

The Collegiate

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, OCTOBER 25, 1963

NUMBER SIX

SHOWN ABOVE ARE THE FOUR PREPS who will give a concert in the Atlantic Christian College gym on Monday night Oct. 28, 1963, at 8 p.m. Tickets will be sold up until 4:00 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 28, in the Classroom Building. Co-op members—students who pay activity fee, all Faculty, Administration, and Staff—can purchase tickets for $0.75. Guest tickets are available one per member and are on sale for $1.50. Tickets for the public are also $1.50. Students wishing to buy tickets are reminded that seating space in the gym is limited and are therefore urged to purchase their tickets while the supply lasts.

Atlantic Christian Campus To Be Scene Of Four Preps

The nationally famous recording artists, "The Four Preps," will appear in concert at Atlantic Christian College on Oct. 28.

Sponsored by the Concert and Assembly Committee of the college's Cooperative Association, the concert will be held in the ACC gymnasium from 8-10 p.m. The group will be performing primarily for the student body, a limited number of tickets will be available to the general public which may be obtained in the lobby of the college's classroom building, beginning Oct. 24, beginning at 2 p.m.

In 1957, when the Preps began recording for Capitol, they were the youngest vocal group on a major record label. Contrary to what seems to be the musical law of Nature for teen vocal groups, their career didn't end with one big hit.

Their first record, "Dreamy Eyes," was a success in 1957, but their million-selling "26 Miles" made them national celebrities in 1958. Soon to follow was "Big Man," which almost overtook "26 Miles" and helped snag The Preps' recognition as "Most Promising Vocal Group" of 1958 in the Cash Box Magazine poll.

There have been other hits — "Down by the Station," "Big Surprise," "Lazy Summer Night," "Got a Girl," and "Cinderella," (which they sang in the motion picture "Gidget") proving that The Preps are as popular as ever with the jukebox crowd.

But what has made The Preps a phenomenon is that they've grown up in show business — without passing through "that awkward stage."

By mid-summer of 1961, when their smash album, THE FOUR PREPS ON CAMPUS, became a national best-seller, it was apparent that The Preps had smoothly matriculated to college and adult audiences.

Mason Addresses AC Student Body

The guest minister for the Tuesday Chapel Service was the Rev. Mr. Samuel Mason. Mr. Mason hails from England where he is the minister of the Aigburth Vale Church of Christ in Liverpool. He is in this country as the fraternal delegate from England to the assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). For the past two months he has been observing the nature, structure, and function of the Christian Churches in Canada and the United States. The Rev. Mr. Mason graduated from Leicester College of Art and Technology and Overdale Theological College.

Rev. Mason's sermon dealt with the theme that man must stop and listen to the song of nature apart from the noisy and busy world he finds himself living in. The members of the Atlantic Christian College Community sat and listened as this English minister, with verbal thoughts, turned a college gym into a cathedral of quite beauty.

Phi Beta Lambda Holds Meeting

Phi Beta Lambda held its latest meeting at Parker's Barbecue on Wednesday, Oct. 16, 1963. Mr. Foy Goforth, vice - president of Branch Banking & Trust Company was the guest speaker. Mr. Goforth's informal talk was concerned with the various phases of banking which were of interest to the college student. He invited the business fraternity to visit the bank.

Last Year's Coop Budget Is Topic Of Exec Board

The Executive Board held its regular meeting Monday night in room 212 of the Classroom Building. Several pertinent campus issues were discussed.

Miss Eloise Reel brought up the question of the shortened Christmas Holidays this year and moved to have Dean Swindell investigate the matter. In a discussion of the matter it was mentioned that there are a minimum number of days the college must be in session and that to fall below might cause ACC to lose its position as an accredited school.

Mr. Robert Royall, National Student Association Co-ordinator, announced that there would be a fall NSA Regional meeting at State College in Raleigh on Nov. 15 and 16, and moved that Atlantic Christian send a delegation. The motion was passed by the board.

Miss Mary Louise Westphal, treasurer of the Coop, spoke to the board regarding overdrawn budgets of a few of last year's organizations under the Cooperative Association. She mentioned that certain groups on campus exceeded their budget by a considerable amount and that some of last year's bills were still unpaid. Lengthy discussion followed but action was postponed pending further information.

Dean of Students, Mr. Robert Bennett, moved to have President Maurice Belanger and Mary Louise Westphal bonded. The motion was passed by the Board.

Members of the Executive Board voted not to hold a meeting next week because of the "Four Preps Concert."

Play To Run Again Tonight

A lot of work by a few means enjoyment for many. That's the story behind Stage & Script's production of "Out of the Frying Pan," closing tonight.

The play, by Francis Swann, concerns six young hopefuls trying to break into the theatre via Arthur Kenny, theatrical producer, who lives downstairs. Their efforts to get him to see his play, which they rehearsed, are constantly upset by the arrival of Alfred Coburn, one of the girl's father, Mrs. Garrett, the landlady and the Cops.

Playing the young people are: Betty Lu Gray as Marge, George Farr as Tony, Rae Torrey as Dottie, Floyd Harnage, Grace Driscoll as Kate Ault, and Fred Barber as George. Penny Kirk plays the landlady, Bobby Royall plays Arthur Kenny, and Jim Burroughs plays Alfred Coburn. B. H. Marshall and Mr. Cecil Willis play the part of the two cops, Mac and Joe. Mr. Willis' portrayal of Joe, the dumb cop, promises to be one of the highlights of the play. Floyd Brown is the new State & Script stage manager.

The play is a fast moving, light comedy with plenty of laughs from the opening curtain to the close of the third act. This play is one of the laugh highlights of the 1963-64 season of Stage & Script.

Teacher Exams To Be Given

College seniors planning to teach school will be able to take the National Teacher Examinations on February 15, 1964. This date for the annual nation wide administration of tests for prospective teachers was announced today by Educational Testing Service, a non-profit agency which also prepares College Board and graduate school admissions tests.

More than 400 testing centers have been set up throughout the nation for the February 15 examinations. At the full-day session, future teachers may take the Common Examinations, testing their professional knowledge and general educational background, and one or two of the 13 Optional Examinations, measuring mastery of the subjects they expect to teach. Prospective teachers should contact the school systems in which they seek employment, or their colleges, for specific advice on taking the examinations, according to Educational Testing Service.

Bulletins of Information containing registration forms and detailed information about the February 15 administration of the tests may be obtained from college placement offices, school personnel departments, or directly from: National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N. J. Registration for the tests opens November 1, 1963, and closes January 17, 1964.

YDC Organizes on Campus Elects Slate of Officers

The Young Democratic Club of Atlantic Christian College held an organizational meeting Tuesday night in Room 205 of the classroom building. A spokesman of the organizational committee called the meeting to order and briefly explained the purposes of the meeting and the need for a Young Democratic Club on campus.

The purposes of the YDC include some of the following:

1. To interest young men and women in government on the National, State and local levels, and the problems faced in these areas.
2. To encourage young men and women to take active part in public affairs and politics, and to affiliate themselves with and become members of the Democratic Party.
3. To educate members in the principles and ideals of the Democratic Party and to preserve the liberal and constructive traditions of that Party.
4. To give members the opportunity to become acquainted with candidates seeking public office on all levels of government, and to provide a forum for young men and women to discuss important political, economic, and social issues.

5. To develop social contacts as well as political contacts between members of the Young Democratic Clubs throughout the State and Nation.

6. To provide useful and practical experience in government, etc.

After a discussion from the floor officers were elected. They are as follows: Pres. Robert Royall; 1st Vice Pres., Susanne Yeomans; 2nd Vice Pres., Stuart Lee; Sec.-Treas., Brent Hill, and the Co-college Organizers Tommie Hopkins and Jim Curtis.

Plans were also made for members of the club that wanted to attend the State Young Democratic Convention to be held in Charlotte on the weekend of Oct. 31.