NUMBER ELEVEN

Evaluation Of Exec Board Made By Pres. Adams

The Cooperative Association of Atlantic Christian College has had quite a progressive year thus far. Delegates from Atlantic Christian were sent by the Cooperative Association to Madison, Wisconsin, August 20-30th to participate in the National Student Congress sponsored by the United States National Student Association. The National Student Association is composed of student bodies in all parts of the country and is very strong in its concern of national and international activities which affect American students. We, of Atlantic Christian, are very proud to be of membership in this organization.

Our student government was very active in freshmen orientation at the beginning of the school year. Along with student leaders who gave individual assistance to the entire program, a portion of the program was sponsored by our student government. In our meetings with the freshmen, we explained the purpose of campus government along with the role they can play as potential student leaders. We feel the program was very successful and beneficial to all concerned; we hope the freshmen will prove our opinion on this with their efforts and cooperation toward our work.

For the past several years, our Executive Board consisted of thirteen members. This year a resolution, accepted by the student body, expanded the board to twenty-one members with the new members being elected by each individual class. This system is still quite new to us, but we feel these new additions by producing more ideas and opinions will and are greatly aiding to more and better decisions made by the Executive Board.

Also, this year we have two new groups functioning under the Cooperative Association. One of these is the campus radio station, WACR. The school is very fortunate in having this group which has done an outstanding job in rendering their time and facilities to provide the campus with broadcasting services.

The other new group is known as the Campus Awareness Committee. This committee, at present, is making arrangements to bring speakers, films, debates and other political figures to campus in order to arouse students to see and study the activities and needs of the world today.

We feel that these new groups have rendered great services to the student life on campus. For instance, the radio station strives to keep the student body informed of news items which affect the students, directly and indirectly. The Campus Awareness Committee has sponsored discussions led by Dr. William Troutman on the subject of "A Liberal's View of the World Affairs Today," and by Dr. Daniel McFarland on "The Conservative's Outlook." The Committee planned for the presentation of the film "Operation Abolition"; how-

The Executive Board opened its December 11 meeting by reading a letter of appreciation from Dick Kanipes, president of the North State Conference for the reception and host activities this College performed during the recent North State Student Government Association conference.

The first order of business covered the Budget Committee report on the current Co-Op financial status; which is apparently suffering from lack of funds due to the number of students who are paying their tuition on an installment basis. The next phase of the budget release will be determined by the Spring Semester enrollment.

A tentative request for an increase in Student Activities is needed and should be presented to the Board of Trustees at the next regular meeting in February of 1962.

Professor Gene Featherstone petitioned the Board for additional funds to offer student and faculty receptions for guest artists of the Concert Committee. The Board has directed Mr. Featherstone to use funds already allotted to the committee.

The final business item on the agenda was the speeding problem which seems to grow more acute daily. The Wilson City Officials have agreed to consider flashing lights at cross-walks and re-location of existing stop lights.

Circle K Holds Christmas Dinner

On Tuesday evening Dec. 12, the Circle "K" Club held its Christmas dinner. The group planned to go to Parkers for the event, but as that restaurant was filled for the night, did the next best thing. Each man enjoyed a Parker's Barbe-que dinner in the college dining hall.

Mr. Pete Warren addressed the group. A good time was had by all.

The club is presently in the process of taking in new members. A program is also being planned for the spring semester which the group feels will be of great benefit to the student body. Specific plans for this event will be revealed at a later date.

Religion Majors Present Program

The Christian Service Workshop met in Howard Chapel on Wednesday, Dec. 13, at 3 p.m. Tommy Norvell gave the Christmas message, "Where are the Christmas angels?" After the worship in the chapel, the group adjourned to the Rec. Room of Harper Hall. Talent, fellowship, and refreshments were the constituents of the social.

Many interesting programs are planned after the holidays, all are invited to attend.

And It Came To Pass In Those Days Luke, II, 1-20; Matthew, II, 1-11

St. Luke, 2

1. And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3. And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David.)

5. To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for him in the inn.

8. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.

12. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

St. Matthew, 2

1. Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came three wise men from the east to Jerusalem.

2. Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3. When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

Drama Club Gives Special Reading Christmas Oratorio Is Presented

A dramatic reading was given in Howard Chapel on Wednesday evening, Dec. 13.

Presented were selected passages from W. H. Auden's "For the Time Being," a Christmas oratorio.

This reading was part of an open meeting of the Stage and Script club and was attended by various members of the student body. Included among these visitors were some members of the freshmen class, for whom the program probably held an additional interest. Mr. Auden's poem is in one of the text books used by the first-year English classes.

The production was staged with contemporary dress and atmosphere. Written in modern setting and language, the selections showed attitudes and opinions of people in this chaotic and confused world and reflected the manner in which these people responded to the spirit of Christmas.

Included in the program as readers were Mary Lou Webb as Mary, June Burwell as Star of the Nativity, Wallace Wood as Gabriel, Hatten Hodges as Joseph, and Bob Lindley as the narrator.

The three wise men were Paul Wilson, Darrow Clark and James Barber. Shepherds were Randy Ratterree, Jay Royal and Jeff Kilpatrick.

Composing a chorus of angels were Becky Harper, Sylvia Peterson, Hilda Griffin and Nancy Weddle.

The reading was directed by Guy Miller, assisted by Mrs. Doris Holsworth. This direction on the part of Mr. Miller was in partial fulfillment of the requirements of his play production class.

Lighting was handled by Jean Shimer.

STUDENTS AND FACULTY

The Campus Christian Association would like to express its warmest greetings to the faculty and students of Atlantic Christian College during this Christmas season. May the joy and happiness of this time of the year be with you throughout the coming year and may the love of Christ be in your hearts always.

Sincerely,
The Campus Christian

CHRISTMAS FUN—The sisters of Omega Chi and the brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon and pledges of both organizations held their annual Christmas party, Monday at the Sig Ep house. Presidents of the two organizations distributed presents to all attending. Omega Chi pledges served the refreshments, and Sig Ep pledges were called on for spontaneous entertainment. Gifts were also presented to sponsors of both organizations. (Collegiate photo by Steve Blanton)
