

Some 100 women students and faculty attended a statewide meeting of the N. C. Athletic and Recreation Federation of College Women held here on campus. Among those playing key roles in the meeting were, left to right, Mrs. Betty Flinchum, consultant for girls and women's sports of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation; Miss June Galloway, state advisor for the group; Miss Kae Miller, president of the ACC Woman's Recreation Association; Thomas Parham, of the ACC Health and Athletic Department, and Mrs. Barbara Smith, program director for the state conference.

Quorum Attendance

SGA Budget Is Adopted During Luncheon Meet

By AL COOKE
As a follow-up to the fiasco witnessed by the SGA on Tuesday, October 17, a second SGA assembly was scheduled on the following Thursday to reconsider budget. This assembly wasn't required, however; as it was known that students would attend due to the facts that their interest had been aroused, they wanted to have activities such as homecoming for which a budget is necessary, they are civic minded, and they just wouldn't think of cutting.

Kids Want A Universal Peace But Settle For A Mass Chaos

They don't know if it's fittin' or not for an old feller to contradict the things that the younger set of people is doin' or not,

They act like they want some kind of a universal peace, and golly they'll get it if they have to burn down the White House and kill or beat up every fuzzi in Washington . . ."

11:00 in Howard Chapel after a few confused strays had been hauled over from the gym. Because of the masses also assembled in the cafeteria, President Dexter delayed the meeting to inform them of the opportunity they were missing. Dexter then returned to the chapel to conduct his meeting. Not wanting those who "live by bread alone," however, to miss the meeting, Dexter decided to take the meeting to them. With about twenty followers he marched to the cafeteria and set his disciples to passing out copies of the budget—a feat which they performed with ardent fervor.

Assured now of no impediment

See SGA Page 4

Contemporary Art Showing At ACC Characterized By Quality Of Motion

An exhibition of paintings, sculpture and constructions by some of America's foremost contemporary artists, opened at the

Athletic Conference AC Is Host To Federation

More than 100 women students and faculty from colleges and universities across North Carolina met on the campus Friday for the annual conference of the North Carolina Athletic and Recreation Federation of College Women.

Serving as host to the meeting was the Atlantic Christian College Women's Recreation Association. All main sessions were held in Wilson Gymnasium.

Speaker for the first general session held in the morning was E. Thomas Parham, assistant professor of physical education at ACC. Dr. John D. Sanford, chairman of the Department of Health and Physical Education, Kae Miller, president of the state federation, and Lindy Clark, president of the W.R.A., extended words of welcome.

Group sessions were held beginning at 11:30 a.m., while regional meetings were held beginning at 2 p.m.

The second general session was held at 3 p.m., followed by a Halloween Carnival held in the balcony of the Wilson Gymnasium.

Highlighting the meeting was a banquet held at the Heart of Wilson Motel, which featured an address by Miss Betty Flinchum, consultant for girls and women's sports of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Alumni Aid Alma Mater Financially

The 1967 Alumni Telephone Campaign got under way Monday, October 23, with an excellent turnout of student workers.

Zeb Whitehurst, Director of Alumni Affairs and A. J. Walston, Alumni President, expressed their extreme appreciation to those students concerned enough to man the phones. Approximately 25 students contributed their time on each of the two opening nights.

As of our Tuesday deadline, there were 189 pledges amounting to $2,591. This left $22,409 to be collected if the campaign is to reach its $25,000 goal.

The proceeds from the campaign which ends on November 3 will be used to buy furnishings for the new Student Union.

In Case Gallery

Case Art Building Gallery on Oct. 21 and will remain on view until Nov. 12. Organized by and first seen at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., the collection is circulating throughout the United States and Canada under the auspices of the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service.

All of the artists in the exhibition live and work in the Delaware River Valley. The artists included in the show are Richard Anuszkiewicz of Frenchtown, N. J., Clarence Carter of Milford, N. J., John Goodyear of Lebanon, N. J., Edward Higgins of Easton, Pa., and Reginald Neal of Lebanon, N. J. The group have in common rich representation in both public and private collections, and have

See ART Page 4

"RODS OVER WHITE" BY REGINALD NEAL

ACC's Finest Plans For Homecoming Are Nearing Completion

Preparation for Atlantic Christian College's finest Homecoming slated for Nov. 11, are nearing completion, according to Zeb Whitehurst, director of Alumni affairs.

Kicking off the homecoming festivities will be a colorful Homecoming Parade slated to be held in downtown Wilson beginning at 11 a. m. Included will be floats by various sororities, fraternities, student organizations, a host of bands and beauty queens. Reigning over the event will be the Alumni Queen and Homecoming Queen.

On the evening prior to Homecoming Day, a concert will be presented by "Little Anthony and the Imperials," in the Wilson Gymnasium at 8:15 o'clock. The Homecoming Queen will be crowned during an intermission.

Homecoming registration is scheduled to begin at 10 a. m. A special information booth will be located in front of Hardy Dining Hall. The annual Alumni Association Business Luncheon will be held in Hardy Dining Hall and will begin at 12 noon. Presiding over the business session will be A. J. Walston, president of the ACC Alumni Association.

A special concert by the At-

See PLANS Page 3

See KIDS Page 4