CSW Sets All Campus Worship

By BOB STONE

"In keeping with the approaching season, the group on campus known as Christian Service Workshop, is presenting a worship service to be directed by Alton Lee, a Senior and the Co-editor of the Collegiate," Miss Pat Hines, president of C.S.W., has stated. "This group is functioning so that we can find a deeper spiritual dwelling which will enrich our lives, and never be forgotten," she noted.

Miss Nancy Weddle, worship chairman, explained the purpose of the Workshop as, "A time for all religion majors to gather together, since there is no opportunity to have a class together, and share our problems and ideas. We need Christian Service Workshop!"

The men and women of CSW have been instrumental in making the Church Vocation Conferences, held on campus, a success. "By and large," says Rev. Allan Sharp, advisor, "the Workshop had added a great deal to the religious strength of Atlantic Christian College, through fellowship, programs in Chapel, and especially Religious Emphasis Week. It is my desire to see the Workshop build a Prayer Chapel where all can have personal devotions, thus adding to the spiritual growth of ACC."

Miss Hines has reported all the projects taken on by the CSW have been very successful. She added, "on behalf of the whole group in workshop, I would like to extend to all students an invitation to attend the meetings held every Wednesday afternoon at 3 p.m."

Wesleyans Blast Commercialization Of Christmas; CSW Holds Meeting

By WILLIAM WATERS

"Commercialization of Christmas" was the program topic for a recent meeting of Wesley Foundation. The program was introduced by a devotion led by Miss Patsy Hall which centered on the idea of bringing Christ back into Christmas.

The program consisted of a panel which was made up of a member of the Wilson Junior Chamber of Commerce, the manager of Belk-Tylers, the pastor of the West Nash Methodist Church, and Mrs. Myrtle Swain of the ACC faculty. The panel discussed both the commercial and the Christmas aspects of the season and the manager of Belk's felt that many new ideas on how to bring Christ back into Christmas had been brought up. The floor was open to discussion on such questions as: What is the actual increase in sales during December? Are prices raised during

Williams' "Glass Menagerie" Is Set As Stage And Script Spring Play

A Tennessee Williams play, THE GLASS MENAGERIE, has been selected as the college's spring play to be sponsored by Stage and Script.

This decision, made by the letter members of the drama club, was announced by John Vernon, president of Stage and Script. Vernon also disclosed that try-outs for this production will be held on December 13 at 6:30 p.m. in Howard Chapel.

There has been no movie version of THE GLASS MENAGERIE. The Stage and Script president commented that this play is delicate and hard to handle. It has a small cast consisting of four characters. The play was staged here some eight years ago.

Concerning other future plans of Stage and Script, Vernon said that consideration has been given toward selection of three one-act plays to be given during the first part of the second semester and that announcement of the plays chosen will be forth-coming.

Exec Board Ponders NSA Vote Let-Down

The Executive Board this week took an intimate look at itself.

Nearly three months of vigorous, intensive and spirited attention to the issues of student government were rested last month when the student body shattered their aspirations concerning desegregation. It was the feeling of several members of the Executive Board that the group of student leaders is suffering from an aftermath of discouragement and a cessation of energy.

The self-analysis and evaluation began when James VanCamp, president of the Junior Class, severely criticized the governing body for their change in attitude. VanCamp stated that at the beginning of the year the student leaders were full of energy and concern for putting through various campus programs.

this season? Does the early parade help business? and Why can't we have more Christian emphasis?"

During the business portion of the meeting it was decided the Wesley Foundation Christmas party will be held on December 14 and the place and time will be announced.

At the last meeting of the Christian Service Workshop E. D. Henson, Dean of the Brite College of the Bible of Texas Christian University, was the main speaker. Only those students affiliated with the Disciples of Christ church were in attendance.

The meeting of the Christian Service Workshop to be held on December 14 will be a worship service and will be in Howard Chapel. Alton Lee, senior ministerial student and co-editor of the Collegiate will speak. All students are invited to attend.

"But, since our defeat over the NSA resolution, our attitude has changed," the class president emphasized. VanCamp pointed out, "We have lost account of our purpose in being, representatives to this body. Our responsibility has no room for our present lapse, there are too many big things which need our attention and concern."

VanCamp concluded by appealing to the leaders for a more energetic attitude.

David Smith, chief executive of the campus student government, agreed with the views given by VanCamp and commended him for expressing them.

"Our unpopularity over the desegregation issue has sapped our vigour and initiative as campus leaders; let's pledge ourselves, once again, toward energetic and progressive activity as a student government," Smith replied.

The executive members accepted the self-criticism and, with revived spirits, planned to return to their approach to the role of leadership exerted prior to the resolution hullabaloo.

During the weekly session of business, Miss Mary Ann Marchant and Miss Betty Jean Grady reported on their attendance to the Regional NSA convention held at Lynchburg, Virginia, December 2. The two delegates who represented Atlantic Christian told the board that the conference afforded them a greater understanding of the nature of the National Student Association.

A letter was read before the Executive Board by president David Smith.

"It was a shock to me personally," Smith stated, "and its content will be of regret for all of us."

The letter was that of the resignation of F. T. Riley, Jr., Co-Editor of The Collegiate. Smith announced that Riley's resignation would be effective January 31 when the Editor completes his academic career at Atlantic Christian.

At Christmas Dance

Pine Knot Queen Selected Tonight

By WILLIAM WATERS

The annual Christmas Dance, to be held tonight from 8 to 11 in the lobby of the classroom building, promises to be a highlight of the social life of the 1960-61 school year at ACC, says Bob Matthews, Social Committee chairman. The Christmas Dance is sponsored by the Social Committee and will have as its highlight the crowning of the 1961 Pine Knot Queen.

During the intermission of the dance Miss Cinda Bunting, Pine Knot Queen of 1960, will crown the new queen as Matthews acts as master of ceremonies. The Pine Knot Queen is selected annually from candidates sponsored by each of the four classes and each fraternity and sorority. She will be featured in this year's edition of the college annual.

Theme of the dance is to be a surprise but an extensive committee is preparing for the Christmas event. The chairman of the decorations committee is Bob Bishop and helping him are Bob Stone, Dorcas Cox, Ann Cartwright, Flora Ann Faulkner, Gene Vincent, John Cox, John Boyd, Guy Miller, Oden Latham, Sylvia Johnson, Peggy Grecne, Mickey Hayes, Judy Whitely, Johnne Owens, Rex Horne, Bobby Raeford, Carole Barber, Jackie Rivenbark, Nan Vanderford, Buddy Westbrook, Ken Thornton, and James Weaver.

Other committees are: social calendar: Dale Fillingame, chairman, Linda Watkins, Carolyn Waller, Reggie Goodwin; window decoration: Janet Blackwood, chairman, Judy Gray, Sandy Huggins, David Peebles; refreshment table decoration: Liz Harris, chairman, Jean Bazemore, Gwen Humphrey, and Miss Jessie Daniel.

Miscellaneous and small decorations: Shirley Gaskins, chairman, Patricia Collins, Della McCullen, Lynn Sharpe, Carol Colvard; lighting: Dick Ullom, chairman, Dale Williamson, Bill Gill.

Decorations committee member Bob Stone says the dance promises to be an unforgettable event on the ACC campus. All students, faculty and administration are invited to attend.

Campus Lovelies Vie For Annual Queen Acclaim

As the hour strikes eight tonight, twelve delightful Misses at Atlantic Christian will await the highlight of the evening breathlessly.

Candidates for the 1961 Pine Knot Queen will be presented at the annual Christmas dance held in the lobby of the classroom building. The social committee, sponsors of the yuletide event, will present the candidates at the beginning of the dance.

Dancing to the music of the Lloyd Wooley Quintet of Chapel Hill, dancers will be interrupted for the crowning of this year's queen at 10 p.m. The court will be announced at that time to reign with the judges' favorite sweetheart.

Candidates of the Senior and Sophomore classes will be Misses Judy Collins and Mary Ann Summerlin, respectively. Freshman and Junior class candidates have not been announced.

Representing fraternal organizations will be Misses Myra White, Omega Chi; Carole Barber, Phi Sigma Tau; Johnne Owens, Sigma Tau Chi; Martha Early, Delta Sigma; Lynette Jefferson, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Mary Cobb Forbes, Delta Sigma Phi; and Carole Barber, Alpha Sigma Pi.

Robert Matthews, chairman of the social committee, said the dance is expected to be one of the most outstanding planned on campus. Matthews reminds all members of the campus-family that for men, dark suits are permissible at the formal occasion and corsages are not considered necessary.

Yule Parties, Gifts Soon To Descend

As the last week of school before Christmas holidays draws near, the residents of Harper Hall and Caldwell Hall are planning their Christmas activities.

On Thursday night, the 15th of Dec., everyone at AC takes part in the Christmas caroling. Carolers sing at the hospitals and the sanatorium. After this they return to the dining hall for refreshments.

At 10:30 p. m. that evening the women's Christmas Party will be held in the Rec. Room of Harper Hall. Each hall in both dorms will have a skit and a prize will be awarded for the best one. Miss Bobbie Jean Grady will serve as mistress of ceremonies.

ABC Radio Offers Chance To Attend Inauguration Day

"What Do You Most Want The United States To Do At Home And Abroad In The Sixties?" was announced today as the title of an essay contest sponsored by the ABC Radio Network in connection with its distinguished journalist-broadcaster Edward P. Morgan.

Morgan stated, "President-Elect Kennedy says the country must move ahead to a new frontier. The people with the greatest stake in this movement are the men and women known as American Youth so it is fitting they should be asked what they most want the United States to accomplish at home and abroad in the 1960's, for on their minds and energies depends, in great measure, the success of the adventure into this portentous decade. Furthermore, I think they have some provocative and responsible ideas on the subject which need listening to."

Timed to climax with the winner's participation in coverage of President-Elect John Kennedy's Inauguration Day, the contest runs through December 28. Each contestant may submit any number of entries, each with a maximum of 600 words.

The winners, one boy and one girl, will be flown to New York on January 18 to lunch with industry leaders, visit the United Nations and meet officials there, attend a Broadway hit and participate in other events. The following day, winners will leave for Washington and meet with government and labor leaders and take part in covering Inauguration Day ceremonies as part of the ABC news team.

The rules of the contest are posted in the library.
