus leaders. Among them were Miss Zarelda Walston, of Farmville, a sorority leader and official of the ACC Interfraternity Council, Ralph Messick, Philadelphia, Pa., Co-Editor of The Collegiate, Miss Anne Jenkins, Kingston, head of the Student National Education Association on the campus, Miss Anne Nelson, Robersonville, leader in the dramatics group on campus, and Miss Sally Scudder, Durham, Head Cheerleader at ACC.

Others named to the list were Miss Ruby Bazemore, Cofield, Robert, Jr., Pikeville, William T. Powell, III, Rocky Mount, and Elton D. Winstead, Wilson.

Exec Board Committee To Study Constitution

Members of the Atlantic Christian College Cooperative Association met briefly Monday evening for their first business meeting of the new year.

Highlighting the session was a detailed treasurer's report which covered the months of September through December. Kenneth Bryan, treasurer of the Cooperative Association, gave itemized accounts of credits and expenditures as well as present balances of all organizations budgeted through the Cooperative Association.

With the fall semester coming to an end, the treasurer revealed that the Senior Class has a balance of $820.94, the Junior Class, a balance of $540.27, the Sophomore class, a balance of $234.74, and the Freshman Class, a balance of $142.07.

Discussion of the importance of prompt payment of bills led to the observation by the Board that the present treasury system is faulty.

To help speed payment of bills and prevent confusion, the Board explained that all approved bills from the various organizations should be made out to the Atlantic Christian College Cooperative Association.

The Executive Board requested that the treasurer of the Cooperative Association designate a specific time during the week when he will be in the newly established office of the Cooperative Association which is located in the Student Center. Organizational leaders will have the opportunity to confer with the treasurer about financial business at this appointed time in the Cooperative Government office. It was announced that the particular day and time will be publicized in the next issue of The Collegiate.

In further business, Robert Dunn, President of the Cooperative Association, said that the student body needs to be correctly informed that the Executive Board is not writing or creating an Honor Code for the student body. Dunn wanted it clarified that the Board was studying the student body to see if a change, such as the adoption of an honor system, is wanted on the campus of Atlantic Christian. He said that the Board wanted to know the feelings of the students concerning such a proposal.

Before the close of the meeting, members of the Board were selected to act as a committee to study and analyze the constitution of the Cooperative Association. It was announced that the constitution would be read and discussed during the following eight Executive Board meetings. The study is for the purpose of discovering whether the present constitution is meeting the needs of the enlarged student body and whether changes need to be made for a more efficient policy of student-faculty government.

RE Week Services Set For Gym: Gordon Lovejoy Will Be Speaker

The services of worship for this year's Religious Emphasis Week on the Atlantic Christian College campus will be held in the gymnasium according to James Boswell, president of the Campus Christian Association.

Boswell said that this arrangement has been made in order to allow students to attend all of the services. The CCA cabinet will attempt to make the atmosphere of the gymnasium as worshipful as possible for the Religious Emphasis Week program being held March 21-25.

The main speaker for the week-long program was also announced by the CCA. He is Dr. Gordon Loveson, Assistant Director of Southeastern Division National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Further commenting on Religious Emphasis Week, Boswell said, "The theme is 'The Master Among Us' dealing with an examination of the personality of Christ in relation to our own culture."

Other plans for RE Week have also been made. For Monday night the CCA is planning a special program designed to provoke thought on the chosen theme. A dramatic presentation will be given in an attempt to place before the students the theme for the week.

On Wednesday night of Religious Emphasis Week the Lynchburg College Chorus will present a musical program with the cooperation of the CCA. This program will be given in Howard Chapel.

Tuesday and Thursday nights the CCA will sponsor discussion groups to be held in the fraternity houses and the dormitories. Leaders for these discussion groups have not yet been selected.

The week-long religious program will end Friday with a Communion Service designed to be the highlight of the week.

Students Reminded Of Registration

Dr. Millard P. Burt, Atlantic College Dean, reminded the student body this week that the students are to pick up their class admission cards and to settle their financial obligation for the second semester during examination week.

Class admission cards are to be picked up at the registrar's office and bills for tuition and fees are to be picked up at the business office.

Dr. Burt also announced that schedule changes, except in cases of administrative procedure, are to be made on January 28. Only cases of administrative error, or cases of the administration's having added or dropped sections will be considered administrative procedure. Changes involving these administrative procedures may be made on the 27th.

In cases of academic probation, or in cases of students who have not yet registered, registration will be held on the 27th.

Department Of English Members Attend Speech, Theatre Meeting

Dr. Mildred E. Hartsock, Chairman of the Department of English, Mrs. Doris C. Holsworth, and Mrs. Edna Johnston, members of the English department faculty, attended the annual Speech and Theatre Convention held December 28-30 in Washington, D. C.

Cooperating in the meeting were the Speech Association of America, the American Educational Theatre Association, the National Society for the Study of Communication, the American Forensic Association, and the National University Extension Association.

Guests who participated in the three-day parley included Senator Wayne Morse, appearing on a labor-management panel; Rep. Frank Thompson from New Jersey; Senator William Proxmire from Wisconsin, John Doerfer, Federal Communications Commission chairman.

Program participants from the theatrical world included Howard Lindsay, and Stella Adler of the Stella Adler Studio in New York. Featured luncheon speaker at a joint convention session was Robert Thayer, head of the Bureau of International Cultural Relations, U. S. State Department. He spoke on "International Cultural Relations and our Universities."

Among other topics considered by convention participants were "The Impact of TV on the 1960

Convention"; "The FCC's Role in Broadcasting"; "The Selection and Training of Teachers for Television"; and "Communication in the Newly Integrated Classroom."

President of the Speech Association is John Deitrich, Michigan State University. Owen Peterson, Louisiana State University, is executive secretary. The SAA is a department of the National Education Association.

ACC Group Asked To Present Play

The Stage and Script Club at Atlantic Christian College has been invited to present a play at the college Union at North Carolina State College in Raleigh, on February 20.

The name of the play will be announced in a few days. Tryouts for parts in the production are already being held.

It was also announced recently that the club's spring production on the ACC campus will be "Dear Brutus," and tryouts for this production are also being held.

Faculty To Study Chapel Programs

Concern expressed by many faculty members regarding the chapel programs of Atlantic Christian College, led the Central Committee on Instruction to appoint a subcommittee to study chapel programs including attendance and will return a report to the Central Committee in the near future.

Dr. Millard P. Burt, Dean, pointed out that the chapel program is an area of concern for both students and faculty members. Because of the interest that has been shown in the program, the subcommittee was appointed.

Wenger Honored By Raleigh Paper

Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, President of Atlantic Christian College, was honored by The News Observer, Raleigh newspaper, in last Sunday's edition.

Dr. Wenger was featured Sunday as the "Tar Heel Of The Week." He was cited for his outstanding contributions to education in North Carolina as the head of Atlantic Christian College.

The feature on Dr. Wenger was written by Miss Jane Hall, Reporter and Art Editor for The News And Observer.

TV Program To Feature Business Department

The Department of Business at Atlantic Christian College will present a program in the regular college television series Friday afternoon.

The program will be telecast on Channel Seven, Station WITN, Washington. It can be viewed at 1:30 p. m.

Sixth in a series of 12 programs to be presented this year by various groups at the college, the program spotlights the economic system in eastern North Carolina as it pertains to industry and agriculture.

Appearing on the program will be Benjamin H. Bardin, member of the college faculty in the Department of Business, and Donald E. Benton, Miss Ruby Bazemore, Miss Regina Davis, and Donald M. Brown, all students in the department.

The program was prepared by Mr. Bardin with the assistance of the office of Special Activities at the college.

It is the only program of the series to be presented during the month of January. The seventh program in the series will be presented on Friday, February 12, by the Department of Physical Education at the college.
