

The Collegiate

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, DECEMBER 7, 1962

NUMBER TEN

"DON'T FORGET I'M THE BOSS, SAPPY"—The scene above is from "A Child's Garden of Curses", a one-act play written and directed by Mr. Cecil Willis, to be presented in Howard Chapel on Dec. 10 at 8:15 p.m. Two additional plays, "Quare Medicine", a play by Paul Green, and a mystery entitled "The Haunted Cellar" are also scheduled for the program.

Plays To Be Presented By Students In Chapel

Stage and Script will present three one-act plays on Dec. 10 at 8:15 in Howard Chapel. Two of these plays are being directed by students of Atlantic Christian College. The third play is written and directed by Mr. Cecil Willis, director of Stage and Script.

"Quare Medicine, a play by Paul Green, takes place in an old farmhouse in eastern North Carolina. The main characters are a father and his son who are both dominated by the son's wife.

Cast

The cast is composed of: Arthur Pritchard, Mary Lu Webb, Jim Barbour, and George Farr. The play is directed by Jim Burroughs.

"The Haunted Cellar", a mystery, deals with an old bookshop and what happens when strange noises are heard in the basement under the bookstore. The cast in order of appearance are as follows: John Grady, Jim Burroughs, Dorothy Wyman, Penny Kirk, Ruth Keleher, George Farr, Lynn Norfleet, Chris Lang, Marty Dixon, and Becky Brantly. The play is directed by George Farr.

"A Child's Garden of Curses", a vaudeville in one-act written by Cecil Willis depicts the colorful philosophy of a carnival barker.

Members of State and Script who have been in previous plays this year are: Arthur Pritchard, Mary Lu Webb, Jim Barbour, Jim Burroughs, and George Farr.

Christmas Program To Be Presented

The annual Christmas program sponsored by the students of the modern language department will be given on Wednesday night, Dec. 12 in Harper Hall Rec Room at 7:15 p.m.

Under the auspices of Sigma Pi Alpha Honorary Language Fraternity the French, German and Spanish Labs and the advanced classes will combine their talents to present reading, carols and a short play in the foreign tongues taught at Atlantic Christian.

ACC Students Participate In City Yuletide Program

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 11 and 12, the Wilson Chamber of Commerce, as part of its Wide-Awake-Wilson program will present a Christmas pageant on the steps of the Wilson County Court House at 7 p.m.

Wishing to place the true meaning of Christmas in sharper focus, the Chamber in association with the Wilson Ministerial Association began work on the pageant plans during the summer months. Rev. James G. Wallace, pastor of the First Christian Church, was named as general chairman of the pageant, with Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, President of Acc as chairman of the Script committee.

The pageant, "Music of Christmas," was written and is being directed by Mr. Cecil Willis, of the AC drama department. The author has tried to mold the more secular and the religious aspects of the Christmas season into a whole, through the use of music. The pageant is based on the music used in various lands and in different ages in the celebration of the Christmas season.

Mr. Don Henshaw, minister of music at the First Baptist Church, has served as music chairman and director of the fifty voice choir, which will provide the musical accompaniment for the dramatic action being portrayed on the stage. Mr. James Cobb and Mr. Charles Rakow of the ACC faculty have served as members of the choir, which has been selected from the various churches of the city.

The pageant will be presented on a special stage, which has been constructed by the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Bill Cobb Moss, Wilson merchant and designer, has designed a very colorful and atmospheric set showing the square of an old world town. Cecil Davis, George Farr and Bill Barden of Stage and Script have assisted in the construction of the setting.

Among the ACC students who will participate in the pageant are Mary Lu Webb, James Barbour, Zeb Jones, James Burroughs, George Farr, John Grady, Marty Dixon, Fred Barber and Robert Royall.

All the students are cordially invited to attend the pageant, which will be the largest event in the community's celebration of Christmas. It is hoped that the pageant may become an annual event in Wilson County's observance of Christmas.

Lamm Is Elected As New President Of Honor Society

The first meeting of the Golden Knot Honor Society was held on Thursday, Nov. 5. Mr. Eugene Purcell and Miss Ann Solomons, advisors for this year, presided during the election of officers. Janice Lamm was elected president, and Maurice Belanger was elected secretary-treasurer for this year.

One of the items of business discussed was the possibility of raising the eligibility standard to a Dean's List average.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, Dec. 13, 1962, at the Golden Weed Restaurant. The meeting will begin at 3:30 p.m. All members are urged to attend this important meeting.

Baptist Students Have Holiday Meet

Mary Ann Robertson, president of the local chapter of the Baptist Student Union, opened the December meeting Tuesday night with a devotional which emphasized the importance of keeping religion in our yuletide holiday. The symbolism of candles at Christmastime was then explained by Alice Shepard. "At Christmas", a poem by Helen Sickler was read by Miss Shepard to sum up the idea that Christmas should not be just a holiday for fun, but celebrating the birth of Christ. Judy Rose then led the group in Christmas carols.

During the business session, a treasurer's report was given and definite plans were made to extend an invitation to the East Carolina chapter of Baptist students to attend a supper meeting in February. The group also voted to ask a local pastor to become their pastor advisor due to the recent vacancy. Miss Jesse Daniel, faculty advisor closed the meeting with prayer.

Following the meeting, a social was held in the recreation hall of the First Baptist Church. Holiday refreshments were featured.

FELLOWSHIP

The College Fellowship Class, sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, will meet in the Bohunk at 9:30 Sunday morning. Coffee and donuts will be served. All students are cordially invited to attend.

Board Discusses Election Methods

The Executive Board, meeting Monday night, approved the contribution of a sum of money to a scholarship being established in memory of Rev. David Blackwood. It also discussed the practice of line-breaking in the cafeteria and heard a report from the ACC delegation to the State Student Legislature. In addition, the board approved changes in campus-wide election procedures which will facilitate elections and the counting of ballots.

The meeting was opened by a prayer for Rev. and Mrs. David Blackwood, who were killed in a recent aircraft accident. It was then suggested that the board contribute a sum of money, in the name of the student body, to a scholarship now being established in memory of Rev. Blackwood. It was mentioned that he had been very active in campus activities, serving as president of the student body during 1957-58. There was discussion concerning the amount to be donated, and the board decided upon 100 dollars as an appropriate gift.

Crowning Takes Place Tonight

The annual Atlantic Christian College Christmas Dance will begin tonight at 8 o'clock p.m. in the foyer of the Classroom Building. The main feature of the dance will be the crowning of "Miss Pine Knot" during the intermission. The "Embers" of Raleigh will provide the music for the gala affair.

Additional highlights for the evening will be the presentation of some dances by the Virginia Cannon School of Dance in Wilson. Tentative plans for this portion of the party include: Pat Woodard, and Carroll Wilson, performing a Tango Exhibition; Isabel Creech dancing "Honey Bun"; Jackie Rose, dancing a ballet number; Sarah Abbitt, demonstrating her talents with a fire baton number; Joan Stencil and Linda Ellis, teaming up to perform a Jazz number; and Linda Dawson and Carolyn Burt dancing to the song "Exodus."

Pine Knot Candidates

Candidates for the "Miss Pine Knot" and their sponsors are: Carlaine Richards, Phi Sigma Tau; Susan Pulgia, Sigma Tau Chi; Annette Banks, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Jenny Lou Dees, Junior Class; Lynn Osgood, Delta Sigma; Nancy Williamson, Sigma Pi; Pam Larmer, Pine Knot; Mary Lou Webb, Stage and Script; Linda Journigan, Omega Chi; Myoung Soon Yim Collegiate; Carolyn Sharpe, Alpha Sigma Phi; Eleanor Nelson, Phi Beta Lambda; Gina Allen, Men's Dormitory Association; Sandra Franklin, Woman's Dormitory Association; Susan Webb, Sophomore Class; Alease Willoughby, Delta Sig; and Carole Harper, Senior Class.

The dance is under the leadership of Miss Sarah Bain Ward, chairman of the faculty Social Committee, and Miss Carole Harper, an Acc senior, from Deep Run, N. C.

Committees set up for the party include: Refreshment Committee, Patricia Horne, chairman; Jenny Lou Dees, and Lorrie Tunnell; Publicity Committee, Virginia Hayes, chairman, assisted by Joyce Killingsworth; Decoration Committee, under the leadership of Carole Harper, aided by Linda Griffin and Nancy Britt; and the Band Committee consisting of Marilyn Hall.

Refreshments will be served.

There was a great deal of discussion over the problem of line breaking in the Cafeteria. It was suggested that offenders be brought before the Morale and Discipline Committee. The board decided, however, to place signs in the dining hall requesting students to refrain from the practice. If this measure does not prove effective, further steps will be taken.

The board heard a report from the five delegates who attended the State Student Legislature. Suggestions were submitted by the delegation for furthering the participation of Atlantic Christian College in the annual gathering.

Procedural rules for campus-wide

See EXEC BOARD Page 4

IFC Makes Plans For Spring Rush

The Interfraternity Council met Tuesday, Dec. 4. At the meeting plans were made for Rush Week. Also discussed were the possibilities of having house mothers for all fraternities on campus.

Joel Newton, Alpha Sigma Phi, will head Rush Week for the Spring semester. Eleanor Walter, Delta Sigma, was also named to work with Mr. Newton. It was decided that bids will be delivered personally by Mr. Newton. Dates for Spring Rush were deferred until the next meeting.

President Barnhill announced that the budget for the 1962 - 63 Greek Week should be approximately $3400. Plans for Greek Week are being handled by Mr. Wink Holland, Social Chairman.

The proposal for fraternity house mothers was brought before the Administrative Council and was enthusiastically approved. Further study on the plan, however, is contemplated.

Five Delegates Attend Student Legislative Meet

Atlantic Christian College sent five delegates to the 26th Annual State Student Legislature which met in Raleigh on Nov. 29, 30, and Dec. 1. The body held its sessions in the Capitol Building and followed the procedures of the North Carolina Legislature as closely as possible. The AC delegation consisted of Bob Stone, Joe Eastman, Charlie Brown, David Peebles, and Morty Leete.

The opening session was a joint gathering of the two houses on Thursday afternoon during which all preliminary business was dispensed with. This was followed by a short meeting of the separate houses for election of officers.

The legislative work began with the First Legislative Session Thursday night, and was continued until adjournment of the Fourth Session at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday. Among the bills considered by the body were a resolution favoring Federal aid to public education and a bill to supplant the state food tax with one on tobacco.

The final plenary session convened at 1:15 p.m., at which time final committee reports were submitted and awards were presented. Officers were elected for the coming year and several constitutional amendments were considered. Final adjournment of the legislature was at 5:40 Saturday afternoon.