

Conduct Rule Changed By Trustees

NSA Topic Of Concern

The National Student Association and its relationship to the Central Intelligence Agency was a subject of discussion at this week's SGA Executive Board meeting.

SGA President, Dwight Wagner, stated that he felt the Board needed to ask how this affects students at ACC. ACC is a member of NSA, but as was stated by Wagner the relationship has been limited for at least the last two years. "We are on their mailing list and we take advantage of certain of their publications," said Wagner.

In looking at NSA and the controversy that now surrounds this organization Wagner could see no reason why ACC should change its status with NSA. However, he did state that there had been a weakness of NSA leaders in the past in not informing the colleges about such situations as the one involving the CIA. He also stated that all relationships with the CIA have now been cut by NSA.

Barry Havens, Student Coordinator, reported that ACC will be sending a delegation to the State Student Legislature on March 1, 2, 3, 4. The bill which ACC will present to the Legislature is directed at improving the ratio of qualified medical and rehabilitation personnel to that of patients in mental hospitals in North Carolina. The delegates who will be going to SSL are: Barry Havens, Dwight Wagner, Ray Winstead, Jerry White, Ben Casey, Kay Antone, Connie Brantley, Judy Youngblood, David Finch. The Board appropriated $350 to pay the expenses of the delegation.

On March 12, 13, 14, 15, officials from the Southern Association will be on campus for the purpose of making a reevaluation of the college. This is the second time in its history that the college has been under such a study by the Southern Association, according to the Dean of Students who reported on this matter. He stated that the first was in 1956. He also stated that the officials would hold a lunch-

Resolution On Vietnam

At the monthly meeting of the Christian Service Workshop a resolution was adopted on the conduct of Christians in time of war. Sam McPhail, worship chairman, stated "that the resolution was passed in the interest of clarity, hoping that as it was read by churchmen and interested persons, it would stimulate frank and forthright discussing concerning the real issues in warfare." The resolution received unanimous approval. The resolution is as follows:

We the members of the Christian Service Workshop of Atlantic Christian College enter the following statement in the interest of clarity and conscience in a complex and contradictory world situation.

Whereas we have observed the frequent public statements made by laymen and professional clergymen supporting the current hostilities in Southeast Asia on the basis of defending the Christian faith.

WHEREAS we have heard the Bible quoted as an authoritative basis for the legalized murder of warfare, and,

WHEREAS we have noted the tendency to equate the existing political systems with Christianity and the sanctioning of the

The 3-D's will present a unique concert at 8 p.m., March 1, in the Wilson Gymnasium. The show, entitled the 3-D's Present the 3-R's, will feature comedy, drama, music, and rhythm. The versatile trio records for Capitol and has been called by the company "one of the most creative groups in years."

"The Grass Harp" To Be Staged Here

Stage and Script opens their 50th season in Howard Chapel March 2 and 3, with a comedy fantasy, the GRASS HARP Organized in 1917, Stage and Script is the oldest continuous running organization at Atlantic Christian College.

Truman Capote, the author of the GRASS HARP, has recently published IN COLD BLOOD, which has enjoyed the best seller

Advance Fee Due April 15

The administration has announced that the date for paying the advance fee of $50 by students, either new or returning, who plan to return in the fall has been changed to April 15. This payment is non-refundable, and will be applied to the student's account at the time of registration.

A list of students eligible to continue enrollment will be placed in the Business Office. If a student's name is not on this list he will not be allowed to pay the advance fee. If a student finds that his name is not on the list and he plans to continue next fall then he needs to see Mrs. Joyner or Mr. Daniell.

Students who are planning to be only evening students taking less than 12 hours are not required to make the payment. However, students who are now part-time or evening students and who are planning to continue in the fall and who plan to take over 12 hours must make the payment.

Students on the new system who make the advance payment and then fall out at the end of the first term of summer school will have the payment refunded.

Women dormitory students on the old system who become academically ineligible at the end of the spring semester will lose their space in the dormitory. The $50 advance payment will also be refunded in these cases.

If a student does not make the advance payment he will not be permitted to pre-register for the fall semester or summer list for months. Other books by Capote include OTHER VOICES, OTHER ROOMS and BREAKFAST AT TIFFANY'S.

The GRASS HARP was produced on Broadway at the Martin Beck Theater in 1952, as the first dramatic work of Capote. Sam Brooks Atkinson (New York TIMES): "A beautiful play. . . the most creative contribution of the season."

According to Atkinson, "In the first section of the play Mr. Capote is writing with an original, off-beat humor that seems completely irresponsible. It has been gathered out of his vagrant memories and turned into comedy. But he has something more than a frolic in mind. For the greater part of THE GRASS HARP is an idyll about the pure in heart who, like the meek, inherit the earth. All the common impulses of the world are against the trio who find sanctuary in the tree house. The avaricious sister is outraged. The whole town is shocked and angry, and an armed posse invades the woods to capture the traitors to society and march them back to civilization. One of the deputy sheriffs, doing his duty, shoots the youth and wounds him. But THE GRASS HARP, being pure in heart itself, shows how much stronger the people of spirit are than the people of cant, discipline and selfishness. Their tri-

Over-cuts

The faculty voted last week to recommend to the Board of Trustees that students no longer be academically penalized for over-cutting required chapel and assembly. If the Board accepts this recommendation then they will also be responsible for deciding what type of penalty will be given for over-cuts. The faculty's recommendation does not have the intention of doing away with required chapel and assembly. It is only an attempt to have the penalty for over-cuts non academic in nature.

The faculty also voted down a proposal to change the academic calendar. The proposed change involved starting the fall semester earlier and finishing it before Christmas.

Trustees And Exec. Board Attend Luncheon; First Such Occasion

The Board of Trustees voted Wednesday afternoon to change the college ruling on student conduct. The new rule states that: "Atlantic Christian College, as a church related college, is committed to an honorable and seemly standard of conduct. Gambling and possession of or use of intoxicants on the college campus, on premises under its control, or at college functions are inappropriate to this standard and will not be tolerated. Hazing in any form, academic dishonesty, and unbecoming behavior are forbidden under any circumstance or situation. Penalties for violations of these regulations may be severe, up to and including suspension from the college."

This change is a major one in that the rule in the past has stated that; "It is contrary to both the spirit and purpose of the college to gamble to drink intoxicants, or to be involved in unbecoming behavior. Students are expected to follow procedures of academic honesty in all areas of academic pursuit. All offenders in these regards will be subject to disciplinary action by the College Discipline and Morale Committee."

By a resolution of the Board of Trustees, hazing in any form is forbidden."

This change had been under study for a long time, having been initiated by the SGA Executive Board last fall.

Previous to the business meeting where this change was made the Trustees attending a luncheon to which the SGA Executive Board and the editor of The Collegiate were invited. This is the first time any such coming together of the two boards has occurred.

At the luncheon Dwight Wagner, SGA president, spoke briefly to the group. He attempted to indicate some of the areas with which this year's Executive Board had dealt. He also stated that he felt a major accomplishment had been made with the coming together of the two groups.

Mr. T. J. Hackney Jr., Chairman of the Board of Trustees, stated that he hoped this kind of thing would be continued in the future, and he also said that he felt the Trustees could be proud of the type of students that attend Atlantic Christian College.

3-D Concert Is Planned

The 3 D's — a rising new vocal instrumental trio will present a unique kind of entertainment March 1 at 8:00 p.m. in Wilson Gym as part of A. C. C. concerts. The show is called the 3 D's present The 3 R's — Rhyme, Rhythm and Reason." Comedy, drama, music and rhythm are combined to showcase some of the world's best-loved literature. Dimension and diversity are the order of the night with something for everyone. The pounding of cannon and thunder of hoof of the "Light Brigade," the triumphant march home with the head of Lewis Carroll's Jabberwocky and the pathetic swoosh of Casey's third strike will be among the highlights of the show.

The trio records for Capitol and has been called by the company "one of the most creative groups in years." In addition to this original material the 3 D's will present their versions of favorites from the world of pop, blues, folk and semi-classical music. For accompaniment in their two - hour concert, the 3 D's perform on five guitars, two banjos, a bass fiddle, conga drum and bongos, trumpet, piano and sometimes melophone, harmonica and finger cymbals. Variety is the hallmark of the 3 D's concert.

Dick Davis, Denis Sorenson and Duane Hiatt are the 3 D's (hence the name.)

Noted Educator To Give Lecture

Dr. William D. Sheldon, professor of education at Syracuse University, one of six distinguished lecturers of the National Council of Teachers of English for 1967, will speak at Atlantic Christian College, on March 16, in Howard Chapel at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited.

His lecture is entitled "Basic Issues in the Teaching of Reading." Local chairman of arrangements is Dr. Mildred E. Hartsock, chairman of the ACC Department of English.

Dr. Sheldon is director of Syracuse University's Reading Laboratory and chairman of the Improvement of Learning Program. He is a past president of the International Reading Association and is author of "The Reading of Poetry," and "Teaching the Very Young to Read."

The National Council of Teachers of English, with headquarters in Champaign, Illinois, has underwritten the cost of the Distinguished Lecture Program to strengthen the teaching of English in small colleges and nonurban school districts. Lecturers are sent, upon approval of application from institutions, to colleges and schools away from metropolitan areas and major university centers. With 115,000 members and subscribers, the council is the largest subject matter organization of teachers in the world. Its membership includes teachers from the pre-school through graduate school.

Notice

The Campus Awareness Committee will present a panel discussion on Academic Dishonesty, Monday, February 27, 4:00 p.m., in the lobby of Hackney Hall. The Discipline and Morale Committee will make up the panel and the discussion will be open for questions.
