

James Dick, noted pianist, will appear in concert on the campus at 8:15 p.m., Monday, Oct. 16, in Howard Chapel.

Prize Winning Pianist To Make Appearance

James Dick, noted pianist, will appear in concert on the campus at 8:15 p.m. Monday, October 16, in Howard Chapel. The concert is being sponsored by the Concert and Assembly Committee of the college.

Last June, at the age of 25, Dick returned from the Tschaiowsky Competition in Moscow as winner of the fifth prize. He has won contests sponsored by the San Angelo, Shreveport, Amarillo, Wichita and Dallas symphonies, and was chosen by Abram Chasins as over-all winner of the 1961 Biennial Recording Competition sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers. He was a finalist in the Bolzano, Italy Piano Competition and also in the Leven-

See PRIZE Page 3

Breakdown Of College Enrollment Is Released

The College experienced an enrollment of 1,479 students for the all semester of the 1967-68 academic session, according to Dr. Lewis H. Swindell Jr., dean of the college.

Of the total enrollment, 1,307 are full-time students, while the remainder of 172 are attending on a part-time basis. Making up the student body are 320 seniors, 293 juniors, 390 sophomores, 416 freshmen, 31 special students and 29 nurses. Male students outnumber the female students at a ratio of 770 to 609.

18 States

Students at Atlantic Christian come from 18 states and five foreign countries. Leading are North Carolina students who number 298. Second is Virginia with 14, while third is Pennsylvania with 11. Others include Alabama, Connecticut 1, Delaware 4, District of Columbia 4, Florida 1, Georgia 3, Indiana 1, Kentucky 2, Maine 1, Maryland 9, Massachusetts 1, New Jersey 10, New York 3, South Carolina 4, and Tennessee 1.

Students representing foreign countries are, Canal Zone 1, China 1, Holland 1, Panama 1, and Vietnam 1.

66 Counties

Sixty-six of North Carolina's 100 counties are represented in the ACC student body. Enrollment by counties is as follows: Alamance 8, Alexander 1, Beaufort 49, Bertie 13, Bladen

3, Brunswick 1, Buncombe 1, Cabarrus 1, Catawba 1, Carteret

See BREAKDOWN Page 3

Executive Board Approves Budget

By JOYCE COPELAND

Once again the political regime of ACC carried its mighty torch as the second meeting of the SGA was held on October 2. After the preliminary paraphernalia, roll call, minutes, and treasurer's report, the board got

Dance Set For Friday

The annual Mr. Top Hat Dance will be held in Hines Hall from 8-12 p. m. Friday.

Sponsored by Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority, the dance will feature a tantalizing kickline and beautiful cigarette and hat-check girls.

Music will be provided by the Entertainers. During intermissions the sororities, fraternities, and dorms will entertain.

Climaxing the evening will be the crowning of Mr. Top Hat, chosen from 10 candidates sponsored by the Greeks and the four classes.

The dress for the evening will be semi-formal. Tickets may be purchased in the lobby of Hines Hall.

Now Official

AC Homecoming To Have Parade

Atlantic Christian College will have its annual homecoming parade this year, it was announced through the Administration Building last week.

The announcement came after the parade had been canceled due to failure in obtaining a tobacco warehouse large enough to accommodate the homecoming floats.

It was also stated that Clark's Warehouse and Bob's Warehouse will be used for the construction of the floats. The assembling of the floats will be split so that

See HOMECOMING Page 4

Contribute Clothing

The brothers of Sigma Pi Fraternity contributed approximately $300 worth of new clothing to the local Salvation Army during the month of September. Shown above presenting the clothing to a Salvation Army representative are (left to right) Ray Batchelor, James Hicks and Woody Taylor.

At Last

down to the business of avoiding the business.

The Food Service Committee (another tabled item) was then discussed by the board. The function of this committee was questioned by an alert member. Dean Bennett explained that the committee was to act as a liaison between the student body and the cafeteria management. It would allow students to express complaints or "compliments" on the food service in the "mess hall." The committee nominations included: Mary Lou Wickham, Kathy Sommerkamp, Yates Miller and that defender of the gourmet's delight, Rick Chappell.

As President Dexter "spoke softly and carried a big gavel," the board prepared to discuss new business. The budget for the '67-'68 term was the topic of debate. The total income for this year was announced as $25,286.17. This included $23,000 in student fees and $2,286.17 left from last year. The main problem was too much money and not enough budget. After having cut

See EXECUTIVE Page 3

Foreign Students Grace AC Campus

By BETH BEST

(Editor's Note: This is the first of two articles to appear in The Collegiate about our four foreign students. The article this week features Roger P. K. Sin, Hong Kong, China, and Odette Nguyen, Vietnam. Next week

Science Club Holds Meet

On Wednesday night, September 27, the Science Club held its first meeting of the year. President Nate Brinn gave a summation of the club's history and presented ideas as to what type of activities and functions the club would have for the coming year. He also stressed the fact that the club membership was not restricted to science majors and minors but was open to anyone who was interested in joining.

See SCIENCE Page 4

NGUYEN

SIN

will be Michael Belanger, Republic of Panama, and Anya de Bruijn, Wassenaar, Holland.)

ACC is fortunate to have this year four foreign students who have a great deal to contribute to campus life. In the interest of

See FOREIGN Page 4

In Run Off

Freshman Class Elects Jimmy Lucas President

Jimmy Lucas was elected president of the freshman class in a tight run-off vote Sept. 27. Lucas defeated Jim Lamberson for the top frosh post by a margin of 12 votes, 103 to 95.

Also elected to head the class of 1971 were John Sullivan, vice president; Kay Watson, senator; Faye Pollock, secretary; and Tommy Thorne, treasurer.

A tally of votes cast shows the following results: vice president — Sullivan, 132; May I. Dudley, 55.

Senator — Miss Watson, 115; Joe Howard, 73.

Secretary — Miss Pollock, 96; Miss Toni Valenti, 88.

Treasurer — Thorne, 116; Buster Knight, 69.

Canterbury Officers To Be Elected Sunday

The Canterbury Association will meet Sunday, Oct. 8, in Anderson Hall at St. Timothy's Church.

During the meeting new officers will be elected to head the group during the upcoming year. Rides will leave from the Student Government Building at 7:45 p.m.