

The Collegiate

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, FEBRUARY 18, 1965

NUMBER SIXTEEN

Election Declared Null And Void

MARKING THE BALLOT—This was the scene last Tuesday as many ACC students voted on the newly revised Constitution and By-Laws. The election was later declared null and void. Shown here from left to right are Kathern Webb, Mary Nixon, Rod Russ, and Treva Strickland.

"Androcles And The Lion" Will Be Given By ACC's Stage and Script

By FRED BARBER

In the Preface to "Androcles and the Lion," George Bernard Shaw states, "I am no more of a Christian than Pilate was, or you gentle reader. . . I am ready to admit that after contemplating the world and human nature for nearly sixty years, I see no way out of the world's misery but the way which would have been found by Christ's will if he had undertaken the work of a modern practical statesman."

Shaw felt that Christ was quite a uniquely gifted man, but one who, unfortunately, missed his calling. Shaw felt that if Christ had become what we might call a political philosopher he would have been much more successful. Shaw states ". . . I must still insist that if Jesus could have worked out the practical problems of a Communist constitution, an admitted obligation to deal with crime without revenge or punishment. . . he would have conferred an incalucable benefit on mankind."

Shaw indeed felt that Christ had made no type of "incalucable benefit to mankind" because most of the people of the world were not Christians, no matter what they might claim.

With this somewhat unusual view of Christianity Shaw began to write his satire concerning the subject, "Androcles and the Lion." This play will be given by Stage and Script on February 25 and 26 in Howard Chapel. Shaw's beliefs on the subject of Christianity are masterfully concealed under an extremely amusing cover of comedy. Still the viewer can sense Shaw's views on Christianity by the naiveness of the

See PLAY Page 4

Frat Pledges

The following men have accepted bids and are eligible to pledge the four Atlantic Christian College fraternities: Alpha Sigma Phi — E. Lee Malpass, Larry Strong, George Harrison, Jr., Tom Smith, John R. Boykin, Jr., Doug Stalls, Billy Davis, Dan E. Christian, and William Edward Sheratt.

Sigma Pi — David Rackley.

Sigma Phi Epsilon — Mark Hancock, Stewart Kallman, Charles V. Bruton, Logan Whitehurst, Richard Adams, Bobby Owens, and John Dwyer.

Delta Sigma Phi — Ronnie Jernigan, Freddie Hale, Raymond Boykin, Marshall Malone, Mac Hayes, Tom Quinn, James Mobley, and Benny Weathers.

Constitutional Election Voted Illegal By Co-Op Executive Board; Section Election Set For Monday

An "emergency" meeting of the Executive Board was called at 4 p.m. last Tuesday in the lobby of the Cooperative Association Building for the purpose of discussing and ruling on a number of challenges to the legality of this week's voting on the Co-Op Constitutional revisions.

Challenges were made by Elmer Lee Horne, president of the Co-Op, Corky Ecklin and Paul Donnelly. The protests were recorded as follows: (1) the polls were left unattended while students continued voting; (2) the poll tenders were campaigning while holding the polls thus making the voting procedures illegal; (3) the voting done today was unconstitutional because an Australian ballot is secret and cannot change hands and remain secret.

Gets $600

The Executive Board opened its regular Monday night meeting with a report on the Concert and Assembly Committee from Robert Frazier. He presented a breakdown of expenditures by the Committee so far this year, and stated that they had added four additional events which had not been originally planned. It was for this reason he said that the Committee was requesting an additional $600 in order to cover its expenses. Stuart Raynor, treasurer, moved that the Board grant the additional $600 to the Concert and Assembly Committee, and the motion passed.

Dwight Wagner reported that the Model U. N. Assembly held at Chapel Hill last week was a success, and that much had been gained from the experience which he hoped would be reflected to the students of ACC. Attending the session with Wagner were Gina Allen, Cookie Wickham, and Janie McCormick.

Hubert Burden, senior president, reported that the ACC Sign Committee had met with state officials and approved the locations of the ACC signs. These signs will be placed at all points of entrance into Wilson, and will direct college visitors to the location of the campus.

After discussion of the several protests the Executive Board unanimously passed the following motion: "The Executive Board declares this Constitution Election null and void as of Wednesday, February 16, 1965 at 4 p.m. without consideration of the tabulation of the votes cast on this day. Therefore the polls will not be open for voting on Thursday, February 17, 1965."

Richard Surles, vice-president of the Co-Op, moved that the Executive Board accept a new ballot and to schedule a re-election for the Constitution and By-Laws to begin on Monday, February 22, 1965. The motion passed without dissent.

Mr. Gordon Mercer, faculty representative on the Exec Board, moved to suspend the rules of procedure of the Exec Board in order to permit a one-day election for this Constitution and By-Laws on Monday, February 22, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Results of the voting on Tuesday by members of the Cooperative Association on the revisions were 171 against and 166 in favor. A two-thirds majority of those voting would have been necessary for passage of the proposed revisions.

SAMPLE BALLOT

The following is a sample ballot that will be used in Monday's vote on the Constitution and By-Laws. This sample is printed here to give the students a chance to study the alternatives in voting on the revision:

CHECK ONE

- "I do hereby vote for accepting the total Constitution and By-Laws of the Co-Op Assoc. of ACC." (A vote here means that the voter does not desire any deletions from the original draft.)
- "I do hereby vote for rejecting the Constitution and By-Laws of the Co-Op Assoc. of ACC." (A vote here is simply a vote against the original draft necessitating no further voting.)
- "I do hereby vote for accepting the Constitution and By-Laws of the Co-Op Assoc. of ACC with marked deletion(s). (A vote here necessitates vote or votes for any one or more deletions below.)

CONSTITUTION—CHECK ONE

- "I vote for accepting with the inclusion of Article III, MEMBERSHIP stating to be a member of the Cooperative Association one must sign 'an academic honor pledge.'"
- "I vote for deletion of the inclusion of the signing of an 'academic honor pledge.'"

BY-LAWS—CHECK ONE FOR EACH ARTICLE

- Article I. OFFICERS OF THE COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
  - "I vote for accepting."
  - "I vote for deletion."
- Article II. THE EXECUTIVE BOARD
  - "I vote for accepting."
  - "I vote for deletion."
- Article III. BUDGETARY ORGANIZATIONS
  - "I vote for accepting."
  - "I vote for deletion."
- Article IV. CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS
  - "I vote for accepting."
  - "I vote for deletion."
- Article V. ACADEMIC HONOR POLICY
  - "I vote for accepting."
  - "I vote for deletion."
- Article VI. AMENDMENTS
  - "I vote for accepting."
  - "I vote for deletion."

GETTING THE POINT—In preparation for the rise of the curtain Mr. Cecil Willis points out a section of "Androcles and the Lion" to Fred Barber and Ray Hewitt. The play was written by George Bernard Shaw, and will be presented on Feb. 25-26.

Dean's List Released

One-hundred and forty Atlantic Christian College students earned places on the Dean's List for academic achievement during the fall semester of the current academic year, according to Dr. Lewis H. Swindell Jr., dean of the college.

Students named were: Jerry Ashworth, Finly, Ind.; Carrie Abernathy, Wilson; Harold G. Allen, Lillington; Virginia Allen, Farmville; Frances Allred, Goldsboro; William G. Alston Lillerton, Diana Anderson, Mullins, S. C.; Aletha Arnold, Lou- isburg; Walter D. Bailey, Kenly;

Ann Carol Baker, Wilson; Barbara Barefoot, Wilson; Charles F. Bennett, Aurora; Virginia Kirby Ball, Lucama; Eleanor Bizzell, Kinston; Lucy Margaret Bolton, Rockingham; Mrs. Catherine M. Boyette, Wilson; Stephen E. Bradley, Wilson; James A. Britt, Dunn.

Also, Mrs. Patricia S. Britt, Wilson; Sandra Bunn, Sims; Judy Casey, New Bern; Jerry Carter, Wilson; Woody Caton, New Bern; Elizabeth Clayton, Fayetteville; James H. Coile, Lucama; Hampton K. Con-

See DEAN'S LIST Page 3