Fraternities Begin Rush

WHAT IS RUSH?

The Interfraternity Council sets certain dates during which the fraternities rush their choices for future fraternity brothers. The independants also rush for the fraternity of their choice. This rushing is just like going out for a ball team, except in rushing one quality or skill is not what is looked for. Fraternities look for a number of qualities in the individual. These qualities fall into a few basic categories: scholastics, athletics, appearance, interests, and various personality characteristics. An independant should consider the following in choosing a fraternity to rush: the general reputation of the fraternity as far as group characteristics, the scholastic standing and attitude, the brotherhood or unity evidenced, the social practices, the athletic accomplishments or aims, what it has done for ACC, the house itself, the size of the brotherhood, and the possibilities for individual development; all according to what he wants from a fraternity.

WHEN IS RUSH?

Formal Rush is from Monday, October 10 through Thursday, October 13 at 7:00 to 9:30 p.m. No definite date has been set for Open Rush at this time.

WHAT IS FORMAL RUSH?

The potential rushees go to each of the four fraternity houses, sign the registers, talk to the brothers, and stay until closing time if they wish. The houses will be open at the aforementioned times. Rushees must visit all four houses within this time and personally sign all four registers in order to be eligible to receive any bids.

WHAT IS OPEN RUSH?

Open Rush is designed primarily for the man who did not rush the fraternity of his choice during formal rush. If he had not decided on a fraternity, or

THE PULPIT PLAYERS — The Dramatic Association of the Gordon Street Christian Church of Kinston, will present a religious satire, "For Heaven's Sake," on Thursday, Oct. 13, in Howard Chapel at 8 p.m. The Pulpit Players, under direction of Dan Bagatelle, was organized at Gordon Street Christian Church in 1963. Since that time, the players have presented many plays of religious and philosophical themes, both to churches and other organizations in and around Kinston.

Dr. Arthur Larson of Duke Speaker on United Nations Day

It was announced at Monday's Executive Board meeting that on U. N. Day, October 25, Dr. Arthur Larson, a member of the Duke Law Faculty will be speaking at ACC. Dr. Larson will be here in connection with United Nations week which is being observed at ACC. Along with Dr. Larson's speech the SGA is planning to have several other programs dealing with the U. N.

Dwight Wagner, SGA President, reported that he had met with Dr. Wenger and Thomas J. Hackney, chairman of the Board of Trustees, last Saturday. Wagner stated that this meeting was for the purpose of attempting to bring about a better relationship between the students and the trustees. Wagner said he had invited Mr. Hackney to attend one of the Executive Board Meetings and he agreed to attend the October 17 meeting.

Wagner also reported that the President's Council held its first meeting of the year last week, with the main topic of discussion being how to improve community relations. He also noted that an SGA newsletter will be put out this week and will continue to be published throughout the coming year. Its main intention will not be to tell what has been done in the Student Government, rather why it has been done.

Under new business a question came up which nobody was able to answer. The question was "Who is a Day Student." It was the result of a motion by Day Student Senator, Clay Brown for the purpose of clarifying who is a Day Student. After a long discussion the motion was withdrawn in order that the whole matter could be given further consideration.

In other business an amendment to the SGA Rules of Procedure was passed. This amendment makes it possible for the Student Coordinator to present motions to the Board.

Barry Havens, Student Coordinator, gave a report on the State Student Legislature Interim Council meeting that was held at Chapel Hill last Sunday. The meeting dealt with the State Student Legislature which will be held March 1-3 in Raleigh. Havens said it is hoped the SSL meeting can be held in the old capitol building. However, as of now this is not definite. Havens also noted that auto insurance and minimum requirements for psychologists and psychiatrists serving in state mental institutions are two areas in which study is being done in considering a bill for SSL.

Upon being questioned as to what plans the IFC has for the coming year Al Langley stated that work is being done toward bringing several national representatives of ACC fraternities to the campus for the purpose of helping the fraternities gain some ideas on how they can improve relations with the community, faculty, and administration.

Vicki Joyner reported that the Pan Hellenic Council is planning to build a garden behind Hilley Hall. This will be a Pan Hellenic Garden.

Attending the Executive Board meeting for the first time were Freshmen Class President David Finch and Senator Al Cooke. They were elected to their posts only last week.

Selective Service

Applications for the November 18 and 19, 1966 administrations of the college qualification Test are now available at Selective Service System local boards throughout the country.

Eligible students who intend to take this test should apply at once to the nearest Selective Service local board for an Application Card and a Bulletin of Information for the test.

Following instructions in the Bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately in the envelope provided to SELECTIVE SERVICE EXAMING SECTION, EDUCATIONAL TESTING SERVICE, P. O. Box 988, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. Applications for the test must be postmarked no later than midnight, October 21, 1966.

According to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test for the Selective Service System, it will be greatly to the student's advantage to file his application at once. By registering early, he stands the best chance of being assigned to the test center he has chosen.

Construction To Add 2600 Square Feet Of Space

By CHARLES WOLFE

For several months there have been rumors circulating as to what is going to be done concerning the enlarging and remodeling of C. L. Hardy Library.

In an attempt to find out some facts and in order that the student body might be informed as to what is being planned the COLLEGIATE recently interviewed the Librarian, Mr. Coefield.

Mr. Coefield pointed out that in 1964 ACC received two Foundation Grants totaling $50,000 to be used for the purpose of remodeling and enlarging the present library facilities. Plans for the construction are now being drawn up by the architect, Atwood Skinner, and it is hoped construction will begin by Christmas. The construction period would be expected to last until after the Spring term of school has ended. This construction is expected to add 2,200 square feet of floor space to the library, and another 400 square feet will be added to this with the conversion of what was previously office space for the Physical Education Department into library space.

Coefield added that the construction would consist of exterior changes with an additional floor being added to the present reading room and the false ceiling in the lobby being replaced by a floor. Coefield also stated that at one time consideration had been given to converting the attic to library use. "There is a great deal of unused space there," said Coefield, "but it was decided there were not enough funds available to carry out the project."

When the construction is finished the reference collection will remain where it is. There will be a reference librarian and the room will be broken up into alcoves. There will also be steps in the reference room leading to the second level.

The new area on the second floor will contain all bound periodicals, plus current issues of magazines. The area above the present reading room will not be a reading room as such, rather there will be free standing shelves containing books in the center of the room with approximately 50 study carrels placed around the walls. The basement area that is being converted to library use will consist of work rooms for the library staff and storage space for seldom used books.

Prof. Hemby Recognized

Dr. James B. Hemby, Jr., associate professor of English here at ACC was named an outstanding young man of America in the 1966 edition of the magazine of that name. A native of Ayden, N. C., Dr. Hemby graduated from ACC in 1955 with an A. B. in English. He did three years of graduate work at Vanderbilt University and in 1950 received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from that institution. After attending Duke University he came back to ACC in 1959 as Director of Admissions. In 1962 Dr. Hemby left ACC once again to attend T.C.U. and received his M. A. in 1954, and his Ph.D. in English in 1965. Dr. Hemby taught as a graduate teacher at Memphis State in 1964-1965 and during the summer of '65 Dr. Hemby once more returned to ACC and became a member of our English Department.
