

THE COLLEGIATE

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, FEBRUARY 2, 1962

NUMBER THIRTEEN

Candidates Number Nineteen

First Annual Parents' Day Will Be Sunday

WILSON — Nearly 400 parents of Atlantic Christian College students from seven states have made plans to visit the college campus here Sunday, Feb. 4, for observance of the institution's first Annual Parents' Day which will officially launch College Appreciation Week sponsored by the Wilson Chamber of Commerce.

College officials and students are planning a warm welcome for the parents who will be coming from Virginia, Kentucky, Georgia, New York, South Carolina and Washington, D. C. as well as North Carolina. They will have the opportunity to become better acquainted with the educational opportunities offered their children at Atlantic Christian College.

Registration for parents will begin at the college at 8 a.m. Students and parents will attend churches of their choice in the city during the morning and a luncheon on the campus at 12:30 p.m.

During a special program to be given during the luncheon the group will hear an address by Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, ACC president, and greetings by Moseley Hussey, executive secretary of the Wilson Chamber of Commerce.

Open House will be held at the college beginning at 2 p.m. at which time parents will meet members of the faculty and staff and visit classroom and dormitory facilities.

See PARENTS' DAY Page 4

Essay Cup Rules Told

Mr. Ashton Wiggs of the Business Department announces the opening of the annual College Essay Contest. The winner of this contest receives the Denny Essay Cup Award and the winning Essay is preserved in the Archives of the College at the C. L. Hardy Library.

All entries must be presented in the prescribed manner by April 13th, 1962. This year's reading committee will consist of Mr. Hugh Johnston, chairman, and Mrs. Dorothy Eagles and Mr. R. Parker Wilson, members. The essays are presented to the Committee by number with authorship concealed to insure the judging on strictly literary hallmarks.

Last year's winner was Betty Ann Thomas who competed against nine entrees for first place.

All essays are to be written on the college motto "Habebunt Lumen Vitae" — "They shall have the light of life." Each essay must be typewritten, double-spaced and consist of a 500-1,000 word content.

The judging will center on neatness, originality and insight. All students of Atlantic Christian College are invited to compete.

Wilson Honors College

Plans have been completed for the annual College Appreciation Week sponsored by the Wilson Chamber of Commerce to be held during the first week in February.

The event will officially get underway on Sunday, Feb. 4, when Atlantic Christian College will hold its first Annual Parents Day on the campus. A full day of activities are planned which will include church services, a luncheon, band concert and reception.

There is to be a meeting of all presidents of the church related colleges in Eastern North Carolina on Monday, Feb. 5, along with the deans, department heads and board of trustee chairmen. A banquet is to be held that evening at the college for guest and faculty of Atlantic Christian College.

On Tuesday, Feb. 6, there is to be an assembly at Howard Chapel at 10:20 a.m., and a concert in the evening.

The Wilson Chamber of Commerce Banquet and Awards Night is to be held Wednesday, Feb. 7.

LET'S TWIST—Friday night, Omega Chi sorority sponsored a dance featuring the music of the Scepters. Intermission was highlighted by the presentation of couples who have become engaged or married in the last year. Following the intermission was a twist contest.

Chorus Tours North Carolina Churches And High Schools

The Atlantic Christian College Chorus appeared at five churches and two schools in Piedmont and Western North Carolina this year on the first portion of its Seventh Annual Tour which began on January 21.

The 40-voice choir, under the direction of James Cobb, acting chairman of the ACC Music Department, presented a varied program of religious and secular works and featured a number of soloists.

The second portion of the tour will carry the group into Virginia and Washington, D. C.

The chorus began its tour at the First Christian Church in Wilson on the morning, January 21, and journeyed to the First Christian Church in Winston-Salem that some day for an evening performance.

A morning performance was presented at Reynolds High School in Winston-Salem January 22. The group then traveled to Asheville for an evening concert at the Asheville First Christian Church.

An afternoon performance was given at Arlington Junior High in Gastonia. That evening, January 23, the group presented a concert at the First Christian Church in Charlotte.

The group then completed the tour by singing at the First Christian Church in Fayetteville on the evening of January 24.

Members of the chorus taking the tour were the following:

Gina Allen, Farmville, Sharon Childress, Vienna, Va.; Jacqueline Daughtry, Clinton; Joyce LaCelle, Selma; Lee McElhane, Beaver, Pa.; Barbara McGee, Smithfield; Scarlet Mills, Kinston; MaLoye Richardson, Wendell; Pat Roberson, Durham; Mary Todd Satterfield, Wendell; Judy Smith, Willow Springs.

Patsy Hall, Laurinburg; Yvonne Faucette, Summit; Rhea Forest, Brunson, S. C.; Marilyn Hall, Laurinburg; Ann Hayes, Wilson; Janice LaCelle, Selma; Linda Morris, Wilson; Judy Rose, Newton Grove; Linda Burgess, Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Oden Latham, Washington; Bob Stone, Portsmouth, Ohio; Arnold Nilson, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Bob Nolan, Decatur, Ga.; Paul Wilson, Hurdle Mills.

Bill Alexander, Lexington, Ky.; Jim Aycock, Fremont; Jerry Bowers, Morehead City; Charles Burt, Wilson; Bill Cogdell, Goldsboro; Jim Daughtry, Islandton, S. C.;

See CHORUS Page 4

Scheduled Debate, Film Cancelled

The showing of the film, "Operation Abolition" has been postponed for the second time. The film, scheduled to be shown on Feb. 7, will be shown on April 10. Following the film will be a debate by Fulton Lewis III.

Jim Van Camp, president of the Campus Awareness Committee, gave the following reason for the cancellation. He stated that Mr. Lewis has debated the film so many times that the debates often are very one sided. The C.A.C. does not wish to hold the event until a comparable opponent can be found for Mr. Lewis.

It is hoped that Mr. Harrington, a socialist, will be available on the April 10th date.

Phi Sigma Tau Planning Event

WILSON — The Phi Sigma Tau sorority at Atlantic Christian College will be celebrating its Golden Anniversary during Homecoming at the college on Saturday, February 10.

The sorority was founded in 1912 with eight charter members and at least three of five charter members now living are expected to attend the event.

Members of the sorority and a large number of the Phi Sigma Tau Alumni Association members are expected to attend a special tea and banquet planned during the day.

Registration for the group will be on the campus and a Phi Sigma Tau display will be open from 10 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Charter members of the organization will ride in the Homecoming Parade which is to begin at 11 a.m. The Golden Anniversary Tea will be held at 3 p.m., at the home of President and Mrs. Arthur D. Wenger.

The Golden Anniversary Banquet will be held at the First Presbyterian Church in the Clark Memorial Fellowship Hall at 5:30 p.m. Officers of the Phi Sigma Tau Alumni Association will be elected during the evening.

Serving as chairman of the Steering Committee for the celebration is Mrs. Nan Herndon of Wendell, president of the Phi Sigma Tau Alumni Association.

Other committee chairmen include: Mrs. William Widgeon of Bailey, Attendance; Mrs. W. C. Corbett, Banquet; Mrs. H. C. Hilliard Jr., Program; Mrs. J. E. Paschall, Tea; Mrs. John Glover Jr., Exhibit; Mrs. E. C. Neeland, Invitations, and Mrs. Frank I. Denny, Decoration, all of Wilson.

WILSON — Nineteen pretty coeds at Atlantic Christian College will vie for the title of "Homecoming Queen" next week, the winner to be selected by the student body and announced at the Coronation Ball on the evening of Friday, Feb. 9.

The Coronation Ball will be one of the main highlights of Homecoming at ACC which is being held in conjunction with College Appreciation Week sponsored by the Wilson Chamber of Commerce.

The Homecoming Queen and her court will ride in the Homecoming Parade on Saturday, Feb. 10 and will be formally presented during halftime activities at the ACC-Pfeiffer College basketball game to be held at the Wilson Recreation Center. The queen and her court will be again honored at the Homecoming Dance following the game.

Contestants for the event and their sponsors are: Linda Cale of Wilson, Senior Class; Alease Willoughby, Ahoskie, Junior Class; Lynette Jefferson, Washington, N. C., Sophomore Class; Ann Oakley, Williamston, Freshman Class.

Sandy Huggins, Elizabethtown, Delta Sigma Phi fraternity; Eleanor Walters, Fuquay Springs, Delta Sigma sorority; Linda Morris, Wilson, Omega Chi sorority; Ellen Stovall, Rocky Mount, Sigma Tau Chi sorority; Gracie Gwaltney, Kinston, Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity; Mary Jo Buffalo, Garner, Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity; Susan Webb, Kinston, Sigma Pi fraternity; Carol Harper, Deep Run, Phi Sigma Tau sorority.

Jean Barefoot, Wilson, Phi Beta Lambda business fraternity; Sylvia Johnson, Kelford, Women's Dormitory Council; Sylvia Petterson, Charleston, S. C., Campus Christian Association; Carol Colvard, State College, Miss., Collegiate; Mary Ann Marchant, Raleigh, Pine Knot; Nancy Weddle, Asheville, Stage and Script; Nancy Jean Roberson, Scotland Neck, Cheerleaders.

Chapel Notice

Tuesday, Feb. 5, all students will meet in the gymnasium. The Homecoming queen candidates will be presented to the student body and voted upon.

Thursday, Feb. 7, all students will have a free day.

TYPICAL ACC CHORUS MEMBERS