Sig Eps Are Team To Beat

By Ronnie Dennis

With the first week and two days of the intramural flag football season over, it looks like the team to beat is Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Sig Eps have rolled off three consecutive victories, and at the time of this writing are unscored on.

Quarterback Gary McMahon is the sparkplug of the Sig Ep offensive unit and he has a host of excellent receivers to throw to. Dick Swanker, Nick "Chico" Pittani and Bill Hackett have been making things miserable for their opposition with some spectacular pass receptions. Their offensive unit has averaged 23 points per game and, unless someone finds the key to their attack, could very well go undefeated.

Delta Sigma Phi, Sigma Pi and Alpha Sigma Phi have all made excellent showings on defense, but none of the three has had any offensive punch to date. Sigma Pi is the only other team, besides the Sig Eps, that hasn't even up a point.

As the season progresses, the without permission from the parents, saying they will be responsible for their daughters welfare to and from class.

They will not be allowed to ride in cars unless it is a four-door hardtop which burns regular fuel, is six cylinder, and has seat belts and shoulder harnesses. Then they are allowed to ride only with the permission of the Dean of Transportation who lives in Asheville, N. C. All girls living in the annex will have the same dating privileges as the upperclass women, there is either a total eclipse of the sun the day before or earth switches places with Mars in the Solar system.

The Gator Bowl Bulldogs Begin Formal Drills

By Ronnie Dennis

The 1967-68 edition of the Atlantic Christian College basketball squad began formal drills this week. Coach Ira Norfolk seemed pleased with the initial workouts and was encouraged by the spirit of his squad. It is a valuable asset to any team to be able to begin drills with most of the returning candidates already "in shape" and raring to go. A lot of time is saved on conditioning drills, and this valuable time can be spent on other aspects of the game such as passing, shooting, dribbling and team work.

With homecoming just around the corner, Coach Norfolk will be driving his troops hard to get them physically and mentally ready to face what will probably be one of the most demanding schedules this school has ever faced.

Next week we will take an in-depth look at some of the Bulldogs, and try to get their opinions on the upcoming season.

The time has finally arrived for those with junior standing to journey to the Blackwell Classing Showcase. Sizes and styles were examined to the tune of a five dollar deposit for the ring.

noon, from 2:30 to 4:30, the alumni will be given student tours over the campus, and a band concert will be given at 3 p.m. on center campus. Then, gourmets in the campus sororities and fraternities will fete at 5:30 p.m.

The annual homecoming basketball game will see Atlantic Christian's mighty Bulldogs against the cagers from Elizabeth City State Teachers College. Game time will be 7:30 p.m.

The end of another year's homecoming festivities will be at a 9 p.m. dance in the classroom building.
