

Hackney Addresses Exec. Board

ACC Adopts New Policy

The administration has announced that because of a change in the policy of the college those students who entered this fall or who are re-admission students come under a new academic system. Therefore those students will no longer be under the possibility of academic suspension after the fall semester of each year. Academic suspension will only come at the end of each Spring semester. That means those students entering this year or in future years will be guaranteed of a year's stay at ACC.

However, those students who are under this system will also be subject to another new rule. This rule states that on the basis of their cumulative records at the end of the spring semester, the following students be declared ineligible to enroll for the following fall term.

(1) Those students who have attempted 27-44 semester hours and who have a grade point average of less than 1.40.

(2) Those students who have attempted 45-61 hours and who have a grade point average of less than 1.66.

(3) Those students who have attempted 62-91 hours and who have a grade point average of less than 1.86.

(4) Those students who have attempted 92 and over hours and who have a grade point average of less than 2.00.

Further, that a student who is ineligible under the minimum requirements for continued enrollment may attend the first term of summer school. If he is successful in raising his grade point average to the required average, he may enroll for the following semester. A student who does not meet the minimum grade point average may attend the second term of summer school, but he may not apply for re-admission to the college earlier than the following spring semester. The administration also announced that D's are no longer transferable to ACC.

Mr. Thomas J. Hackney, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, spoke to the Executive Board meeting last Monday night. This was the first time in the history of the college that a member of the Board of Trustees has met with the Executive Board. Mr. Hackney explained to the Executive Board the basic structure of The Board of Trustees and how he felt relations between the Trustees and students can be improved.

Explains Duties, Responsibilities Of Trustees

Thomas J. Hackney, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, was guest speaker at the Executive Board meeting this week. Mr. Hackney's presence was an attempt by the Board and the President of the SGA to begin improving relations and communications between the Trustees and Students.

In speaking to the Executive Board Mr. Hackney first described the make-up of the Board of Trustees, their areas of responsibility, and type of actions they are allowed to take.

One of the recent changes in the Board that Mr. Hackney mentioned was the formation of three committees within the Board itself. These are the development committee, the education committee, and the finance committee. Mr. Hackney said that the formation of these committees will help to create more informed trustees, thus better trustees. The purpose of these committees, said Hackney, is to make recommendations to the entire body concerning the areas in which they are concerned. An example which Hackney gave to illustrate their purpose, was a proposal that has been made by one of these committees to establish a new Math Department. As it now stands the Math and Science departments are one.

The rest of the meeting consisted of questions and general discussion, during which Mr. Hackney pointed out that the Trustees are going to do all they can to back the administration, and that they prefer to have the administration operate the college as far as disciplinary actions are concerned. He said that there are hardly any disciplinary actions that even come before the trustees. He said that what does come under the Board is any major policy change that would be made by the college.

He also noted that the college has an $800,000 endowment fund, but stated that this is really not adequate. He stated that in actuality the college is not well-off financially. He also stated that even with this lack of funds

Procedure For Sorority Rush Given For Prospective Rushees

Are you planning to rush a sorority? If so, this is the proper procedure, as stated in detail in the material distributed to prospective rushees at convocation. Sunday afternoon, October 23, at two o'clock, each sorority will have a tea. It is IMPERATIVE that all rushees attend EACH of the three teas. The dress is Sunday clothes. Each group of rushees will rotate from one tea to the other, spending an hour at each. Delta Zeta will meet in the Chapter Room of the Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity House on West Nash Street; Phi Mu will be in the parlor of Harper Hall; Sigma Sigma Sigma will use their House on Vance Street. Each rushee is reminded that she MUST sign the guest list at each event she attends, to be eligible to rush.

Tuesday night is Informal Rush. Again, each rushee must go to all parties. Delta Zeta will be in the Harper Hall Recreation Room; Phi Mu will be at the Alpha Sigma Phi House on Rountree Street; Sigma Sigma Sigma, in the Sigma House. Dress is school clothes.

Thursday night is the Formal Rush Party. The rushees should attend ONLY the party of the sorority of her choice, from which she must have received an invitation. Rushees should wear formal clothes.

After the Formal Rush Party, the rushee must go to the Harper Hall Recreation Room to fill out her preference card, putting her first, second, and third choices. The bids sent out from the sororities will then be matched with the preference sheets of the rushees. A rushee will receive only one bid. She may accept or reject it. Open rush will begin immediately after bids are sent out, and any girl may participate. If there are any questions, take them to a member of the Pan Hellenic Council. These are: Vickie Joyner, Lynda Driver, Brenda Kennedy, Laura Wolfe, Sara Patterson, Margaret Thomas, Dale Grissom, Nancy Swanson, Jill Matthews, Doris Horne, Frances Gladson, and Dean Sarah B. Ward.

NOTE: If there is any girl who did not fill out data sheets, she may still rush; she should see one of the above Pan-Hell members immediately.

Tri Sig Sorority Has Inspection

On October 13, 1966, Mrs. Mary Hastings H. Page, National Panhellenic Conference Representative of Sigma Sigma Sigma visited the Sorority's Gamma Xi Chapter at Atlantic Christian College. In keeping with Tri Sigma's plan for triennial national inspection, Mrs. Page, of Douglaston, New York, spent several days meeting with efficient chapter operation and to re-emphasize traditional interfraternity cooperation. The keynote of the inspection pointed out the necessity for continued sorority leadership intellectually, socially, and morally.

On Friday evening, while Mrs. Page was visiting, Mr. and Mrs. William Peabody of Wilson entertained with a cook-out at their cabin. Mrs. Peabody is financial advisor to the sorority. Also attending the cook-out were Mr. and Mrs. John Glover of Wilson. Mrs. Glover is alumnae advisor. Saturday night preceeding Mrs. Page's farewell speech to the sisters of the sorority, a buffet supper was served. The highlights of the supper was to recognize Tri Sigma's first birthday as being a national sorority. Tri Gamma Xi chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority was the first of the three sororities on Atlantic Christian College campus to pledge a national sorority. Before the birthday cake was cut, the alumna signed a charter starting an alumna chapter in Wilson. The alumna that signed were Mrs. Mickie Dunn, Mrs. Nancy Peabody, Mrs. Nan Herndon, Mrs. Tootie Corbett, and Mrs. Myrtle Swaine, all of Wilson.

THE BETTER SIDE — With the beginning of each new school session, there is the usual cry of Upperclassmen as to how bad the new freshmen are. Well there's two sides to every story and pretty Carmen Haddock is a "beautiful" example for the Freshmen's side.
