C. L. HARDY UTT RY ATLANTIC CHRIST The Collegiate PUBLISHED WEEKLY ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, JANUARY 31, 1964 NUMBER TWELVE

ACC Prepares For Homecoming

Shown above are 15 of 16 pretty Atlantic Christian College coeds who are vying for the title of Homecoming Queen. They are, left to right sitting: Kathryn Webb, Sally Cox, Gina Allen, Doris Barefoot, Scarlett Mills and Vicki Joyner; standing: Reba Barefoot, Ann Thomp-son, Nancy Ferguson, Carolyn Cameron, Lamar Bolton, Pam Larmar, Becky George and Patsy Mizzelle.

Some 600 Parents Expected To Visit ACC Campus Feb. 1

states have made plans to visit the college campus and attend the Third Annual Parents' Day to be held Sunday, Feb. 2.

for the guests who will be attending the event from South Carolina, Indiana, Virginia, New York, Washington, D. C. as well as North the faculty and administrative staff Carolina. While visiting the campus they will have he opportunity to become better acquainted with the educational opportunities offered their children at Atlantic Christian.

Nearly 600 parents of Atlantic will hear greetings from W. R. Christian College students from six Redding, Sr., vice president of the Wilson Chamber of Commerce. The Atlantic Christian College Chorus un- THE COLLEGIATE. President Mauder the direction of James V. Cobb. Presiding will be Dr. Arthur D. A full day of activities are planned Wenger, president of the college. Open house will be held at the time parents will meet members of and visit classroom and dormitory facilities.

the day will be the President's Reception honoring the students and Registration will begin at 9:30 their parents to be held at the home of President and Mrs. Wenger.

Exec Board Airs Problems Concerning Publications

27 meeting gave special attention concerned a proposal that ACC join guests will hear selections by the to staffing problems confronting other colleges in a plan to obtain rice Belanger reported that THE COLLEGIATE was facing the posibility of suspending publication uncollege beginning at 2 p.m. at which less the problems were remedied Conference" would be held this immediately.

Alice Shepard, assistant editor, members of the faculty, Executive agreed to take over the editor's Board and administration respec-One of the main highlights of post with the aid of Executive tively. The purpose of the meeting Board members who will be re- will be to spell out problems which quested to write articles for future have occurred and means for imeditions. A special committee is to provement.

The Executive Board at its Jan. Dean Robert Bennett. The letter entertainment groups. Mr. Bennett and Mr. James Cobb will attend It was reported that a "Summit week. Those attending will be three

Class Reunions; Music Building To Be Events

Hundreds of Atlantic Christian 'ollege alumni from the southern and eastern regions of the nation re expected to return to their Alma Mater for Homecoming Day activiies slated for Feb. 1.

Registration for he event will bein at 9 a.m. The First Annual Alumni College, a new event for ılumni, will begin at 10 a.m. feauring lectures by chairmen of the 0 academic departments of te college.

The Alumni Business Luncheon is scheduled to be held in Hardy Dinng Hall at 12:30 p.m. Dr. Kermit Traylor of Winston-Salem will be guest speaker. Presiding over the luncheon and business session wll be Robert L. Dunn of Rocky Mount, president of the ACC Alumni Assoriation, Special music for the lunchon will be presented by the ACC Vocal Ensemble under the direction of James V. Cobb Jr.

A band and choral concert is slated at 2:30 p.m. During the oncert intermission the ACC Homecoming Queen will be crown. The queen will be chosen from among 16 pretty ACC coeds by members of the student body.

One of the main highlights of the homecoming will be the dedication of the college's new Music Building. The dedicatory address will be delivered by Arnold Hoffman, state supervisor of music. Presiding over the dedication ceremonies will be Daniel J. Hensley Jr., ACC chaplian. Special music will be furnished by the College Brass Ensemble and the ACC Chorus.

Class reunions will be one of the main attractions of homecoming exercises. Reunions will be held by the classes of '24, '29, '34, '39, '44, '49, '54 and 59. A reception for the class of '39, which will be celebrating its silver anniversary, is to a meeting concerning the matter. be held in the Faculty Lounge at 4:30 p.m. Reunion dinners will be held beginning at 5:30 p.m. and sorority and fraternity dinners will be held honoring guests at 6 p.m. Sports enthusiasts will have the opportunity to see the ACC Bulldog basketball team in action when they play Western Carolina at 8 p.m. at the Community Recreation Center. Special entertainment will be provided by the ACC Band at half-a.m. Students and their parents will attend churches of their choice in the city of Wilson during the morning and will be guests at a luncheon on the campus at 12:30 p.m. At a special program to be given during the luncheon the group will hear an address by Eugene G. Purcell, associate professor in the college's Department of Religion and Philosophy. They will be officially welcomed by Maurice Belanger, president of the student body and

Pre-Homecoming Dance Planned

A special Pre-Homecoming Dance has been planned for the evening of Jan. 31 in order to get Homecoming Day off on the right foot.

It promises to be a real swinging affair with music by "The Electras" of Rocky Mount. Dress for the evening will be informal. The dance will start at 8 p.m. and end at 11:30 p.m.

Sigma Tau Chi will serve refreshments at the concession stand.

Homecoming Dance Tonight!

New Students Get Briefing Thursday

New students on campus were formally welcomed in a "New Student" chapel held on Thursday, Jan. 30. Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college, explained the objectives and philsophy of Atlantic Christian College.

Dean Lewis H. Swindell Jr., discussed the academic responsibilities of a student. Maurice Belanger, president of the Cooperative Association, talked about the student's responsibilities and their role in campus government and affairs.

The approximately 125 transfers and new freshmen come from many states along the Atlantic Seaboard. Their majors vary as greatly as their classifications do.

Notice

Students whose parents have in ficated they will be attending Parents' Day activities on the camother activities of the day.

be appointed to investigate the situ ation in detail.

Sammy Jones, who recently conducted a cafeteria survey, indicated that 148 persons were in favor of special lines at lunch and 146 against. Fifty voted for special lines at night and 241 against. The majority of those wanting special lines at night indicated they wished a lighter meal.

Linda Griffin reported that voting for Homecoming Queen would be Jan. 29.

The ACC Student Handbook posed a major topic for the board. Richard surles moved to go into a committee as a whole to discuss the handbook problem. The discussion centered around the question of the purpose, value and persons responsible for the handbook. The present handbook was found inadequate and the question arose as to whether the administration or students should foot the bill.

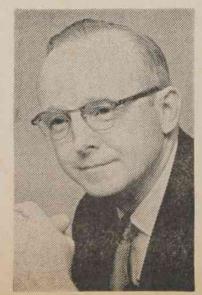

A letter from N. C. State Colpus Feb. 2 are invited to attend lege concerning block-buying of tickthe Parents' Day luncheon and the ets for entertainment groups was reported having been received by Surles moved that the board give time.

Final homecoming event will be its recommendation to a proposal the Homecoming dance which is to by Concert and Assembly to have be held in the Classroom Building. a concert given by the Lettermen The dance is scheduled to begin at on March 5. The motion carried. 10 p.m.

ACC Music Building Dedication To Feature Hoffman As Speaker

visor of music in North Carolina, will be guest speaker at the Febheld from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. on ruary 1 dedication of Atlantic Chris-

Arnold E. Hoffman, state super- tian College's new Music Building, The ceremonies have been scheduled to start at 4 p.m. as a part of the college's Homecoming Day activities.

> A native of Ohio, Hoffman became North Carolina's first state supervisor of music in 1950. His function is to develop and to supervise the music program in the public schools of the state. With a staff of three consultants, he instructs approximately 10,000 teachers each year in "what" and "how" to teach music to children. He works with colleges in an effort to bring theory and practice in the classroom together.

> In addition to the school program, the music department of the state cooperates with other state musicorganizations in the promotion of worthy projects in the field of music.