

THE COLLEGIATE

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, APRIL 13, 1962

NUMBER TWENTY-TWO

Board Rules On Dead Week

Annual Spring Junior-Senior Is To Be April 27

The Junior and Senior Prom, expected to be one of the best ever held here at the college, is planning for approximately 300 people in attendance. The Prom is being held this year in the Carolina Room of the Cherry Hotel. April 27, 1962. The dinner portion of the prom will begin at 7:30 p.m. followed by the dance. The "Journeymen of Jazz" will provide the music for the evening and there will be various groups and individuals to provide entertainment during the evening.

The Seniors will be the Honored Guests of the evening along with the Junior Class sponsors, Senior Class sponsors, faculty, and administrative personnel. The President of the Junior Class, Mr. Robert M. Stone, will have the words of welcome preceding the banquet. The President of the Senior Class, Mr. Buddy Westbrook, will have the words of appreciation followed by Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college. A few of the sophomores have been invited to participate in the Junior and Senior.

Those who have not yet signed up at the switchboard in the Administration Building may still do so. The switchboard will be open until 4:30 P.M. today April 13. This is the last day for signing up for the prom. All the honored guests are invited free of charge. The Juniors and those not members of the Senior class have been asked to pay two dollars to help defray the expenses incurred; banquet, band, programs, decorations, etc.

Spring Dance Scheduled May 4

With Spring already here and nature bursting out in all her brilliance, plans are being made for the annual Spring dance to be held Friday night, May 4, 8:00 until 12:00, in the Wilson Armory. The sceptors of Durham will provide music and entertainment for the semi-formal event.

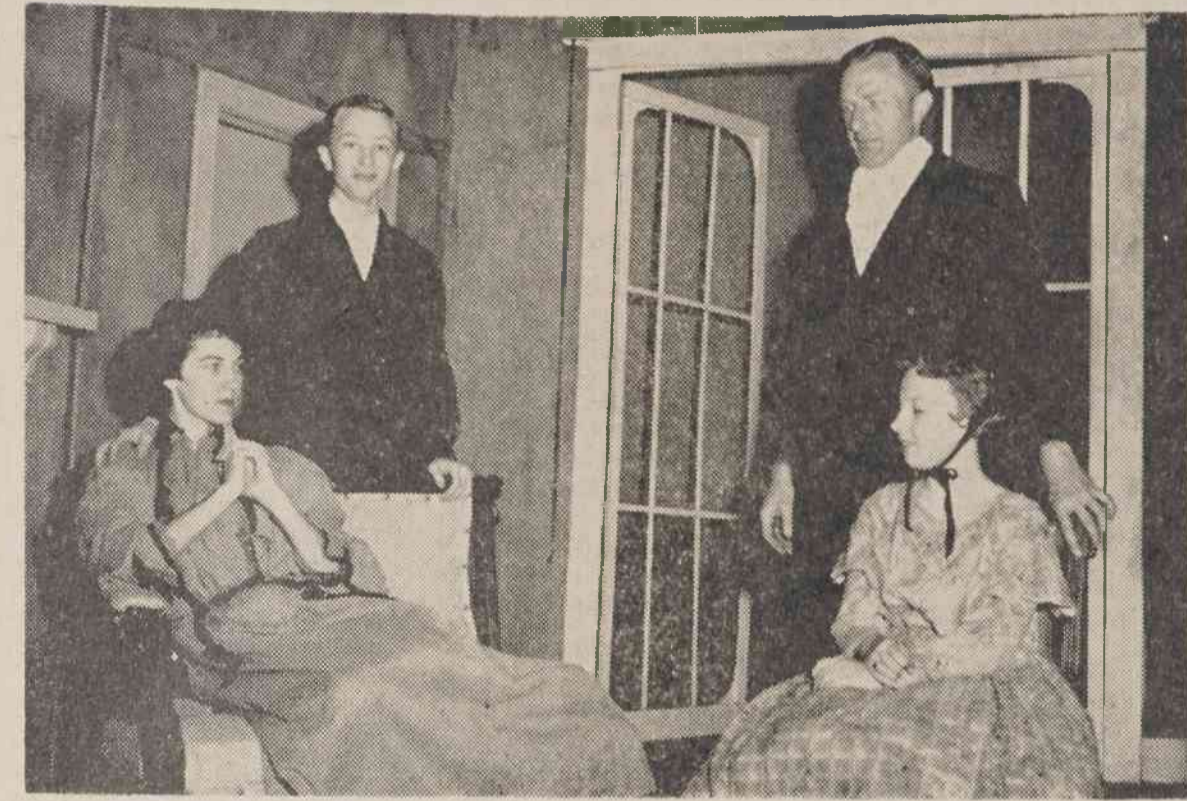

Dick Ullom, chairman of the social committee, pointed out that the dance is sponsored in the cooperative association, being paid for with money from the activity fee.

President Wenger Tells Current Faculty Changes

President Arthur D. Wenger announced this week that nine members of this year's faculty will not return for the 1962-63 session. Dr. Wenger reported that graduate work, retirement and acceptance of other positions were the reasons that these nine members of the faculty will not be returning.

Dr. William F. Troutman, professor in the department of social science here on campus, will be accepting a position in the same department at Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone.

Mrs. Doris Holsworth, a social science professor of English, is the only member of the nine who is retiring. After Mrs. Holsworth leaves Atlantic Christian College, she plans to enter the Peace Corps. Mrs. Hol-

HEDDA GABLER—The final Stage and Script production of the year, "Hedda Gabler" is now in rehearsal. Portraying main characters are, left to right, Margaret Walker, Paul Wilson, Guy Miller, and Hilda Griffin.

Walker And Miller Star In Ibsen's Hedda Gabler

On May 2 and 3 at 8 P.M. Stage and Script will present its final production of the season, HEDDA GABLER, by Henrik Ibsen, in Howard Chapel, with a most distinguished cast. The performances as usual are open free to the college "family", with a small charge for outside visitors, and no charge to former Stage and Script members whom we welcome back to our productions.

HEDDA GABLER is a remarkable study of the character of a selfish, hard-hearted woman, endowed with beauty, good taste and culture, but spiritually a monster. She is kept from fully expressing her evil genius only by cowardly fear of public opinion. Margaret Walker of Raleigh portrays the title role of Hedda Gabler, or really Hedda Tesman, with great finesse. Her foil and final conqueror, Judge Brack, is equally dramatic; Brack is played by Guy Miller with great subtlety. The other roles in the play are almost equally important, and the character of Eilert Lovborg, acted by James Barbour of Radio Station WVOT, has become as well known in the theater as Brack, and indeed is the aim of many young actors. Paul Wilson sympathetically presents Jorgen Tesman, the scholar caught in a marriage to a thoroughly incompatible mate. Hilda Griffin, on our stage for the first time, adds charm and quaintness to the role of Aunt Julianne, while Susan Puglia, also a new member of Stage and Script and a freshman, shows great promise in the character of Thea Elvsted. Berte, the family servant, played by Mary Lu Webb makes more real the life of the small town and the family.

The play takes place in Norway in the early 1900's. Costumes and settings represent the period and complement the atmosphere of the play. Ibsen begins his action near the climax and moves quickly through two days and a night to a very startling climax. The play begins with a golden morning in September in the house of Jorgen Tesman and his young bride, Hedda,

The Executive Board received and unanimously accepted the following petitioned nominations for Co-op offices: Sally Forbes, day student representative; Patricia Neal, co-op treasurer. The Board received a decline as candidate for Pine Knot editorship from Jerry Ridling. The board decided to approach the Publications Committee to submit a name(s) of qualified persons as candidates for yearbook editorship.

Mr. Robert Stone presented a resume of the recent Peace Corp Conclave at the University of North Carolina. Mr. Stone and Miss Patsy Hall attended this conference as official participants representing Atlantic Christian College. Any student desiring further information on the Peace Corps is invited to approach either Mr. Stone or Miss Hall on this subject.

The Dead Week committee presented the following procedure for Dead Week: Dead Week will be observed during the middle week of the fall and spring semesters of each academic year. Dead Week will begin on Monday at 8:00 A.M. and conclude on Friday at 12:00 P.M. During this period, no extra-curricular activities will be held by any ACC student organization. Except for intercollegiate athletics, no non-academic events involving student participation may be scheduled.

This new interpretation of Dead Week shall be placed in the statute books and given full explanation in the Bulldog Publication. Miss Peggy Bivons introduced the motion that the Constitution be amended by adding the phrase that "The Executive Board shall govern and enforce the policies of Dead Week."

Sigma Phi Epsilon Wins In Track Meet

Sigma Phi Epsilon won the annual intramural field and track meet held last Monday afternoon at Fleming Stadium. Highlight of the afternoon was a record broad jump of 19 feet, 8 inches set by Richard Rivers of Sigma Pi Fraternity. The jump smashed the old record of 18 feet, 4 inches.

After total points were tabulated for the meet, official readings gave Sigma Phi Epsilon 32.5 points and first place position. Headquarters grabbed second place with 25 points, and third and fourth places went to Sigma Pi with 20.5 points and Alpha Sigma with 20 points.

Individual winners of each event were as follows: Gene Herring, first place - 50 yard dash; second place, Randal Korngay; first place for 440 run - Danny Moore, second place Hatten Hodges; 100 yard dash winners, Rex Horne first, Rex Vick; Mile relay, Danny Moore, first;

See PLAY Page 3

See TRACK MEET Page 3

Activity Point System Reviewed For Students

To once more give the Student body official notification of the revised activities point system The Collegiate in cooperation with the Executive Board prints for all individuals and organizations the official point system format.

This system is the means of insuring fair distribution of campus offices and serves as a means of preventing students from overloading themselves with extra-curricular duties. There will be a maximum of thirty points per student regardless of grade point average, and no student will be permitted to petition the Executive Board for permission to carry more than thirty activity points.

President of Cooperative Association, 21 points; Editor of Pine Knot and Copeditors of "The Collegiate", 21 points; Business Manager of the Pine Knot, 15 points; Business Manager of "The Collegiate", 15 points; Secretary of the Cooperative Association, 17 points; Treasurer of the Cooperative Association, 20 points; President of the Campus Christian Association, 15 points; Head Cherr-leader, 15 points; National Student Association Coordinator, 12 points; Vice president of the Cooperative Association, 15 points; Presidents and Treasurers of Greek letter organizations (male), 17 points; (female), 10 points; President of the Women's Dorm Council, 17 points; President of the Classes, 15 points; Director of Campus Awareness Committee, 12 points; House President, 12 points; Cheer leaders, 12 points; Day Student Representative, 12 points; Members of the Social, Assembly and Concert and Campus Awareness Committees, 10 points; Inter-Fraternity Council president, 10 points; Women's Recreational Association, 10 points; President of Men's Dorm Council, 10 points; Bohunk Board Members, 5 points; All other class members, 5 points; President of Stage and Script, 10 points; Presidents of Science, Business, Ac-

See CHANGES Page 3

See POINT SYSTEM Page 3

COLLEGIATE AWARD—Collegiate staff members are admiring the first place certificate presented to the newspaper by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. From left to right they are: Nancy Weddle, exchange editor; Hatten Hodges, assistant editor; Carol Colvard, editor-in-chief; Alice Shepard, make-up editor; Jess Maghan, assistant editor.