Exec Board Holds First Meeting

Dexter Announces His Choices For New Chairmen

The newly elected officers of the SGA officially met for the first time Monday night at their first Executive Board meeting.

President Dexter presented his choice for committee chairmen: David Finch for the Social Standards Committee; Toni Rothrock, Social Committee; Barry Havens, Campus Awareness, and Susan Boone, Entertainment Committee. All committee chairmen were accepted by the Board, pending the ratification of the proposed by-laws by the proper administrative officials of the college.

In the past, committee chairmen were proposed by the Committee on Committees and then voted on by the Executive Board. By the proposed by-laws to the SGA Constitution, the President of the SGA will propose the committee chairmen who will then be voted on by the Board.

Dexter also appointed Jesse Weaver as student coordinator. His appointment was passed unanimously.

The Board also acted on the proposed Scholarship Committee which had been tabled at the Exec. Board's last meeting. Dexter was granted the power by the Board to appoint a committee to study the feasibility of a scholarship program.

The proposed Scholarship Committee was designed to consider the question of a loan to some deserving student, with the prior approval of the Board.

The Board also ruled that the Insurance booklets which had been sponsored by the SGA are to be passed out to seniors, with the remainder being given to underclassmen, while others are to be sent to colleges in North Carolina.

Also of importance to the Board and to the students was the question of academic evaluation. Dexter, who had recently attended an academic evaluation conference in Virginia, reported to the Board that the program is not one of studying each individual teacher, but in studying our educational program. He stated that "the purpose is to confront students, faculty, and administration with their academic program to see

Players Give Shakespeare Drama Here

To climax its 50th anniversary, Stage and Script is presenting Shakespeare's comedy-romance, "Love's Labour's Lost," at 8:15 p. m., on May 10-12, on the college's center campus.

The story, one of the most original of Shakespeare's dramas, concerns a vow made by Ferdinand, the King of Navarre, and three of his lords, to renounce the company of women for three years, spending this time in study. Their resolve is short-lived, however, when the Princess of France arrives, and the restriction against women must be lifted. This is but the first of a lively series of developments which gently satisfies the fortunes and misfortunes of love and the games and pastimes of Elizabethan court life.

Leading male roles will be played by John Day of Wilson, Fred Snodgrass of Portsmouth, Va., Byron Wyndham of Atlanta, Ga., and Harold Hummel of Phoenixville, Pa.

Doris Greene of Kinston, is cast as the Princess of France. Other female leads are Sandra Edwards of Greensboro, Jackie Baker of Atlanta, Ga., and Frances Bellis of Hurlock, Md.
