By BILL SMOAK

Freddy Hale, a senior at ACC, has been chosen captain of the 1966 baseball team. Hale, a graduate of Fike High of Wilson, has been a letterman for three years. Last year Hale was elected to the all Carolina Conference team. He will provide excellent leadership.

Hale was a member of the 64-65 basketball squad and when injuries troubled the Bulldogs this past season he suited up for three games.

Hale a PE major at ACC was on the Dean's List this past semester and was elected to Who's Who. Socially he is a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

Upon graduation from ACC He plans to pursue his masters at the University of North Carolina. For this work he has been awarded a graduate assistantship.

Freddy Hale is an outstanding person and will be a fine leader. Day Students to a 64-62 come Bill Bootwright sparked the from behind victory over Hackney Hall for the intramural basketball championship with 19 points.

The score at halftime favorite the Dorm 35-27. This margin was short lived as the Day Student charged back in the second half. Day Students put in 15 straight points to take the lead 42-39. The score remained close through out the remaining minute of the game. Glenn White's free throw with 1:10 remaining brought the Dorm into a tie at 62-62. The Day Students held the hall until 15 seconds remained and at this time Pinkie Price drove the lane and put up the winning basket. Price completed the evening with 6 points. Jack O'Neil was the only other Day Student in double figures with 12 points.

Paul Nunn with 24 points captured scoring honors as he lead the Dorm attack. James Britt and Jim Royster followed Nunn in scoring with 13 and 10 points apiece.

Bootwright was a fine example of a pressure ballplayer as he lead the Day Students in their second half comeback. He can put out. Bob Gilmore and Tom Peterkin. The officials for the championship game gave in a fine performance.

Nick Serba and Robert Covington have been chosen to the Carolina Conference All Academic team. These ACC basketball players have earned this recognition with hard work on the basketball floor and in the classroom. Bulldog manager Sonnie Floyd could serve with this team as he has a Dean's List aver-

ge. "How sweet it must be."

ACC students who have not attended the Wrestling matches in the school gym have missed a fine event. The championship in each division will be decided this week. The matches have been so outstanding that "Championship Wrestling" on Channel five may sign a wrestler or two.

Little is to be reported on the Spring Sports at ACC. All teams have been working out as better weather has been prevailing. The days of the little man in basketball are not gone. Proof of this is the selection of the Atlantic Coast Conference All Tournament team. Diedenbach and Mattocks of NC State and Vacendak and Verga of Duke were chosen to the team. All are under 6'2. Lewis, 6'7, of Duke was the other selected.

Matney said, "is that it is too religious." He went on to say that religion was probably caught up too much with itself to be really effective in today's world. He also said that the trouble with theology in many cases is that it is anti-world.

Topping off the evening was a question to Matney about his opinion concerning required chapel. He said that he saw no problem with compulsory religious chapel as long as the college gives a person the opportunity to question, discuss, and search for the answers to his questions.

The fine arts auditorium also is proposed, but no formal plans for the facility have been announced.

Trustees of the college approved the $3.5 million, 15-year development program in October of 1961. building additions and upgrading faculty are the two major aims of the campaign.

The open Basketball season saw an exciting play-off tournament. Plenty of basketball action was on the agenda.

On March 1 the Sophomores won a 34 to 15 victory over the Day Students Plus. This was the final game of the season before the play-offs. B. C. Reeves had no trouble finding her basket as she scored 22 points for the winner. The losing Day Students saw Maggie Griffin hit for 9 points and Nancy Pittman scored 5 points. This was a good game with the Sophomores in full control of the game.

The first game of the play-off tournament was played Wednesday night, March 2. The Drifters won a real "squeaker" from the Independents 34-33. This was one of the best action-packed games of the complete open tournament. Betty Sue Garner scored 13 points and Dianne Massengill hit for 11 points each for the losing Independents. This was a fine display of basketball action.

On Thursday night, March 3, the second round saw the Sophomores defeat the Day Students. The final tally was 26 to 14. B.C. Reeves scored 17 points for the Sophomores. The Day Students high scorer was Maggie Griffin with 10 points.

The victories by the Drifters and Sophomores, enabled them to meet for the championship round on Monday, March 7. The Sophomores obtained a slight margin and were able to maintain throughout the complete game. The final score was Sophomores 23 to the Drifters 20. B. C. Reeves hit for 10 points and Joyce Hopkins hit for 6 points in their championship victory. Diane Massingill and Betty Sue Garner each hit 8 points in their losing efforts.

The members of the champion Sophomore team are B. C. Reeves, the captain Joyce Hopkins, Linda Bryant, Kay Sorrell, Faye Lane, Kae Miller, Brenda Toler, and Sherry Gardner. Congratulations to our new champs — they deserved it after a well played season.

More basketball action is on tap with the start of the closed tournament. This journey will be of single elimination nature. The schedule is on March 8. The Independents go against the Freshman. The Tri Sigma team will play Delta Zeta on March 9. On March 10, the winner of the Delta Zeta - Tri Sigma match will play the Day Students. The Sophomores will match the ability of the winner of the Independent - Freshman
