

Rabbi Tolochko Speaks To Group On Family Peace

Thursday, April 30th Dr. Tolochko, spiritual leader of Temple Israel in Kniston, spoke at the Sophomore, Junior Chapel Service at Atlantic Christian College.

Dr. Tolochko stressed the fact that, although getting along with neighbors, both in this country and abroad, is important, getting along with ones family is of primary concern. Before we can hope to obtain world peace, security and understanding, we must achieve family peace, security and understanding.

Rabbi Tolochko also spoke to many classes while visiting the campus. In the classes he stressed the fact that he, as a member of the reformed Jewish order, feels everyone has a right to worship as he best sees fit. He definitely does not condemn others beliefs, but respects all.

Before coming to Kniston, Dr. Tolochko served a congregation in Clarksdale, Mississippi, where he was prison chaplain, dean of the Mississippi Institute of Jewish Studies, and a student advisor to the University of Mississippi.

Rabbi Tolochko served as an Air Force Chaplain during World War II, and since 1946 he has served as auxiliary chaplain at the marine base in Cherry Point. He received his university and rabbinic training in Germany. He also attended the University of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Tolochko has traveled extensively throughout Europe, Asia and Africa. He is the author of Judaism-Prayer Book With Transliteration; Hebrew for Beginners, Religious Scrolls and Concordance to the Apocrypha.

Rabbi Tolochko lectures on college campuses under the auspices of the Jewish Chatautauqua Society, an organization which creates better understanding of Jews and Judaism through education.

JAMES WASHER

Dean of Men Named Here

Robert James Washer of Greenville, has been named dean of men and director of placement at Atlantic Christian College, according to Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college.

A native of Merrick, N. Y., he attended Campbell College in 1957-60 and received the B. S. degree from East Carolina College in 1963. He will be awarded the M. A. degree in Administration at East Carolina in June.

Washer will fill the post left vacant when Daniel J. Hensley asked to be relieved of the position in order that he might devote more of his time as chaplain and instructor in the ACC Department of Religion.

Washer will assume his duties at Atlantic Christian on Sept. 1.

New Officers Installed At Atlantic Christian

"In meeting the leaders that you have elected for next year, and from working with them in the Executive Board training sessions, I have become quite confident of their capabilities. Some are still 'green' and others are quite experienced in campus government, but they are all looking forward to serving you. Keep in mind that they have been elected to serve you, but that it is also your duty to put them to work."

Thus reflected Maurice Belanger, 1963-64 Atlantic Christian College Co-operative Association president, as he delivered his farewell speech during Blue and White Day last Tuesday, May 5. The observance is an annual affair for the presentation of achievement awards and the installation of the newly elected campus officers.

Elmer Lee Horne, a junior from Wilson who was installed as the 1964-65 Co-Op President, stated in his address before the Association that "One major project the Executive Board has worked diligently on and has entrusted to the new Executive Board is the revision and ultimate approval of a new Constitution of the Cooperative Association."

The new Co-Op president added,

"This past year the Constitution and By-Laws Committee of the Executive Board has prepared a revision of the constitution of the Co-operative Association. Some major changes that are related to the new Constitution are: qualifications of campus leaders, consideration of a new honor policy, and representation of the Board."

He declared, "On behalf of the 1964-65 Executive Board I hereby pledge our continued interest in the revision and approval of a more effective Constitution."

The Wilson Daily Times Publications Award was presented to Caroly Cameron for her service as editor of The Pine Knot. Paul Dickerman, representing The Times presented the award.

The Denny Essay Cup was presented to Maureen Ryan for her essay on "The United Nations and American Democracy." Robert P. Hollar of the Science Department of ACC made the presentation.

Oden Latham, Senior Class president, presented the college with a flag pole to be erected in front of the Administration Building.

The Rotary Cup, an annual award to the person with the best scholastic average for the preceding two semesters, was presented to Bill Nixon. H. M. Jeffries, Jr. representing the Rotary Club, made the presentation.

Gavels were presented to the four past presidents of the Class of 1964. Receiving the awards were Ken Thornton, David Peebles, Rex Horne and Oden Latham, Jr.

Campus officers installed during the ceremony were Lee Horne, Co-Op president; Richard Surlis, vice-president; Cookie Wickham, secretary; H. Stewart Raynor, treasurer; Corky Ecklin, Men's Dormitory president; Larry Strong, vice-president; Elwood Vann, secretary; Janice Cousins, Women's Dormitory president; JoAnn Morris, vice president; Cookie Hart, secretary; Betty Brinson, treasurer; Kathryn Webb, day student representative.

Also installed were Hubert Burden, Senior Class president; Gina Allen and Lyn Osgood, Senior Class senators; David Webb, Junior Class president; Kathy Traylor and Jimmy Edgerton, Junior Class senators; H. Stuart Lee, Sophomore Class president; Lucy Biggs and Ronnie Lambert, Sophomore Class senators; and Gordon Mercer, faculty representative; Dean Robert T. Bennett, by virtue of his position as Dean of Students will serve on the Executive Board; Brent Hill, Collegiate editor; Ann Thompson, Collegiate business manager; JoAnne Hardison, Pine Knot business manager; Sammy Jones, Campus Christian Association president.

REFLECTIVE MOMENTS — Pictured above (left to right) are Maurice Belanger, out-going Co-Op president, Elmer Lee Horne, incoming president, Maureen Ryan, Denny Essay Cup winner, Carolyn Cameron, "Wilson Daily Times" Publications Award winner, and Bill Nixon, winner of the Rotary Club Award.

Eugene Purcell Addresses Exec Board At Annual Dinner Meeting Here Monday

On Monday night the Executive Board held its annual dinner at the Holiday Inn. Attending the dinner were the members of the present Executive Board, the newly elected officers, and various guests.

Following the dinner a speech was given by Mr. Eugene Purcell, Associate Professor of Philosophy. Mr. Purcell spoke on the importance of the church related college and institution in our society today. He said that there were basically two dangers facing the church related institution. One was the fact that many people would like the Christian education to be hidden away from the world and its affairs. The other danger was that church related institutions were often associating themselves too closely with world affairs, and thereby, losing identification and purpose.

He went on to say that the true value of a church related institution is that if frankly recognizes that human beings have the right to fail. He said that every segment of the institution cares, but that the ultimate caring must rest with the students.

A farewell speech was then given by Maurice Belanger, out going Co - Op president. Mr. Belanger thanked this year's Executive Board to take on the many responsibilities of the accomplishments that had been achieved this year. He closed by challenging the new Board to take on the many responsibilities and to represent their con-

See PURCELL Page 4

New Scholarship Offered

An award honoring a North Carolina minister of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and his wife, Rev. David and Charlotte Blackwood, who lost their lives in an airplane accident in December, 1962, will be presented for the first time at Spring Commencement at Atlantic Christian College on May 24.

The "David and Charlotte Blackwood Memorial Award," consisting of a cash gift in the amount of $100, is to be awarded annually to the most outstanding church-vocation senior at Atlantic Christian who is a member of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). The award has been established with funds contributed by the couple's parents and their friends. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Blackwood, 803 Lorimer Rd., Raleigh, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Kennel, 1309 Phillip Ave., New Bern.

The young minister graduated from ACC in 1958 with the B. A. degree and from Brite College of the Bible, Texas Christian University with the B. D. degree. At the time of the accident Rev. Blackwood was pastor of the Eastway Christian Church in Charlotte.

Recipients of the award must be graduating seniors who plan to pursue graduate study the following semester at a seminary. The selection will be made by the faculty of the ACC Department of Religion and Philosophy based on academic achievement, religious influence, extracurricular participation, and potential for effective and creative leadership in the life of the church.

Commenting on the award, Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college said, "It would be difficult to find a more appropriate way to

See SCHOLARSHIPS Page 4

Senior Reminder

All seniors are urged to pick up their complimentary ticket to the Wilson Alumni Chapter dinner meeting to be held May 12, 6:30 p.m., in Evans Hall of the First Presbyterian Church. Tickets may be picked up at the switchboard in the Administration Building. Deadline for securing tickets to this Alumni-Senior function is this afternoon at 5:00 p.m.

Otis W. Coefield Is Named New Head Librarian At ACC

Otis W. Coefield of Greenville has been appointed Head Librarian at Atlantic Christian College, according to Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college.

A native of Bertie County, he attended Richmond College and East Carolina College where he received the B.S. degree in 1955. He was awarded the M.L.S. degrees by Emory University in 1957.

While at Emory he served as graduate library assistant and was reference librarian at Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1957-58. He has served as an assistant librarian at East Carolina College since 1958. He will assume his duties at Atlantic Christian on July 1, 1964.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Coefield, 5511 Alson Drive, Norfolk, Va., he is married to the former Miss Marilyn Hines of New York, N. Y. They have one child, a daughter, Gretchen, age 6.

O. W. COEFIELD