

"Echos of Israel" To Appear

Mary Westphal Resigns Position On Monday Night

Mary Louise Westphal resigned as a member of the Executive Board of the Cooperative Association Monday night at the Board's regular meeting. The Executive Board had requested Miss Westphal's resignation in action taken last week.

Miss Westphal stated that she would accept the Board's request because she was unable to discuss campus issues intelligently as a result of not serving on the various appointed committees.

Miss Westphal was asked to resign because she had frequently missed Board meetings when her services were needed.

Other Action

In other action the Board unanimously passed a motion to present Maurice Belanger with a gavel in appreciation for his service as Cooperative Association President this year.

The Executive Board dinner will be held at 6:30 o'clock on May 4 at the Holiday Inn.

A proposal to investigate the possibility of purchasing metal letters for the campus calendar also passed. Lloyd Owens, Freshman Class president, was appointed to investigate this matter.

Notice

Governor Terry Sanford, members of the Conservation and Development Board and several state officials will be guests at Atlantic Christian on Monday, April 27.

The C&D Board is holding its regular business meeting in Wilson April 27-29 at the invitation of State Senator Russell Kirby. Each ACC student is requested to be as courteous as possible to our guests as they tour the campus.

Dr. Jerome G. Tolochko Will Address Student Body During Assembly April 30

Dr. Jerome G. Tolochko, spiritual leader of Temple Israel at Kinston, will address the Cooperative Association during assembly on Thursday, April 30. Rabbi Tolochko, who lectures under the auspices of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, will discuss "Getting Along With People."

Rabbi Tolochko attended the University of Pittsburgh and received his rabbinic training in Germany. He served a congregation at Clarksdale, Miss. for eight years before coming to North Carolina.

Since 1946 he has served as an auxiliary chaplain at the Marine Corp Air Station at Cherry Point. The rabbi was a chaplain in the U. S. Air Force during World War 2, receiving a citation for meritorious and outstanding services.

Dr. Tolochko is president of the North Carolina Association of Rabbis, president of the Lenoir County Mental Health Association, Chairman of the Board of the Mental Health Division of the Health Department. He is also a member of the Salvation Army Board, the Kiwanis Club, the United Fund and the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

Rabbi Tolochko has traveled extensively throughout Europe, Asia and Africa and is the author of JUDAISM-PRAYER BOOK WITH transliteration; HEBREW FOR BEGINNERS, RELIGIOUS SCROLLS and CONCORDANCE TO THE APOCRYPHA.

While Dr. Tolochko was in Mississippi, he served as a prison chaplain, dean of the Mississippi Institute of Jewish Studies and as a student advisor to the University of Mississippi.

Six ACC Delegates Attend Conference At East Carolina

Last weekend, April 17-18, six delegates from ACC attended the National Student Association Carolinas-Virginia Spring Regional Conference at East Carolina College. The delegates were Maurice Belanger, Robert Royall, Richard Surlles, Cookie Wickham, Brent Hill, and Dwight Wagner.

Udall

The conference started with a banquet Friday evening, and then a keynote speech which was given by Congressman Morris Udall from Arizona. He is the brother of Stewart Udall, Secretary of the Interior. Congressman Udall spoke about many current world situations, and he predicted that the Civil Rights bill will come up for a vote sometime in June or July after a number of amendments have been added to the bill.

After the keynote address a reception was held at the home of Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, president of East Carolina College. Later the Kappa Alpha fraternity entertained the delegates with a dance at their special lodge.

Class Registration Date Is On Tuesday, April 28

Tuesday, April 28 has been set aside as Registration day. Students are to report to their advisors and fill in registration cards for both summer and fall. They are then to pick up class cards from each department in the classroom assigned to the department.

After a card for each class has been received, students are to report to the lobby of the classroom building and fill in class cards. Reporting to the Dean of Student's table is necessary for registration of an automobile, and non-resident students desiring dormitory accommodations for next year must secure a housing application form. Then students are to report to the Registrar's table.

Class Cards

Class admission cards and bills for summer school courses may be picked up from the Business Office during the week of final exams. Changes in summer school registration may be made during the dates of May 1, and May 9. After May 9, no changes may be made until June 9. Last day for changing summer registration is June 11. No pre-registration for the fall semester will be accepted after April 28, and changes in fall registration may be made during the dates, June 15-19, July 20 - 24, and August 22-25. No changes will be permitted except during the stated dates.

Library Fees

Students must clear all library fees, and those who are not in good standing with the library will not be permitted to pre-register.

Exam Schedule

Monday, May 18
8:00 - 10:00	Freshman	English	classes
10:15 - 12:15	2:00	TT	classes
1:00 - 3:00	3:00	TT	classes
3:15 - 5:15	11:00	TT	classes
Tuesday, May 19
8:00 - 10:00	General	Botany	classes
10:15 - 12:15	10:00	MWF	classes
1:00 - 3:00	8:00	MWF	classes
3:15 - 5:15	11:00	MWF	classes
Wednesday, May 20
8:00 - 10:00	9:00	TT	classes
10:15 - 12:15	3:00	MWF	classes
1:00 - 3:00	9:00	MWF	classes
3:15 - 5:15	2:00	MWF	classes
Thursday, May 21
8:00 - 10:00	Sophomore	English	classes
10:15 - 12:15	1:00	TT	classes
1:00 - 3:00	12:00	MWF	classes
3:15 - 5:15	General	Zoology	classes
Friday, May 22
8:00 - 10:00	12:00	TT	classes
10:15 - 12:15	1:00	MWF	classes
1:00 - 3:00	8:00	TT	classes
3:15 - 5:15	TBA & 4:00		classes

Saturday classes will have their final examinations on May 23, 1964.

All evening classes will have their examinations at the regular class meeting time during examination week.

Examinations for classes which do not fit into the above schedule will be arranged by the instructor.

Cookie A. Wickham Is Elected To Carolinas-Virginia NSA Post

Cookie A. Wickham, a sophomore at Atlantic Christian College, was elected Secretary of the Carolinas-Virginia Region of the U. S. National Student Association at the Spring Conference held on April 17 and 18 at East Carolina College.

Miss Wickham is presently serving on the Executive Board of the campus government as Senator from the Sophomore Class, and has been elected Secretary of The Cooperative Association of Atlantic Christian College for the coming year. She is also corresponding secretary of her sorority, Sigma Tau Chi, vice president of Christian Service Workshop, and a member of Sigma Pi Alpha Language Fraternity.

Miss Wickham is the daughter of Mrs. W. G. Wickham of Smithfield, and majoring in religious education.

ACC Concert Band To Perform Here

On April 30, at 8:15 in Howard Chapel, the ACC concert band will present its spring pops concert. Featured will be a trumpet trio playing Leroy Anderson's "Bugler's Holiday." The trio is made up of Becky Lennon, George Rickman, and James Williams.

The second half of the concert will feature the ACC Brass Ensemble which will play popular selections arranged for Brass Quintet. Both groups are under the direction of Neal O'Neal.

The Concert Band is made up of forty students most of whom are non-music majors. During the year the band has performed for many functions including Homecoming. They will help furnish the music for Commencement. The Brass Ensemble has also performed many times both on campus and off. A large audience is expected for the performance.

"The Echos of Israel," a group of Israeli singers and dancers, will present a concert on campus at 8 p.m. Friday.

They are the Four Ayalons, folk-singers and satirists, and the Elkayam Sisters, performers of modern Israel folk dances.

The Ayalons — Gad Mann, Eitan Lev, Baruch Nadav and Mordechai Yaron — have appeared on Ed Sullivan's TV program and at New York's Carnegie Hall.

Oshra and Tamar, the Elkayam Sisters, were trained in Israel and the U. S. and are experienced in all areas of dance, from classical to modern.

Variety praised the Ayalons, calling them "a quartet of bright young comics who sing, dance, mug and kid our local heroes with a deft touch."

The New York Post said "the Ayalons, all four handsome youths, have the voices and ability to click as a quartet of enthusiastic singers. Their comedy acts are a howl."

McComas Resigns Position At ACC

James E. (Jack) McComas, head basketball coach at Atlantic Christian College since 1951, has resigned to become golf professional and manager of the Wedgewood Country Club here.

McComas, who already had signed a new contract as head basketball and baseball coach for the 1964-65 school year, asked to be relieved of that pact in order to accept the new position. He will assume his new duties June 1.

"I kind of hate leaving Atlantic Christian, but this is the kind of thing I eventually wanted to get into," McComas said. "The 'q' (Wedgewood) want to grow and I'd like to grow with them."

Lawrence Gupton Is Scheduled To Present Program Of Songs Here

On April 27, at 8:15 p.m. in Howard Chapel, Lawrence Gupton, a part-time instructor in the AC music will present a program of songs. He received the Associate of Arts from Campbell College in 1958, and the Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Music from Westminster Choir School in Princeton, N. J.

Lawrence has appeared as a soloist with the Westminster Symphonic Choir and twice as tenor soloist with The New York Philharmonic Orchestra. He can be heard on the Columbia recording of the Beethoven "Choral Fantasia." He has also appeared in summer stock and in various performances in this area.

He is currently a voice instructor at North Carolina Wesleyan College, Minister of Music at the First Presbyterian Church in Rocky Mount and Director of the Rocky Mount Chorale.

